

STATE SAVINGS and LOAN ASSOCIATION

703-706 First National Bank Building, Salem, Oregon
ASSETS OVER $200,000 MORE THAN 1200 MEMBERS

We Pay 7 Per Cent
An Investment Worth Investigating

OFFICERS

Carl D. Gabrielson, President.
C. A. Reynolds, Vice President.
Jas. H. Nicholson, Vice President.
Chas. Wiper, Secretary-Treasurer.
J. J. Elliott, Assistant Secretary.

DIRECTORS

E. B. Williamson
T. A. Livesley
E. F. Slade
John H. Carson
L. C. Farmer
H. M. Hawkins
Carl D. Gabrielson
C. A. Reynolds
Jas. H. Nicholson

"SAFETY FOR YOUR SAVINGS"

LOCAL NEWS BRIEFS

Commissioner Visits

C. E. Gates was in the city Wednesday. Mr. Gates is a member of the state highway commission and resides in Medford.

"Aaron Slick of Pumpkin Creek"
At Hayesville school tonight.

Warden Archer Here

Warden Archer, of the McNeil's Island penitentiary, was a Salem visitor yesterday.

Last Week January Clearance
Sale on Home Furnishings. Giese-Powers Furniture Co.

Glee Club Entertains
The Willamette university men's glee club, which is to leave Friday on its annual midyear tour, gave a sample of its program at the chapel exercises Wednesday.

Eat Breakfast
With percolated coffee—always 5c—Black Cat Restaurant.

Drainage Meet Soon
The 14th annual session of the Oregon Drainage association will be held Tuesday, February 7, at Corvallis, according to word received at the office of the Salem Chamber of Commerce Wednesday.

Chicken and Biscuits
Every Thursday evening at O'Leary's. 50c. 5:30 to 8:00.

Dr. Hall Will Come
The Salem YMCA and the Lions club will be hosts on February 24 to Dr. Arnold Bennett Hall, president of the University of Oregon. The former body will be visited in the evening and the Lions will entertain him at a noon luncheon.

Hayesville Community Will Give
A comedy at schoolhouse tonight.

Damages Demanded
Action was begun in circuit court here yesterday by Simon A. Ernst against Emil Gier for $78 as damages growing out of an auto accident on November 26 of last year a mile north of Mt. Angel.

See Miss Murdoch
Universal Electric Range demonstrator, all this week at Eoff Electric Inc.

Injured By Bicycle
When Miss Hazel Barton, 1345 B street, attempted to cross 15th street between C and D streets shortly after dark Tuesday evening, she was knocked down by a bicycle ridden by Oliver Smith, 1285 North 15th. She sustained severe bruises and an injured elbow.

Notice
Owing to death of an esteemed neighbor the Chemawa M. W. A. Thursday night dance is postponed two weeks.

Wants Peep at Books
Fred C. Meyer of Portland, who claims to own preferred and common stock in the Piggly Wiggly corporation valued at $47,000, Wednesday filed mandamus proceedings in the state supreme court in which he demands that he be allowed to examine the books and accounts of the company.

Cyclamen Plant Special
Continuing all week. Breithaupt's, 612 State St.

Would You Give a Gift
Of something really different? Visit the gift room at Pomeroy & Keene's.

Measles Continues
Ac'd from 20 new cases of measles, Marion county continues to be relatively free from disease, according to the state health department report for the week ending January 21. There were six cases of chicken pox, one of diphtheria, one of pneumonia, one of tuberculosis, one of infantile paralysis and one of erysipelas.

Last Week January Clearance
Sale on Home Furnishings. Giese-Powers Furniture Co.

Calf Club Organized
William W. Fox, rural school supervisor for Marion county, and Joe E. Calavan, who holds a similar position in Linn county, spent yesterday along the boundary line between the two counties near Stayton organizing the county calf club. Some Linn county children's groups have expressed a

SPECIAL PRICE—$2850
The owner must sell at once. It is well worth $3500—but it is priced to sell NOW.

