

Bearcats Run Up 43 to 22 Victory Against College of Idaho Quint

TINY COURT PROVES HANDICAP AT FIRST

By Meredith Woodworth
Caldwell, Ida., Feb. 13.—(Special)—The Willamette university Bearcats celebrated Lincoln's birthday here today by trouncing the College of Idaho coyotes, 43 to 22, in a fast, but rough northwest conference tilt.

The visitors led all the way. The small floor with concrete walls close to the side lines proved a handicap at the start, for Coach "Spec" Keene was loath to send his men rushing down the floor when they might crash against the concrete and be bruised, but Cardinal, Adams, and Hawk were particularly good at long distance shooting, and at half time had run up a substantial lead.

Several fouls were called on both teams. Four players went out on personals in the second frame. They were Cardinal and Flesher for Willamette, and Keister and Dilley for Idaho.

Cardinal, tall and husky Willamette center, led his team in scoring, with 13 points, but all the Bearcats got points except Minto and Ledbetter who went in as substitutes in the last minutes.

The two teams play at Ontario, Ore., tomorrow night in the second game of the northwest conference series. Ontario has a fine playing floor and it is expected that the house will be packed for the game as a high caliber team seldom appears there.

Coach "Spec" Keene will leave for Salem with his players early Wednesday morning.

Summary:
Willam. (43) Col. of Idaho (22)
Litchfield (6) F. (4) Keister

SPANIARD WINS TENNIS TOURNAMENT

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—(AP)—Manuel Alonzo, former Spanish Davis cup star, won the lightweight tennis tournament today, defeating Francis T. Hunter, ranking number 2 player, in the finals 6-1, 6-1, 3-6, 6-4. Hunter was badly off his game at the start of the match, while Alonzo played almost perfect tennis.

In the first set Hunter could not control the ball, but steadied somewhat in the second. Hunter played carefully and broke through Alonzo's service three times to win the third set. In the fourth Hunter weakened again and the Spaniard took advantage of his errors to take the set and match.

Hunter, and William T. Tilden II, national doubles champions, won the final of the doubles from Charles Garland and Harry C. Brunie in three hard fought sets, 6-4, 8-6, 9-7. Hunter's game was not improved by the hard match with Alonzo and Tilden was not playing at his top form.

FRESHMEN PLAY ALBANY HI HERE

The Willamette university freshmen will play Albany high school in the university gymnasium tonight at 7:30 p. m. The Albany hoopers are coached by "Big Bill" Mudra, a Willamette graduate.

Saturday night, Coach Leslie Sparks' rooks will step out of their class to tackle the Chemawa Indians, as a preliminary to the Puget Sound-Willamette varsity conference struggle. Coach Sparks is attempting to arrange a game with West Linn high school as a preliminary for the Friday night contest.

ASPIRIN

You doubtless depend on Aspirin to make short work of headaches, but remember that it's just as dependable an antidote for many other pains! Neuralgia? Many have found real relief in a Bayer Aspirin tablet. Or for toothache; an effective way to relieve it, and the one thing doctors are willing you should give a child—of any age. Whether to break up a cold, or relieve the serious pain from neuritis or deep-seated rheumatism, there's nothing quite like Bayer Aspirin. Just make certain it's genuine; it must have Bayer on the box and on every tablet. All druggists, with proven directions.

Physicians prescribe Bayer Aspirin; it does NOT affect the heart

E. KITTY'S HEADED FOR THE OLYMPIC GAMES

Catherine Donovan, fleet Newark, N. J., miss, is headed upon as one of most likely candidates for the American Olympic team. Kitty is a middle distance star. At the left she is leaping from the start; at the right she is all set for the gun.

NORTHMEN CARRY OFF MOST HONORS

ST. MORITZ, Switzerland, Feb. 13.—(AP)—Blonde and blue eyed men of the north swept down on the Olympic ice today and raced away with the major honors in the first day's events of the Olympic speed skating championships.

Norway captured the bulk of laurels when Ivar Ballengrud skated off with the 5,000 meter race after Bert Evenson had tied with Clas Thunberg, the famous Finnish champion, in the 500 meter event in record breaking Olympic time.

All told, Norway took six out of the 12 points, scoring places in the two opening events while the United States and Finland each gathered three.

The American contingent was able to land no better than third in either feature.

O'Neil Farrell of Chicago, the chief American threat in the 500 meter race, won in the last Olympics by Charles Jewtraw of Lake Placid, finished in a tie for third and with better racing luck might have done even better. As it was Farrell's time of 43 6-10 seconds was only two tenths of a second behind the record shattering pace of the two winners, Evenson and Thunberg, who were clocked in 43 4-10, breaking Jewtraw's old record by six tenths of a second.

