THE OREGON STATESMAN, SALEM, OREGON, WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 8, 1928

cause she is Shannon's niece." THE MORNING ARGUMENT TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO THE OREGON STATESMAN THE ORIGIN "But you don't think so?" (From columns of the States-"I den't know." She turned on him passionately (Portland Journal.) POOR PA AUNT HET Issued Daily Except Monday by THE STATESMAN PUBLISHING COMPANY man, February 8, 1903) -never suspecting that she was A lawyer has been hired and Harold Lotridge, 25, Flint By Claude Callas cutting him to the quick. Lois Br Robert Quilien Chicago-W. J. Bryan today 215 South Commercial Street, Salem, Oregon probably knew that Bruce loved Michigan, will fight for the $8000 reward that is to be paid J. Hendricks . . Managing Editor 18. McSnerry - . Managing Editor City Editor Ralph H. Kletsing, Advertising Manager Lloyd E. Stiffler - Superintendent W. H. Henderson, Girculation Manager E. A. Bhoten - Livestock aditor W. C. Conner - - Poultry Editor declared he-would refuse to ather-but somehow one took somebody for the apprehension of Hotelling, the Michigan tend any banquet at which Grover things for granted with him. She Cleveland was a guest. would have been amazed to know ictor D. Carlson · · Aperts Editor .tozella Bunch · · Society Editor editor | beast. that she was hurting him. Lotridge and Hotelling belonged to the same church. Both Attorney Chas. L. McNary has "What is she like?" MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS were at the annual church meeting a day or two after the recovered from a bad case of ma-"Kathleen Shannon?" The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the ocal news published horein. larial fever. murder of the little girl. Lotridge succeeded to the vacancy 'Yes.' "We-e-ll"-he traced the pat Hon. John Minto met with an tern of the rug with his toeas deacon made by the election of Hotelling as elder. BURINESS OFFICES: accident yesterday and suffered "she is pretty." That night Lotridge had a strange dream in which he three broken ribs. "Very?" Angeles, Chamber of Commerce Blag. Thomas P. Clark Oc., New York, 128-186 W. Sist St.; Chicago, Marquette Bldg. seemed to see the murder reenacted. Deeply impressed by "In her own way-yes. Not the dream, Lotridge told his father about it the next morn-adverse fate; fighting desperately your type. She's a sort of bru-TELEPHONES to re-establish himself in a world nette-that is, black hair, but which had scourged him cruelly, with a light complexion. ing And "Why, that fits Adolph Hotelling," the father exclaimed She saw the pathos which was she's-well. I'd call her vivid." Entered at the Post Office in Salem, Oregon, as sevial class matter. "Different from me?" there, and the drama-but she as the story was finished. He smiled slightly. "Quite. added even more drama to it. And February 8, 1923 "I know it does," said the son; "that is what makes it so because of that she permitted her- don't know her at all, although ain't modesty that makes Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not I've recently made it my business Fanny keep pullin' her skirt down. self to love him. terrible." he Son of man cometh. Who then is a faithful and wise servant, She did not admit this to her- to see her once in a while. I've h's just because she don't never don't take much interest in his vhom his lord hath made ruler over his houseoid, to give them mean The story of the dream reached the police. They quesself. But she knew it, and Bruce been keeping my promise. Lois; for a minute forget about bein' a children until they're old enough tioned young Lotridge. For a time they suspected him, and Richardson knew it, and was hurt I've taken Terry out to lunch with temale." 1 due season? Matt. 24:44 and 45. to sell things." me occasionally. I've tried to get (Copyright, 1928, rublishers Syndicate.) Copyright, 1928, Publishers Syndicate.) -and worried. threw him into jail, where he was searchingly questioned. Somehow, people did not mind him to join the club--but he THE ALL WATER ROUTE But his answers were so straightforward that he was finally hurting Bruce. They never knew won't. He's engrossed in his it will be about the middle of April or the first of May. they were hurting him. He had work." This was the statement here of April or the first of May. Before Those who read the news story yesterday concerning the released and Hotelling arrested. "Is he in love with that a way of smiling wistfully when Ralph Budd, president of the Great we can start the new service, it Are there thought waves? Undoubtedly at that church he was cut deepest, and so when weman?" shipments of linen yarn to the eastern mills no doubt noted Northern railroad, who was here will be necessary for us to do conmeeting, where young Lotridge was in close contact with Terry was meaning more and (To be Continued) the fact that these consignments from Salem go by waterenroute to Tacoma where the finsiderable work on the Shevlin-By the all water route, down the Willamette by boat to Hotelling, the facts of the child slaying must have been more to her with the passing of al hearing on the proposed merger Hixon road section of our new line LINE FINISHED IN APRIL from Bend to Chemult. It probably each day, he merely smiled and of the Great Northern, Northern Fortland; a transfer in the harbor there to the holds of ocean surging in Hotelling's thoughts. said that Bob was a fine young Pacific, Spokane, Portland and Sewill be a month before weather Did thought waves resu? that communicated themselves man and that he hoped the world Great Northern to be Running Into attle and other Hill system lines going vessels of the American Hawaiian line, and then out conditions will permit us to get in would make up to him for its into sea and through the Panama canal and on to the southern to Lotridge and caused his dream? Klamath Falls Soon there and it will take something will open Monday. justices. like 60 days to recondition the line One thing is sure: we poor worms know very little about "We expect soon to be bale to "There's only one thing that and eastern ports where are located the weaving mills using PORTLAND, Feb. 7.- (AP) .- announce the exact date of our enthings all around us, as we are finding out from each new worries me, Bruce," she said once we are started." The Great Northern railroad will try into Klamath Falls, but canthe yarn spun by the Oregon Linen Mills, Inc. Bob has never forgiven father." and startling marvel whose secret is unlocked. be running its own trains into not do so at this time," Budd said Read the Classified Ads This gives the advantage of cheap freights, enables the "Is that unnatural, Lois?" Klamath Falls by the middle of tonight. "I believe however, that | "No. I suppose not. But I get Salem manufacturers to deliver the yarn in tubes ready for frightened sometimes. The way The chosen location of the incinerator, for the incinerator he stares at him occasionally. the bobbins of the spinning concerns; gives the buyers of the yarn a 20 per cent advantage in expense under the cost of itself, is all right. Any location mentioned was all right, when father isn't looking his way. for the incinerator considered by itself. But it is all wrong I see it, and he doesn't know that It isn't exactly-exactly labor in handling imported yarns in hanks-besides the tarfor the future, because the incinerator and the future sewage human." iff advantage of getting the Oregon yarns duty free. "I suppose this bitterness smoldisposal plant ought to be together, and the sewage disposal This is a fair sample, in a very small way, for the present dered in him during his three plant must be below the level of the city. years-down yonder. But it will of what still water in the Willamette the year through will mean to the industries on the land and in the towns and cities of this great valley. We will have all water transportation to the great markets of the whole world.