Five rooms, basement, fireplace. Paved street, on a carline, close to school. Located in north part of city.

$1000 will handle the deal.

U. S. REALTY CO.
442 State St. Tel. 2699

NOTED EVANGELIST COMING TO SALEM
MRS. ADA DOWE
To Speak at the
Emmanuel Full Gospel Mission
Tonight
420 State Street
Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights at 7:45. Also Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Be sure and hear one whose being might.

Distinctly Correct Footwear
For Men Boys For Women Girls
John J. Rottler
Expert Shoe Fitters
418 State St.

White Mountain Honey
Is the best. Phone Mead at 878.

Mikkelsen Wins Case
The jury in the case of Albert G. Mikkelsen vs. J. A. Morgan and W. E. Pitts yesterday returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $108 as damages growing out of an auto accident on the Silverton highway during fair week last fall. Pitts was driving a Ford truck of which Morgan was the owner when it collided with a Dodge car driven by Mikkelsen.

1928 Calendars Free, Homer H.
Smith Ins. Agency, over Millers.

Dr. De Kleine at Woodburn
Dr. William De Kleine, in charge of the work of the Marion county child health demonstration, was in Woodburn last night to address the parent-teacher association of that town upon the further use of toxin-antitoxin, a serum which immunizes children against diphtheria and which the demonstration has been introducing into all schools of the county.

Furniture Upholsterer
And repairing. Giese-Powers Furniture Co.

Old Case Resumed
After a lapse of more than a year the case against Otto R. Skopli for obtaining money under false pretenses was resumed in justice court here yesterday. He is charged with having falsely represented to L. S. Girardin that he was the owner of certain personal property upon which he obtained a loan of $943 from Girardin. The last hearing was held on December 15, 1926. The case was yesterday ordered continued until this afternoon. Meanwhile Skopli is at liberty on $500 bail.

REDUCED RATES RESULT OF PROTECTION, BELIEF
(Continued from page 1)

pumpers and the men who operate them. The first money from the two mill levy, which will be available in April, will amount to about $15,000. $13,000 of this has already been expended for a pump and about $2,000 for fire hose and other equipment. The next half of the 1928 tax will be available in October or November.

Alderman Dancy is endeavoring to locate suitable buildings to house the engines. He expects that they will all be located within three months, if the money is made available by the council.

New shipment of St. Andreasberg Rollers
"The canary with a college education." Flake's Petland, 273 State. Free advice on care of pets.

$495
FINE TORIC reading lenses. We insure your glasses against breakage. Examination free. Thompson-Glueck Optical Co. 110 N. Comm'l St.

NOTED EVANGELIST COMING TO SALEM
MRS. ADA DOWE
To Speak at the
Emmanuel Full Gospel Mission
Tonight
420 State Street
Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights at 7:45. Also Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Be sure and hear one whose being might.

Distinctly Correct Footwear
For Men Boys For Women Girls
John J. Rottler
Expert Shoe Fitters
418 State St.

White Mountain Honey
Is the best. Phone Mead at 878.

Mikkelsen Wins Case
The jury in the case of Albert G. Mikkelsen vs. J. A. Morgan and W. E. Pitts yesterday returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $108 as damages growing out of an auto accident on the Silverton highway during fair week last fall. Pitts was driving a Ford truck of which Morgan was the owner when it collided with a Dodge car driven by Mikkelsen.

1928 Calendars Free, Homer H.
Smith Ins. Agency, over Millers.

Dr. De Kleine at Woodburn
Dr. William De Kleine, in charge of the work of the Marion county child health demonstration, was in Woodburn last night to address the parent-teacher association of that town upon the further use of toxin-antitoxin, a serum which immunizes children against diphtheria and which the demonstration has been introducing into all schools of the county.

Furniture Upholsterer
And repairing. Giese-Powers Furniture Co.

