

GREETED OLD FRIEND

GENERAL PERSHING LEAVES CROWD TO SEE CHUM

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 26.—(AP)—General John J. Pershing was being introduced to his reception committee at the Union station here this morning, when suddenly his gaze traveled beyond the circle of dressed up folk, and lit on a suit of striped coveralls. Then the call of old days was answered. The guest of honor broke through the reception committee line and pumped away on the arm of a man who appeared to be a railroad.

"Old Jesse!"
"Old John!"
"You old son-of-a-gun!"
"I'll be doggone!"

The official committee, very dignified in their top hats and morning coats, were forgotten. The other half of the reunion was D. C. Jesse, an assistant foreman for the Kansas City Terminal Railway company and the pair had not seen each other since they were school teachers together years ago in a Missouri country town.

International Relations Club Organized At U. of O.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Jan. 26.—(Special)—A branch of the International Relations club, which is sponsored by the Carnegie foundation, has been established on the campus of the University of Oregon. International problems, particularly those relating to peace, will be discussed. It is announced by William P. Maddox, assistant professor of political science, one of the organizers of the club.

Members of the directorate, who will in turn choose other members, are Ernest Jachetta, Portland; Herschel Landru, Alton; Bristol, Eugene; and Marion Leach, Ashland.

Native of Oregon Dies At Monmouth At Age 76

OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL, Monmouth, Jan. 26.—(Special)—James Helmfek died in his 76th year Tuesday night at his home at Monmouth after an illness of several months. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Helmfek, pioneers of Oregon who took up a donation land claim on the Luckiamute river on which the son was born on February 21, 1851. Part of the original homestead was later made into a park and was given to the state by Sarah Helmfek, his mother. Mr. Helmfek has lived his en-

DISCREDIT WITNESS

BURNS DEFENSE HINTS TESTIMONY NOT TRUE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—(AP)—Shortly after William J. McMullin, the government's most important witness in the criminal contempt proceedings against Harry F. Sinclair, William J. Burns and their associates, had testified here that Burns officials had instructed him to prepare false charges against a member of the Fall-Sinclair oil conspiracy jury, he admitted that he was an ex-convict, sentenced in Ohio for forgery.

Quarantine At Valsetz Will End Today, Planned

OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL, Monmouth, Jan. 26.—(Special)—Strict quarantine will be enforced at Valsetz until Friday night, according to the report of Dr. Starbuck, Polk county health officer. School will be allowed to open on Monday, Jan. 30. No new cases have developed and the authorities in charge feel they have the situation well under control. Four public health board members were in Valsetz Tuesday making a thorough canvass of the town and are endeavoring to trace the source of the disease. Drs. Lovett, Bundy and Story of the state board of health are cooperating with Dr. Starbuck. Two Portland nurses have been engaged to remain in the town during the quarantine period. One fatality only has occurred, that being the death of Neil Groat, the eight year old son of D. A. Groat, chairman of the school board. Services will be held at the East Side funeral parlors at Portland Friday afternoon.

935 Students Registered At Monmouth Normal Now

OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL, Monmouth, Jan. 26.—(Special)—Final checkup on the registration at the Oregon normal school was completed with the receiving of the tuition fees at the business office, which reports a total enrollment this term of 935 students. Sixty three of this number are not living on the campus, but are engaged in practice teaching work in the outside training centers. Of the total enrollment more than 100 are men. The number of men on the campus increases each term, according to the official records.

STOCK LOSS BILLION

STEADY DROP IN WALL STREET DOES DAMAGE

BY STANLEY W. PRENOSIL
Associated Press Financial Editor
NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—(AP)—One billion dollars was written off the quoted values of securities listed on the New York Stock Exchange here by the sweeping reaction inspired by the unexpected raising of the Chicago federal reserve bank rediscount rate. The decline, which ran from $2 to $8 a share in the active issues, was an orderly one, and the day's sales which ran about 3 3/4 million shares were not unusually large. Recoveries reduced many of the earlier losses and in a few instances, particularly in the public utility group, sent stocks to new high records.

Powerful speculative pools, which have amassed fortunes for their sponsors in the recent "bull" market, strenuously resisted the liquidating movement. As soon as the first outbreak of selling had spent itself, and many of the small speculators and investors had dumped their holdings "at the market," a brisk recovery was in motion.

RADIO SENDER IN TOILS

Vincent Gellerman Confers With Honolulu Official

HONOLULU, Jan. 26.—(AP)—Vincent Gellerman, the radio operator who sent out apparently unwarranted distress signals from the steamer Griffco while enroute from Seattle to Honolulu recently, was still conferring today with United States District Attorney Wood. Wood has conducted an exhaustive investigation of the incident since the Griffco arrived here last week. No explanation has been given of the distress signals beyond Wood's statement that he did not believe they were justified. Several vessels were dispatched from the mainland to render aid to the Griffco before someone aboard other than Gellerman learned the distress messages were sent and had them countermanded.

GWYNN HICKS PASSES ON

Former Editor of Tacoma Times and Portland Oregonian

SANTA MONICA, Cal., Jan. 26.—(AP)—Gwynn Hicks, 72, former editor of the Portland Oregonian and prior to that editor of the Tacoma Times, died at a hospital here yesterday. Hicks, a resident of Olympia, Wash., owned property here and was visiting in Santa Monica when he became ill with pneumonia which caused his death. He was a member of the Washington state charter committee and was a member of John Rogers' staff when the latter was governor of Washington.

REFUSE VARE COMPLAINT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—(AP)—Dividing on strictly party lines the senate elections committee voted today to dismiss for lack of particulars the petition of William B. Wilson, democrat, contesting the election of Senator-elect William S. Vare, republican, Pennsylvania, but agreed to give the contestants 25 days in which to file an amended complaint. Immediately after the vote, which was 8 to 6, Senator Reed of

MISSOURI, chairman of the slush fund committee which unearthed heavy expenditures in Vare's primary campaign announced that tomorrow he would ask the senate to direct the elections committee to "proceed forthwith" in considering Wilson's contest and in counting the ballots in six Pennsylvania counties where the defeated democratic candidate claims there was conspiracy.

The contest which Wilson has brought is wholly apart from the challenge to Vare's right to sit in the senate.

STOP CATARRH! OPEN NOSTRILS AND HEAD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Relieves Head-Colds at Once

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed and you can't breathe freely because of a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head, soothing and healing the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and you get instant relief. Ah! how good it feels. Your nostrils are open, your head is clear, no more hawking, snuffling, blowing; no more headache, dryness or struggling for breath. Ely's Cream Balm is just what sufferers from head colds and catarrh need. It's a delight.