This vision, which is a true vision of the near or far future, is enough to stir the enthusiasm of any lover of this great valley and this great state. It will mean millions piled on millions annually in good time for this valley.

A WONDERFUL CONTRIBUTION

Prof. Morton E. Peck, head of the biology department of great deal of talking to Terry- the eyes of other people squarely. criminal element and their payas usual, saying little. He sensed Bob himself was unconscious of chology?" Willamette university, which place he has held for 20 years, that Carmody was keenly inter- the changes being effected in himhas in vacation periods and other odd times, during all this ested in Terry, and he himself felt self. And Kathleen was too blind he's doing down there. Hasn't he long span of his teaching career here, been tramping the that the young man furnished an ly in love to analyze. That he was told you?" Bruce was surprised. invaluable contact between the better, she knew-but she did not "No. I don't see much of him, fields and forests and pastures and the highways and bycircles in which he moved and the probe. She was content with the Bruce. Only at meals, occasionways, collecting the specimens of the vegetable kingdom social plane on which the Bordens glorious results, and her daily ally. He's out a great deal-esand the Merriweathers belonged. contact with Terry brought to her pecially since his friend Shannon found in this section-Work was made easy for the a new beauty, a new vivacity and was released from the penitenti-And in his wanderings Prof. Peck has been accompanied newcomer. In the first few a new delight. ary." Her eyes clouded and she weeks, he was given time to be- The development which was oc- paused for a moment. "Have you a great deal of the time by Mrs. Peck. come accustomed to the office and curring in the lad was the thing heard anything else about Bob But these wanderings have been far from aimless. Prof. its routine, and gradually Al for which Lois Borden had Terry? Gregory taught him the rudiments prayed. From the first he had "What do you mean?" and Mrs. Peck have during that time collected about 17,000 of criminal law, with particular aroused in her the ultimate spark "That girl-Shannon's niece?" specimens of the plant life that is indigenous to the Willam- attention to certain little quirks of her enormous, latent maternal Bruce Richardson's thin, sensin the law of evidence. Then Ter- instinct. Now he was developing ive face flushed. "I don't like to ctte valley. y was set to work interviewing a masculine positiveness which guess about things like that, lients-wealthy criminals who appealed to the feminine in her. Last summer, a man high up in the world of botany visited Lois. could afford to pay large fees for In her eyes he was no longer "Things like what?" Salem and examined the collection of Prof. Peck, and he lefense. And in this role the merely someone to be sorry for. "A man's interest in a woman." young ex-convict was brilliantly but a man to be regarded as a pronounced it worth from $20,000 to $30,000; and he said "Then there is an interest?" man. And the pity remained-a "They're together a great deal uccessful. that it would be fully worth the latter sum, if completed It was with these men-par-great, absorbing pity which she of course, it might merely be be icularly the one who had exper-unconsciously dramatized. and catalogued and properly arranged for the convenience NOTICE TO CREDITORS Lois visioned Bob as a young enced the horror of the state penof students. Notice is hereby given that the man who was battling against an itentiary-that Bob Terry was at Now, Prof. Peck is far from being a man of independent ndersigned, by an order of the He talked their language ease. NOTICE OF HEARING ON County Court of Marion County means. His salary during the first part of the 20 year and understood their psychology. FINAL ACCOUNT And they knew him; it seemed period here was not munificent, nor always paid promptly, In the County Court of the State entered on the 21st day of Januhat everyone in the state knew of Oregon for Marion County. ary, 1928, was appointed adminand it is necessarily not large now. The salaries of teachers Bob Terry and his story. They aw that he was bitter against so-