Old Case Resumed
After a lapse of more than a year the case against Otto R. Skopli for obtaining money under false pretenses was resumed in justice court here yesterday. He is charged with having falsely represented to L. S. Girardin that he was the owner of certain personal property upon which he obtained a loan of $943 from Girardin. The last hearing was held on December 15, 1926. The case was yesterday ordered continued until this afternoon. Meanwhile Skopli is at liberty on $500 bail.

REDUCED RATES RESULT OF PROTECTION, BELIEF
(Continued from page 1)

pumpers and the men who operate them. The first money from the two mill levy, which will be available in April, will amount to about $15,000. $13,000 of this has already been expended for a pump and about $2,000 for fire hose and other equipment. The next half of the 1928 tax will be available in October or November.

Alderman Dancy is endeavoring to locate suitable buildings to house the engines. He expects that they will all be located within three months, if the money is made available by the council.

New shipment of St. Andreasberg Rollers
"The canary with a college education." Flake's Petland, 273 State. Free advice on care of pets.

$495
FINE TORIC reading lenses. We insure your glasses against breakage. Examination free. Thompson-Glueck Optical Co. 110 N. Comm'l St.

NOTED EVANGELIST COMING TO SALEM
MRS. ADA DOWE
To Speak at the
Emmanuel Full Gospel Mission
Tonight
420 State Street
Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights at 7:45. Also Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Be sure and hear one whose being might.

Distinctly Correct Footwear
For Men Boys For Women Girls
John J. Rottler
Expert Shoe Fitters
418 State St.

White Mountain Honey
Is the best. Phone Mead at 878.

Mikkelsen Wins Case
The jury in the case of Albert G. Mikkelsen vs. J. A. Morgan and W. E. Pitts yesterday returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $108 as damages growing out of an auto accident on the Silverton highway during fair week last fall. Pitts was driving a Ford truck of which Morgan was the owner when it collided with a Dodge car driven by Mikkelsen.

1928 Calendars Free, Homer H.
Smith Ins. Agency, over Millers.

Dr. De Kleine at Woodburn
Dr. William De Kleine, in charge of the work of the Marion county child health demonstration, was in Woodburn last night to address the parent-teacher association of that town upon the further use of toxin-antitoxin, a serum which immunizes children against diphtheria and which the demonstration has been introducing into all schools of the county.

Furniture Upholsterer
And repairing. Giese-Powers Furniture Co.

Old Case Resumed
After a lapse of more than a year the case against Otto R. Skopli for obtaining money under false pretenses was resumed in justice court here yesterday. He is charged with having falsely represented to L. S. Girardin that he was the owner of certain personal property upon which he obtained a loan of $943 from Girardin. The last hearing was held on December 15, 1926. The case was yesterday ordered continued until this afternoon. Meanwhile Skopli is at liberty on $500 bail.

REDUCED RATES RESULT OF PROTECTION, BELIEF
(Continued from page 1)

pumpers and the men who operate them. The first money from the two mill levy, which will be available in April, will amount to about $15,000. $13,000 of this has already been expended for a pump and about $2,000 for fire hose and other equipment. The next half of the 1928 tax will be available in October or November.

Alderman Dancy is endeavoring to locate suitable buildings to house the engines. He expects that they will all be located within three months, if the money is made available by the council.

New shipment of St. Andreasberg Rollers
"The canary with a college education." Flake's Petland, 273 State. Free advice on care of pets.

$495
FINE TORIC reading lenses. We insure your glasses against breakage. Examination free. Thompson-Glueck Optical Co. 110 N. Comm'l St.

NOTED EVANGELIST COMING TO SALEM
MRS. ADA DOWE
To Speak at the
Emmanuel Full Gospel Mission
Tonight
420 State Street
Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights at 7:45. Also Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Be sure and hear one whose being might.

Distinctly Correct Footwear
For Men Boys For Women Girls
John J. Rottler
Expert Shoe Fitters
418 State St.

White Mountain Honey
Is the best. Phone Mead at 878.

