SAFE IN THE ARMS OF JESUS

Fanny Crosby Van Alstyne, 1820-1915.
 "Safe in the arms of Jesus,
 "Safe on His gentle breast,
 "There by His love overshadowed,
 "Sweetly my soul shall rest.
 "Hark! 'tis the voice of angels,
 "Born in a song to me,
 "Over the field of glory,
 "Over the Jasper sea."
 Blind from infancy, Mrs. Van Alstyne lived to be almost 95 years of age and during that period composed some 3000 hymns, many of which were worthless, but many others which have become classics in Christian hymnody. In her youth, Fanny Crosby was comforted by her mother who told her that two of the greatest poets of the ages, Milton and Homer were also blind. Her mother frequently quoted Milton's famous line: "They also serve, who only stand and wait."

MANDAMUS SOUGHT

FAR REACHING ISSUE OF JURISDICTION STATED
 An alternative writ of mandamus was issued by the supreme court Friday afternoon directing Circuit Judge Tazwell of Multnomah county to show cause why he should not be required to assume jurisdiction in the suit brought by Adolf Kahn, a German citizen against the New York Life Insurance company. The mandamus proceeding was instituted in the supreme court here by C. T. Haas, attorney for Kahn when Judge Tazwell dismissed the suit for lack of jurisdiction on the ground that the cause of action did not arise in this state.

Attorneys for Kahn contend that circuit courts in this state have jurisdiction in the case regardless of the fact which is set up as an objection by Judge Tazwell. The supreme court has fixed February 14 as the date on which Judge Tazwell must file his answer to the petition for a peremptory writ.

While the suit brought by Kahn represents only $5770 alleged to be due on a 20-year endowment policy written in 1903, the outcome of this case it is said will have a very decided bearing on more than 10,000 similar policies held by German citizens in American insurance companies and involving insurance aggregating approximately $52,000,000.

This hymn has frequently given hope and comfort to the cheerless. During a great flood of the Missouri river, some years ago, two little girls were left alone in their home by their mother, who had been called away. During the night, the river broke away from its banks and the water beat against the door of the house. The older girl, then ten, had been charged to watch over her younger sister.

probate matters in Multnomah county and asked for the transfer of the guardianship proceedings to another judge. Judge Tazwell has refused to recognize the affidavit of prejudice as applying to the probate judge and Leonard has brought the mandamus proceedings to compel Judge Elwell as presiding judge of the Multnomah county court to transfer the case to another judge.

The junior class is already thinking of new features to give it first honors in the competition, aware of Helstaten, Richardson, Janz.

Burnett Bros. Jewelers "Pay Us As You Are Paid" Twelve stores on the Pacific Coast—from Everett to Hollywood Not only largest but (we hope) the best!

The question as to whether or not the legislative act of 1919 providing for the filing of affidavits of prejudice against circuit judges applies alike to probate judges in counties in which this work is handled by a member of the circuit bench, was taken under advisement by the Oregon supreme court Friday afternoon following arguments in an original proceeding in mandamus brought by Barge E. Leonard, Portland attorney against William A. Ekwall, presiding judge of the circuit court for Multnomah county.

Leonard, an attorney for Amas King, an alleged incompetent, for whom the appointment of a guardian is being sought, has filed an affidavit of prejudice against Circuit Judge Tazwell in charge of

The Best and Biggest LAMP SALE of the New Year

Just as shown in the picture—but far finer than the picture can make you believe. For the artist has painted in rich and glowing colors—the flowers of the garden and—in the center panel there are a pair of green parakeets—ofttimes called "Love-birds" from the fact that the Gypsy Fortune tellers used to use them in their (always hopeful!) prophecies!

They stand about five feet in height—the metal standards are finished in rich antique colors. The shades are hand painted velvet with a long fringe of colored beads.

By all the laws of trade such lamps as these should sell for twelve-fifty to fifteen dollars—but the purpose of the sale is not to make money but to make friends for the Burnett Jewelry Store and the Burnett Budget Plan. Hence—we shall sell them at seven ninety-five. And on the Burnett Budget Plan at that!