These men were not reticent that he was mentally one with stinct in trusting him. Within

Through all of this Carmody sat

Chapter 21 DOB TERRY went to work un- walked more like a free man now. truistic interest." der Al Gregory. He was and less with the rhythmic beat of much impressed by the man's the convict. He had learned to able to him."

expansive affability. Gregory did speak occasionally and to meet pass." "Will it?"

"'Of course. He's a different erson now-

"Yes. Ever since he went to work for John Carmody. But that is sinister, too. I don't want to be melo-dramatic, but you know, Bruce-and so do I, that Carmody hates father. He'll never forgive that disbarment thing-and I get the idea-can't rid himself of itthat there is something more to

"Bob should prove quite valu-"Because he understands the "Yes. I understand that's what "Jones is all business an' he generally are not princely. iety and knew that he was a

Even so, Prof. Peck has all along considered that he was friend and an aliy. And from working largely for the benefit of the university, and for which Al Gregory never could the good of Oregon and the generations of students that have done. After that Gregory are coming in the future. So he has not at any time regarded the herbarium he was getting together as his property, for his own gain.

Now, however, the board of trustees of the university what they would testify on the has proposed that Prof. Peck be given a year, on full salary, stand. to catalogue and complete the herbarium, when it will become the property of the institution, and he has gladly acthrough their eyes. They knew cepted. them-and followed their in-

He will go to Chicago and New York and the great institutions of the country, including the Smithsonian Instithree months Bob Terry was tution at Washington. He will spend sufficient time to known individually rather than as a mere employee in Carmody's or make the catalogue complete, and to collect rare specimens ganization. that are now lacking-

And all this will involve the printing of a book on the back in his private office and PAGE & PAGE, "Flora of Oregon."

Can the reader think of a labor of love finer than this? closing closing about Peter Borden and about Bob Terry. Car The collection should certainly be named the Morton E. Peck mody, cold and bloodless, was pacollection, or the Morton E. Peck herbarium, just as the tient. He was keen and alertuseful and unselfish life in collecting it.

WHY?

(Portland Journal.)

Twenty million dollars goes out of Portland, to say nothing tail of the development of the re- as the place for hearing said final Oregon. of the rest of the state, every year for goods manufactured lationship of Terry and Kathleen account and all objections thereto. Dated at Sulem, Oregon, this in other states and countries, that could be spent in Oregon for goods manufactured here that are just as good and in was almost uncanny, for it was he many instances better than the foreign products.

