YOUNG MEN WANTED FOR SETTLEMENT Wanted —A few young men between the ages of 20 and 35, to help in the pioneer work connected with the opening up of a virgin territory in a tropical country for the establishment of a settlement. They must be willing and physical cally able to stand the privations and hardships of an adventurous out door

n primitive surroundings. The territory is located on the sea-coast of a Central-American Republic in friendly relations with the U. S. It comprises almost 50,000 acres, set amidst a wild tropical scenery.

The territory is accessible from land and sea. The climatic conditions are good, the natives good humored and extremely friendly to Americans.

Only young men of good character can be sent down. They must be willing to a rigid camp discipline.

Applications should be made right away. Applicants will receive papers confaining detailed information as to living-conditions, income, etc., as well as a copy of a survey and two maps showing the exact location of the territory, to gether with a questionnaire which must be filled out and returned immediately. These papers are valuable and only a limited number are available. As a protection against idlers who may ask for them for mere curiosity, earnest minded applicants must send in $1.00 with their application, as proof of good faith.
