Unusual Program Will Be Offered at Presbyterian Church

What is reputed to be one of the most versatile and entertaining programs ever offered a Pacific Coast audience, will be presented at the First Presbyterian Church Tuesday evening, January 24th, when Jay Gore and his company, under the Independent Artists Tours, will present an evening of mystery and music.

The program is given after the continental mode of unit continuity, and is divided into three parts. The show opens with a novelty art number which is full of beautiful lighting effects of artistic skill.

The musical part of the program is presented by Miss Dorothy Reynolds, gifted pianist and whistler, and by Dorothy Dial Gore, soprano and 'colloist' who is well-known to Pacific Coast audiences. The last part of the entertainment, which is presented by Jay Gore, is said to surpass anything in the local field. This act is beautifully staged and carried with the elaborate equipment necessary for the varied effects of illusion employed.