That is the statement of the Oregon Manufacturers' association. The statement was made in an appeal for the sup- for Kathleen-gloriously happy in port of Oregon-made goods by the people of Oregon. It was her first love-knew nothing of made in an effort to retain here the $75,000,000 that is now

State of Oregon, duly made and

In the Matter of the Estate of istrator of the estate of Jennie Pauline Traglio, Deceased. Demarest and that he has duly Notice is hereby given that the qualified as such. All persons undersigned Executor of the es- having claims against said estate them he extracted statements tate of Pauline Traglio, deceased, are hereby notified to present the has filed his final account and re-same, duly verified as required by port in the County Court of the law, at the offices of P. J. Kuntz. deftly directed the young man State of Oregon for Marion Coun- in the City of Salem, Marion through interviews with possible ty, and that Tuesday, the 21st day County, Oregon, within six months witnesses, discovering what they of February, 1928, at the hour of from the date of this notice, toknew about the case-and what 10:00 o'clock A. M. of said day at wit, January 26, 1928. was of far greater importancethe County Court Room in the P. J. KUNTZ, County Court House at the City of Administrator of the estate of Salem in said County and State, Jennie Demarest. has been appointed as the time with Terry. He had been in the and place for hearing any objec-J26F1-8-15-22 penitentiary and could see things tions to said final account and re- NOTICE OF GUARDIAN'S SALE port and the final settlement of OF REAL PROPERTY Notice is hereby given that, by

The date of the first publication virtue of and pursuant to an orof this notice is January 18th, der of the County Court of the 1928, and the last February 15th, State of Oregon, for the County of Marion, made and entered on the PAUL TRAGLIO. 6th day of August, 1927. author-

Executor of the Estate of Pauline izing and directing the sale of the real property hereinafter de scribed, the undersigned, as guardian of the person and estate of ginning to work. The net was Attorneys for said estate. Opal Goodman, a minor, will, on J18-25F1-8-15 the 11th day of February, 1928. at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at NOTICE OF FINAL the Court House door in Salem.

SETTLEMENT Marion County, Oregon, sell at Notice is hereby given that the public auction to the highest bidand willing to wait. Sooner or Condon collection of specimens of geological history at the later he knew his opportunity undersigned has filed in the Coun- der for cash, an undivided one-University of Oregon is named for the Prof. Thomas Condon would come, and when it did, he ty Court of the State of Oregon, twelfth interest and estate of, in of blessed memory, the man who spent a large part of his more forcefully than he did with verified final account, as executor premises and being all the inter-

Borden. Through Whispering of the estate of Ruhamah De est and estate of said Opal Good-Willie Weaver he kept in daily Wees, deceased, and that said man in said premises, to-wit: Lots and intimate touch with the fi- Court has fixed Monday, the 20th two (2), five (5), six (6), seven nancial difficulties being experi- day of February, 1928, at the hour (7). and eight (8). Block five enced by the Berkeley Steel com- of ten o'clock A. M. of said day, (5), and Lots one (1) and two pany, of which Peter Borden was as the time, and the County Court (2), Block six (6), Hollister Anpart owner and operating vice Room in the County Court House, nex No. 1, within the corporate president. And he missed no de- at Salem, Marion County, Oregon, limits of Stayton, Marion County said estate.

There Carmody's perception 18th day of January, 1928.

Traglio, Deceased.

1928.

Executor of the Estate of Ruhawho detected a new element in mah De Wees, deceased. their relationship long before RONALD C. GLOVER, became apparent, even to the girl. Attorney for Executor, Nor was that entirely unnatural Salem, Oregon.

Dated January 10, 1928. EATHEL HILL. As Guardian of the person and estate of Opal Goodman, a minor.

unic Leauner and Other Traveling Goods

Our Big Reduction Sale of Luggage has been a success both from our standpoint and that of every purchaser.

Our aim was to reduce our large stock of luggage so as to use a part of the space for other goods. Every purchaser has saved from $3.00 to $5.00 on each piece of baggage bought during this sale. Still more pieces have been added for today's selling.

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY

Spring's NEW Fabrics

ALL THE NEW WEAVES and COLORS THAT WILL BE POPULAR FOR SPRING

> SHEER SILK and cotton grepe mixtures in popular print patterns. Yard

> > 98c

BEAUTIFUL PRINTED RAYON In light, medium, and dark colored patterns. Yard ...

Beautiful new rayon, plain color with self fine brocaded, guaranteed fast col-

FAST COLORED ENGLISH PRINTS Absolutely fast-colored English prints in attractive patterns and designs in an extensive variety. Yard

The sale of the said interest in Dated at filem, Oregon, this the said premises will be sold free of all incumbrances and subject to the confirmation thereof by the F. L. WILKINSON, said Court as by law provided.

> J11-18-25F1-8 J18-25F1-8-15