BIGBEE IN CITY MAY MOVE HERE

Lyle Bigbee, former noted University of Oregon athlete and brother of Carson Bigbee of world series fame, was in Salem yesterday after having attended his father's funeral in Albany.

Lyle is also a star at the diamond game, and he has some thought of locating in Salem, in which case he would prove a valuable addition to the Senator club in the proposed Willamette valley league. He is now living in Wyoming.

DUCKS PREPARE FOR Y TOURNEY

The Salem Ducks are practicing daily in preparation for the district championship basketball tournament here Friday and Saturday, February 24 and 25. Four teams will be entered besides Salem; Longview, Portland, Eugene, and Astoria. Wendling was to have entered a team but it was barred because there is no certified Y. M. C. A. at that town. Some of the teams entered are of college caliber and will provide interesting basketball sessions for local fans.

DISTRICT MEET AT McLAUGHLIN

PENDLETON, Ore., Feb. 13.—(AP)—The annual basketball tournament for the district comprising Umatilla, Morrow, Wheeler and Gilliam counties, will be held at McLaughlin high school, Milton-Freewater, March 1-2-3. The committee in charge of the event made this decision late Saturday. Hepper, in Morrow county, was the other bidder for the event.

Sport Ritticisms

It seems that this Doc Peizer O'Leary finds it easy to break all kinds of tape, but the red variety.

When the galloping doc first came to America he was under strict orders not to run. But that was useless, he couldn't get elected anyway.

It was the A. A. U. foreign relations committee which put the needle in Peizer's tire. They'd been told about these fast foreigners beforehand.

How times change. Ten years ago the A. A. U., like everybody else, would have given a million dollars to see all the Germans in Germany on the run.

YOUNG CORBETT WINS

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 13.—(AP)—Young Corbett, Fresno welterweight scored a stunning upset at the state armory here tonight when he pounded his way to a 10 round decision over Jack Thompson, Los Angeles negro, before a crowd of 10,000.

PENDLETON HAS SNOW

PENDLETON, Ore., Feb. 13.—(AP)—Slight flurries of snow were noted in the Pendleton vicinity this morning, but little was remaining on the ground.

SALEM HIGH MEETS WEST LINN TONIGHT

Three games of the remaining six on Salem high's pre-tournament schedule will be played this week, all out of town. Only one game is yet to be played in Salem. That is against West Linn here, February 29.

Tonight, Salem will venture to West Linn and tackle the remaining obstacle to entrance in the state championship tournament.

Tom Duffy's foot has healed and he will open up at forward tonight. With the addition of this expert, and Beechler, the center, the team has improved in strength.

West Linn opened the season impressively, but one of the star players, Cranor, a center, later left school. In recent games, the team has not performed in strong fashion, losing to Oregon City, which team was defeated by Silverton.

This week-end, Salem goes to Eugene for two games. The team meets the Oregon freshmen Friday, and Eugene high school Saturday, both return matches.

DUAL SWIM SLATED

A dual swimming meet between Portland and Salem mermen will be staged at the Y. M. C. A. tank Saturday night, starting at eight o'clock. A local team has not yet been selected as more attention has been paid to basketball during the past few weeks. Byron Kaifee and Joe Alley will be two of the men entered in the meet for Salem.

MAN RUNS AMUCK

TOPEKA, Kan., Feb. 13.—(AP)—After slaying his wife with a revolver, shooting his 12 year old son and attacking two other members of his family with a butcher knife when they attempted to interfere, Ed Schmidt, a former restaurant proprietor, attempted suicide but was shot and killed by a policeman today when he resisted arrest. The injured are expected to recover.

KNUCKLES AGED WITH RHEUMATISM

"My knuckles were so sore and swollen with rheumatism I couldn't hold a pen in my hand. After many remedies had failed I tried 'St. Jacob's Oil.' I am so glad that the pain disappeared and soon my hands were normal again."

"St. Jacob's Oil" is the good old remedy for the pain and aches of Rheumatism, Sciatica, Neuritis, Lumbago, Sprains and Strains.

It goes directly to the seat of the trouble and draws out all the "acid." It works every time and doesn't burn. Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacob's Oil" at your druggist today, and see the magic.

RAT STUDY GIVES TRACK STAR TIPS

AMES, Iowa.—(AP)—Raymond Conger, former Iowa State college track star, is learning about running from rats.