Mikkelsen Wins Case
The jury in the case of Albert G. Mikkelsen vs. J. A. Morgan and W. E. Pitts yesterday returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $108 as damages growing out of an auto accident on the Silverton highway during fair week last fall. Pitts was driving a Ford truck of which Morgan was the owner when it collided with a Dodge car driven by Mikkelsen.

1928 Calendars Free, Homer H.
Smith Ins. Agency, over Millers.

Dr. De Kleine at Woodburn
Dr. William De Kleine, in charge of the work of the Marion county child health demonstration, was in Woodburn last night to address the parent-teacher association of that town upon the further use of toxin-antitoxin, a serum which immunizes children against diphtheria and which the demonstration has been introducing into all schools of the county.

Furniture Upholsterer
And repairing. Giese-Powers Furniture Co.

Old Case Resumed
After a lapse of more than a year the case against Otto R. Skopli for obtaining money under false pretenses was resumed in justice court here yesterday. He is charged with having falsely represented to L. S. Girardin that he was the owner of certain personal property upon which he obtained a loan of $943 from Girardin. The last hearing was held on December 15, 1926. The case was yesterday ordered continued until this afternoon. Meanwhile Skopli is at liberty on $500 bail.

REDUCED RATES RESULT OF PROTECTION, BELIEF
(Continued from page 1)

pumpers and the men who operate them. The first money from the two mill levy, which will be available in April, will amount to about $15,000. $13,000 of this has already been expended for a pump and about $2,000 for fire hose and other equipment. The next half of the 1928 tax will be available in October or November.

Alderman Dancy is endeavoring to locate suitable buildings to house the engines. He expects that they will all be located within three months, if the money is made available by the council.

New shipment of St. Andreasberg Rollers
"The canary with a college education." Flake's Petland, 273 State. Free advice on care of pets.

$495
FINE TORIC reading lenses. We insure your glasses against breakage. Examination free. Thompson-Glueck Optical Co. 110 N. Comm'l St.

NOTED EVANGELIST COMING TO SALEM
MRS. ADA DOWE
To Speak at the
Emmanuel Full Gospel Mission
Tonight
420 State Street
Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights at 7:45. Also Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Be sure and hear one whose being might.

Distinctly Correct Footwear
For Men Boys For Women Girls
John J. Rottler
Expert Shoe Fitters
418 State St.

White Mountain Honey
Is the best. Phone Mead at 878.

Mikkelsen Wins Case
The jury in the case of Albert G. Mikkelsen vs. J. A. Morgan and W. E. Pitts yesterday returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $108 as damages growing out of an auto accident on the Silverton highway during fair week last fall. Pitts was driving a Ford truck of which Morgan was the owner when it collided with a Dodge car driven by Mikkelsen.

1928 Calendars Free, Homer H.
Smith Ins. Agency, over Millers.

Dr. De Kleine at Woodburn
Dr. William De Kleine, in charge of the work of the Marion county child health demonstration, was in Woodburn last night to address the parent-teacher association of that town upon the further use of toxin-antitoxin, a serum which immunizes children against diphtheria and which the demonstration has been introducing into all schools of the county.

Furniture Upholsterer
And repairing. Giese-Powers Furniture Co.

Old Case Resumed
After a lapse of more than a year the case against Otto R. Skopli for obtaining money under false pretenses was resumed in justice court here yesterday. He is charged with having falsely represented to L. S. Girardin that he was the owner of certain personal property upon which he obtained a loan of $943 from Girardin. The last hearing was held on December 15, 1926. The case was yesterday ordered continued until this afternoon. Meanwhile Skopli is at liberty on $500 bail.

REDUCED RATES RESULT OF PROTECTION, BELIEF
(Continued from page 1)

pumpers and the men who operate them. The first money from the two mill levy, which will be available in April, will amount to about $15,000. $13,000 of this has already been expended for a pump and about $2,000 for fire hose and other equipment. The next half of the 1928 tax will be available in October or November.

