Who likes a slugging match between light-heavies? That's the dish tonight, and the vociferous applause accorded such shows in the past indicates that's what the public wants. The entire card tonight, except the first preliminary, is heavy not 6 'y from the standpoint of avor dupois, but quality as well.

When Harry Plant, local promoter, was finding difficulty in lining up a main event because of a sudden change in dates making it impossible to stage the Willie Gordon-Phil Bayes scrap Wed nesday, he luckly got in touch with Matchmaker Joe Levy in Levy told Plant immediately Hobbs was signed. Illingworth ticular, stood out. had already draped his name on the papers to meet Battling Slim here, but Slim hurt his hands against Tommy O'Brien and couldn't come. So Illingworth was matched with Hobbs.

Both these boys are top-notch ers, at their weight in the northwest. The edge seems to be with Hobbs for he has conquered Auer bach who in turn has dropped the Per'land negro, Dixon.

But Illingworth who started the business in Tillamook four years YANKEES TAKE age has plenty of backers. It will be Bill's 46th fight. In all, he has lost but three decisions, and fought 12 fights to a draw. Illingworth fought and won 38 fights before he lost one. Everett Me-Devitt marred his perfect record

The semi-windup is no less in interest than the main event. Terry Kileen has a tough assignment in Austin Wayne, who thrilled Portlanders ten days ago in i brilliant victory over Maxie Pelz Wayne has had but three fights but is so promising that fight buy ers are all after him, and he won' stay long in Portland.

The colored bootblack, LeRoy Watson, and Frankie Monroe wil go at it again in the special event Monroe won a hair-line decision over Watson on the last card Both boys stood up to throw punches, and it was one of the best fights of the lot.

For the first time in man months, there will be two big heavyweight on the card. They are Bud Wallace and Boyd Wilkerson, finds of Martin Miller in West Salem, who box the second

The opener is between Battling Hickman and Manila Tiger, two Salem 118-pounders.

Flush Your Kidneys Occasionally by Drinking Quarts of Good Water

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority Too much rich food creates acid which clog the kidney pores so that they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood.
