YOUNG MEN WANTED FOR SETTLEMENT IN TROPICAL COUNTRY Wanted:—A few young men between the ages of 29 and 35 to help in the oneer work connected with the opening up of a virgin territory in a tropical mintry for the establishment of a settlement. They must be willing and playcally able to stand the privations and hardships of an adventurous out-door in primitive surroundings.

Building.

The territory is located on the sea-coast of a Central American Republic in friendly relations with the U. S. It comprises almost 50,000 acres, set amidst a wild tropical scenery.

The territory is accessible from land and sea. The climatic conditions are good, the natives good-humored and extremely friendly to Americans.

Only young men of good character can be sent down. They must be willing to submit to a rigid camp discipline.

Applications should be made right away. Applicants will receive papers containing detailed information as to living conditions, income, etc., as well as a copy of a survey and two maps showing the exact location of the territory. to gether with a questionnaire which must be filled out and returned immediately. These papers are valuable and only a limited number are available. As a protection against idlers who may ask for them for mere curiosity, earnest minded applicants must send in $1.00 with their application, as proof of good faith. Address Communications to:
