Delectful Reception at Salem Woman's Club Honors New Members

A delightful affair of the week was the reception at the Woman's Club-house Friday afternoon in honor of the Salem women who have been received as members of the club in the past year.

The club rooms were decorated with attractive baskets of fern and pussywillows. Mrs. C. E. Stricklin was chairman of the decorating committee. She was assisted by Mrs. L. O. Clement, Mrs. E. E. Ling, and Mrs. Ronald Jones.

Mrs. F. M. Erickson, Mrs. W. D. Clarke, and Mrs. William M. Pennington, officers of the club, greeted the guests.

The afternoon was spent in getting acquainted as this was the primary purpose of the reception.

The Girls' Orchestra from the Sacred Heart Academy played very enjoyable musical numbers throughout the afternoon. Mrs. Harry Love was in charge of the program.

The tea table in the dining room was lovely with a beautifully embroidered cloth and a centerpiece of pink carnations, acacia, and pink tapers in silver holders.

Mrs. Roy Burton cut ices and Mrs. Frank Myers presided at the urns for the first hour of the afternoon.

During the second hour, Mrs. John Rand cut ices and Mrs. C. F. Hamilton poured.

The tea committee included Mrs. Karl Becke, chairman, Mrs. Harry J. Weidner, Mrs. D. R. Ross, Mrs. George Forge, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, and Mrs. C. E. Stricklin.

Delightful Affair Given Yesterday Afternoon at the Steeves' Home

One of the most elaborate affairs of the season was the reception held yesterday afternoon at the home of Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves on Court street. Entertaining with Mrs. Steeves were Mrs. F. A. Logge, Mrs. Laban Steeves, Mrs. Kenneth Legge, Mrs. Paul B. Morse, and Mrs. Wallace Griffith.

The guests were greeted at the door by little Victor and Richard Steeves, Leon Spaulding, and Josephine Morse. The little lads wore suits of blue and white and the little girls wore lovely frocks of pastel silk.

The hostesses received the guests in the main drawing room which was very attractively decorated with begonias and primroses. The same lovely flowers were arranged about the living room, library, and dining room.

Assisting about the rooms throughout the afternoon were E. T. Barnes, Mrs. M. C. Findley, Mrs. George H. Alden, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Mrs. J. C. Griffith, Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. A. A. Lee, and Mrs. Linn Smith.

For the first hour of the afternoon Mrs. Alice H. Dodd and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney presided at the serving urns at the beautifully appointed tea table which was covered with a cloth of rare old lace and centered with carnations, heather, freesia, and pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson and Mrs. Thomas B. Kay succeeded them at the second hour.

Mrs. Leonard Nelson, Mrs. Lloyd Lee, Mrs. Reed Rowland, Mrs. Henry Tate of Stayton and Mrs. E. T. B. Hill assisted in the serving during the first hour. The Misses Grace Hunt, Beatrice Lockhart, Florence Young, and Mary Louise Aiken assisted at the second hour.

More than three-hundred guests called in the afternoon.

Dr. Ira Landrith Will Speak in Salem on Tuesday Evening

It is announced by Marion County Christian Endeavor Union that Rev. Ira Landrith, D. D., LL. D., of Chicago, the Citizenship Superintendent of the International Society of Christian Endeavor, will speak in Salem, Tuesday, January 24th, at seven-thirty o'clock. The meeting will be held in the First Christian Church.

Dr. Ira Landrith, who gets his mail in Chicago, but who is at home in every one of the forty-eight states, has been one of the outstanding platform figures of the country for more than twenty-five years. He has been one of the champions of moral reform, devoting his brilliant talents principally to the battles for prohibition, woman suffrage, and interdenominational fellowship among the churches.

One phase of Dr. Landrith's public activity has been his interest in the youth of America. Officially, he holds the title of Citizenship Superintendent of the International Society of Christian Endeavor, and he is a favorite leader among young people of many denominations. His present speaking engagements, nationwide in their scope, are under the auspices of the local Christian Endeavor societies and union, but his audiences are usually composed of men and women of all walks of life and with varied beliefs and connections.

Typical of Dr. Landrith's pungent statements are the following: "Better be right than regular, decent than democratic, respectable than republican, and it is hard to be both all the time." "Be fit to live and fit to live with." "The Church is God's organized omnipotence on earth; and it could do what it would if it would do what it could."

The McConsville (Ohio) Herald says of him: "Dr. Landrith is unsurpassed in eloquence and power. The speaker pleased everybody. Many said it was the best address they had ever heard. As an orator, independent of the subject, the address was a masterpiece. Dr. Landrith is an orator of Southern type with a splendid voice and a pleasing personality, which fascinates and captivates at the same time that it convicts and convinces."

Preceding the evening program there will be a banquet at six-thirty o'clock. Tickets will be on sale at the church.

The local Christian Endeavor leaders and the county Union officers are making active preparations to make this one of the largest rallies in the history of the work. Every society is urged to attend en masse.

Miss Blakely Honored With Lovely Pre-Nuptial Shower

Miss Ethel Blakely whose marriage to John Herberger will be an event of the month was the honor guest at a lovely pre-nuptial shower which was given last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Virgil Burson.

The living rooms of the Burson home were attractively decorated with orchid and white streamers. Gold and green tapers furnished the only illumination.

In the center of the room just beneath a large white wedding bell was an improvised stairway with a miniature bride, two bridesmaids, and a little ring bearer descending.

The gifts for the bride-elect were arranged at the foot of the stairs.

Miss Georgia Sneed and Mrs. Adin Blakely assisted the hostess in serving the late supper.

In the group were the honor guest, Miss Blakely, Miss Thelma Johnson, Miss Glenna Russell, Miss Anna Maruny, Miss Dorothy Rielly, Miss Dorothy Tucker, Miss Stella Gilreath, Miss Esther Graetinger, Mrs. Frank Hoover, Mrs. Lloyd Wenger, Miss Elsie Blakely, Miss Fay Dickerson, Miss Georgia Sneed, Miss Leona Gilreath, Mrs. Alvin Marr, Mrs. John Wheeler, Miss Irene Marr, Mrs. Judson Bressler, Mrs. Carol Robinson, and the hostess, Mrs. Burson.

World-Famous Pianist Visiting Her Father in Salem

One of America's foremost pianists, Miss Winifred Byrd, has been a guest in Salem for the past fortnight. She slipped in quietly without the advance notices which usually precede the arrival of this talented little artist. Upon hearing of the serious nature of the illness of her father, Dr. W. H. Byrd, she left her New York manager to cancel her concert engagement and left immediately for the west.

Miss Byrd has not visited in Salem since November 1923. At that time she gave concerts in Salem and Portland and appeared as soloist with practically every symphony orchestra of the Pacific coast.

She has made her home in Salem until she was fifteen years old when she went east to continue her piano studies in Boston. Her father is the oldest practicing physician in Marion county and her grandmother, Mrs. Martha A. Byrd, celebrated her ninety-third birthday a short time ago.

Miss Byrd made her musical debut on February 27th in the Aeolian Hall, New York City. Since then she has won friends and fame in every large city of the east.