Alderman Dancy is endeavoring to locate suitable buildings to house the engines. He expects that they will all be located within three months, if the money is made available by the council.

New shipment of St. Andreasberg Rollers
"The canary with a college education." Flake's Petland, 273 State. Free advice on care of pets.

$495
FINE TORIC reading lenses. We insure your glasses against breakage. Examination free. Thompson-Glueck Optical Co. 110 N. Comm'l St.

NOTED EVANGELIST COMING TO SALEM
MRS. ADA DOWE
To Speak at the
Emmanuel Full Gospel Mission
Tonight
420 State Street
Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights at 7:45. Also Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Be sure and hear one whose being might.

Distinctly Correct Footwear
For Men Boys For Women Girls
John J. Rottler
Expert Shoe Fitters
418 State St.

White Mountain Honey
Is the best. Phone Mead at 878.

Mikkelsen Wins Case
The jury in the case of Albert G. Mikkelsen vs. J. A. Morgan and W. E. Pitts yesterday returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $108 as damages growing out of an auto accident on the Silverton highway during fair week last fall. Pitts was driving a Ford truck of which Morgan was the owner when it collided with a Dodge car driven by Mikkelsen.

1928 Calendars Free, Homer H.
Smith Ins. Agency, over Millers.

Dr. De Kleine at Woodburn
Dr. William De Kleine, in charge of the work of the Marion county child health demonstration, was in Woodburn last night to address the parent-teacher association of that town upon the further use of toxin-antitoxin, a serum which immunizes children against diphtheria and which the demonstration has been introducing into all schools of the county.

Furniture Upholsterer
And repairing. Giese-Powers Furniture Co.

Old Case Resumed
After a lapse of more than a year the case against Otto R. Skopli for obtaining money under false pretenses was resumed in justice court here yesterday. He is charged with having falsely represented to L. S. Girardin that he was the owner of certain personal property upon which he obtained a loan of $943 from Girardin. The last hearing was held on December 15, 1926. The case was yesterday ordered continued until this afternoon. Meanwhile Skopli is at liberty on $500 bail.

REDUCED RATES RESULT OF PROTECTION, BELIEF
(Continued from page 1)

pumpers and the men who operate them. The first money from the two mill levy, which will be available in April, will amount to about $15,000. $13,000 of this has already been expended for a pump and about $2,000 for fire hose and other equipment. The next half of the 1928 tax will be available in October or November.

Alderman Dancy is endeavoring to locate suitable buildings to house the engines. He expects that they will all be located within three months, if the money is made available by the council.

New shipment of St. Andreasberg Rollers
"The canary with a college education." Flake's Petland, 273 State. Free advice on care of pets.

$495
FINE TORIC reading lenses. We insure your glasses against breakage. Examination free. Thompson-Glueck Optical Co. 110 N. Comm'l St.

NOTED EVANGELIST COMING TO SALEM
MRS. ADA DOWE
To Speak at the
Emmanuel Full Gospel Mission
Tonight
420 State Street
Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights at 7:45. Also Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Be sure and hear one whose being might.

Distinctly Correct Footwear
For Men Boys For Women Girls
John J. Rottler
Expert Shoe Fitters
418 State St.

White Mountain Honey
Is the best. Phone Mead at 878.

Mikkelsen Wins Case
The jury in the case of Albert G. Mikkelsen vs. J. A. Morgan and W. E. Pitts yesterday returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $108 as damages growing out of an auto accident on the Silverton highway during fair week last fall. Pitts was driving a Ford truck of which Morgan was the owner when it collided with a Dodge car driven by Mikkelsen.

1928 Calendars Free, Homer H.
Smith Ins. Agency, over Millers.

Dr. De Kleine at Woodburn
Dr. William De Kleine, in charge of the work of the Marion county child health demonstration, was in Woodburn last night to address the parent-teacher association of that town upon the further use of toxin-antitoxin, a serum which immunizes children against diphtheria and which the demonstration has been introducing into all schools of the county.

