Team Captains For Y. W. C. A. Campaign Appointed

Mrs. Eric Butler, president of the local chapter of the Y. W. C. A., appointed the team captains to recruit workers for the $7,000 campaign for funds which will open Monday and will continue throughout the week, at the luncheon meeting of the Y. W. C. A. board Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. W. D. Clarke is chairman of the ten teams. The captains are Mrs. F. M. Erickson, Mrs. B. B. Flack, Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. B. E. Carrier, Mrs. Leon W. Gleason, Mrs. Bert Ford, Mrs. J. E. Allison, Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mrs. Josephine Shade. Each of the teams will be composed of ten members.

All campaign workers are asked to meet next Monday, February 6, for luncheon at 12 o'clock in the dining room of the Young Men's Christian association on Court street. The drive will officially open at that time.

The Young Women's Christian association is a great asset to Salem. It is worthy of the support of all. In addition to its splendid work along mental, moral, physical, and recreational lines, the Y. W. C. A. affords its members the opportunity of working in an organization which is represented in practically all parts of the world. We have no exact means of measuring the influence which this group of young people exercises over those outside the organization as well as its members.

Mrs. Steed Will Be Hostess at D. A. R. Meeting

Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will be entertained Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. Lyman Steed at the state school for the deaf.

Mrs. J. R. Allgood will read a paper on "Washington's Wedding Day."

Assistant hostesses will be Miss Esther Morris, Miss Elenor Jones, Mrs. L. W. Potter, Mrs. H. H. Smith, Miss Griffith, and Mrs. J. W. Plank.

Guests of Relatives in Portland

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Barr, their daughter, Miss Josephine Barr, and their sons, Lawrence, Henry, and Karl, motored to Portland Sunday where they were guests of Mrs. Barr's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Albrich.

Lawrence Barr, who had spent the week-end with his parents in Salem, returned to Columbia University.

Attractive Affair Given Tuesday Afternoon at Henry J. Bean Home

One of the most attractive affairs of the week was the afternoon tea given Tuesday afternoon at the home of Judge and Mrs. Henry J. Bean of Court street, by the northwest division of the First Presbyterian church aid society.

Mrs. Bean and the officers of the society formed the receiving line.

The feature of the afternoon was the interesting talk given by Mrs. Albert Schmidt of Albany who spoke of the South Sea Islands which she visited in the spring and summer of the past year.

She described the Fiji and Samoan Islands and their inhabitants. A number of beads, corals, and other curios which she gathered there were exhibited.

Miss Marjorie Miller sang several songs following this delightful travel talk. She was accompanied by Miss Helene Price. Both girls are students at Willamette University.

The tea table in the dining room of the Bean home was very lovely with a lace cloth and a centerpiece of primroses and pink tapers.

Mrs. Norman Kendall Tully and Mrs. S. P. Kimball presided at the urns.

Mrs. E. E. Ling, Mrs. Waldo Mills, Mrs. Guy Irwin, Mrs. J. T. Whittig, Mrs. I. M. Doughton, and Miss Dorothy Pearce assisted with the serving.

The tea was the first of a series of such affairs which will be given by the division for the benefit of the new church which is now under construction.

Mrs. James Lewis Hostess at Attractive One O'clock Luncheon

Mrs. James Lewis was hostess at a delightful affair Tuesday afternoon when she entertained the members of her bridge club with a one o'clock luncheon in her home on north Church street.

Pink begonias and pink tapers centered the luncheon table with covers placed for Mrs. L. A. Stevens, Mrs. Harry H. Belt, Mrs. L. D. Brown, Mrs. Eugene Grabenhorst, Mrs. Lucille Sweeney, Mrs. John W. Orr, Mrs. Sam Laughlin, Mrs. F. E. Sherwin, Mrs. Harold Brown, Mrs. M. P. Adams, Mrs. George Alexander, and the hostess, Mrs. James Lewis.

Several hours of bridge followed the luncheon. Mrs. Laban Steeves won high score honors.

General Federation of Women's Clubs Assists in Americanization

Indians of the United States owe their Americanization to the General Federation of Women's clubs according to Princess Wat- awasco, a member of the Penobscot tribe of Maine, who, while a visitor at the headquarters of the Woman's club of Des Moines, Iowa, recently recalled the convention of the General Federation held in that city, and said:

"I shall never forget the meeting. A man had been sent out from New York to address the Federation on Americanization and I had been sent out to sing. But when that man had finished I was so angry I could not sing, so I exercised a woman's privilege—I talked. And I pointed my finger in that man's face and told him what I thought about Americanization. I was a little different from what he thought."

"But the woman seemed to agree with me, for the General Federation at once took up our cause, and 18 months after that week, the first American citizens, were Americanized—thanks to American women."

"Now it is my hope that education and citizenship will hasten the day when reservations and guardianship will no longer be necessary for the welfare of the American Indian."