Furniture Upholsterer
And repairing. Giese-Powers Furniture Co.

Old Case Resumed
After a lapse of more than a year the case against Otto R. Skopli for obtaining money under false pretenses was resumed in justice court here yesterday. He is charged with having falsely represented to L. S. Girardin that he was the owner of certain personal property upon which he obtained a loan of $943 from Girardin. The last hearing was held on December 15, 1926. The case was yesterday ordered continued until this afternoon. Meanwhile Skopli is at liberty on $500 bail.

REDUCED RATES RESULT OF PROTECTION, BELIEF
(Continued from page 1)

pumpers and the men who operate them. The first money from the two mill levy, which will be available in April, will amount to about $15,000. $13,000 of this has already been expended for a pump and about $2,000 for fire hose and other equipment. The next half of the 1928 tax will be available in October or November.

Alderman Dancy is endeavoring to locate suitable buildings to house the engines. He expects that they will all be located within three months, if the money is made available by the council.

New shipment of St. Andreasberg Rollers
"The canary with a college education." Flake's Petland, 273 State. Free advice on care of pets.

$495
FINE TORIC reading lenses. We insure your glasses against breakage. Examination free. Thompson-Glueck Optical Co. 110 N. Comm'l St.

NOTED EVANGELIST COMING TO SALEM
MRS. ADA DOWE
To Speak at the
Emmanuel Full Gospel Mission
Tonight
420 State Street
Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights at 7:45. Also Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Be sure and hear one whose being might.

Distinctly Correct Footwear
For Men Boys For Women Girls
John J. Rottler
Expert Shoe Fitters
418 State St.

White Mountain Honey
Is the best. Phone Mead at 878.

Mikkelsen Wins Case
The jury in the case of Albert G. Mikkelsen vs. J. A. Morgan and W. E. Pitts yesterday returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $108 as damages growing out of an auto accident on the Silverton highway during fair week last fall. Pitts was driving a Ford truck of which Morgan was the owner when it collided with a Dodge car driven by Mikkelsen.

1928 Calendars Free, Homer H.
Smith Ins. Agency, over Millers.

Dr. De Kleine at Woodburn
Dr. William De Kleine, in charge of the work of the Marion county child health demonstration, was in Woodburn last night to address the parent-teacher association of that town upon the further use of toxin-antitoxin, a serum which immunizes children against diphtheria and which the demonstration has been introducing into all schools of the county.

Furniture Upholsterer
And repairing. Giese-Powers Furniture Co.

Old Case Resumed
After a lapse of more than a year the case against Otto R. Skopli for obtaining money under false pretenses was resumed in justice court here yesterday. He is charged with having falsely represented to L. S. Girardin that he was the owner of certain personal property upon which he obtained a loan of $943 from Girardin. The last hearing was held on December 15, 1926. The case was yesterday ordered continued until this afternoon. Meanwhile Skopli is at liberty on $500 bail.

REDUCED RATES RESULT OF PROTECTION, BELIEF
(Continued from page 1)

pumpers and the men who operate them. The first money from the two mill levy, which will be available in April, will amount to about $15,000. $13,000 of this has already been expended for a pump and about $2,000 for fire hose and other equipment. The next half of the 1928 tax will be available in October or November.

Alderman Dancy is endeavoring to locate suitable buildings to house the engines. He expects that they will all be located within three months, if the money is made available by the council.

New shipment of St. Andreasberg Rollers
"The canary with a college education." Flake's Petland, 273 State. Free advice on care of pets.

$495
FINE TORIC reading lenses. We insure your glasses against breakage. Examination free. Thompson-Glueck Optical Co. 110 N. Comm'l St.

NOTED EVANGELIST COMING TO SALEM
MRS. ADA DOWE
To Speak at the
Emmanuel Full Gospel Mission
Tonight
420 State Street
Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights at 7:45. Also Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Be sure and hear one whose being might.