Conger, who holds the national amateur record for the mile run and is one of the leading middle distance candidates for the United States Olympic team, was perplexed as to the diet which would give him the most speed.

The ideal way to find the best diet, Conger decided, would be to take a bunch of athletes, all of whom could run about the same, and try them on different rations. That is impractical, so he is using rats.

In his tests to determine what diet makes rats feel most like exercising Conger is feeding experimental rations to 18 of the creatures, each of which is in a pen by itself. Each pen is equipped with a nest box and a rotating cage. When the rat wants to exercise, he steps into the rotating cage and starts running. An automatic count of the number of revolutions is kept.

Three general diets are being tried. One is high in protein, another is composed of grain or vegetables, and the third is balanced. So far, the rats eating the balanced diet have the most pep, while the vegetarians take the least exercise.

Conger, who was graduated last June, is doing post graduate work in physiology and minor work in physical education.

JOE DUNDEE WINS ON TECHNICAL K.O.

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 13.—(AP)—Joe Dundee, welterweight champion of the world scored a technical knockout over Clyde Hull of Clark, S. D., tonight when Referee Patsy Haley of New York stopped the fight in the eighth round of their scheduled 12-round bout. Dundee won every round except the second and had Hull half way through the ropes at the finish. Dundee weighed 147 1/2 and Hull 148 1/2.

Dundee's title was not involved. Eight thousand persons saw the fight. The Baltimore Italian, who has kinked it over the welters since he won the title from Pete Latzo last summer, had trouble with Hull in the first three rounds, and was romping to an easy win when it ended after one minute of fighting in the eighth.

HUSKY QUINT WINS FROM GRIZZLY FIVE

MISSOULA, Mont., Feb. 13.—(AP)—A well co-ordinated passing system that slipped the ball through the Montana University defense without apparent effort and accurate shooting to complete the attack enabled the University of Washington to defeat the Grizzlies in the first fashion tonight 51 to 31. For a few minutes in the first half Montana kept close to the invaders, edging within two points on a brace of baskets by Chinske. Then Coach Edmondson's players broke away for a flock of shots—class, long and side heaves splitting the net as the offense outsmarted the Montanians.

At half time the Washington team led by a 28-12 score.

PASTOR DROPS DEAD

GRANTS PASS, Ore., Feb. 13.—(AP)—C. B. Davis, pastor of the Free Methodist church of this city died suddenly last night of heart failure while delivering a sermon at his church. He had just closed his bible and was walking around the altar when he dropped to the floor.

Sports Done Brown

By Norman E. Brown
The signing of Jack Sharkey and Johnny Risko for an "elimination" battle in March, under Tex Rickard's direction, brings the heavyweight situation a bit nearer an organized state.

But the public is inclined to ask two questions:

First, as to why Sharkey is considered in the running for another title fight, in view of his showing to date.

Second, as to whether or not Johnny Risko, the Cleveland, will get the "big shot" at Tunney or Dempsey if he defeats Sharkey.

There is a general feeling that efforts are being rebuffed to build Sharkey into another big match, and that nothing less than a knockout victory by Risko will put the Bostonian out of the running. Else why continue to consider Sharkey?

He, his manager, and his friends—and the Rickard forces—have the following record to offer in defense of efforts to push him into the picture.

A miserable showing against Jack Dempsey—including a wasted opportunity to achieve what no man has ever done—since Dempsey won the title—knock him out.

A terrible affair with the veteran Mike McTigue.

Another so-so bout with Homer Smith.

A questionable verdict over Tom Heeney in a battle the judges ruled was a draw.

As matters stand today, Risko has a better record among the heavyweights. The only advantage Sharkey has is the talking one of a battle with Dempsey. Admittedly, Sharkey fought a rotten fight against Dempsey—tossing what little science he had to the winds—and his chances of victory at the same time. So he can claim little favor there.

Sharkey, however, is a Boston man—considered the same as a local boy in and around New York. He draws a big personal following every time he fights. Risko's drawing power is reckoned on his ring showing alone. He is an outsider as far as local popularity is concerned—coming from the "sticks" of Cleveland.

Sharkey, himself, has the unmitigated nerve to suggest that the battle with Risko is unnecessary. He says "Risko is out of the picture."

Sharkey never could handle Delaney as roughly as Risko did. Sharkey has never stood up and swapped punches with Champion Gene Tunney.

There is a general feeling that Sharkey is still in the running because the promoters figure him as a bigger gate attraction as long as he's still on both feet.

I have a feeling that Johnny Risko had better lay his plans now to soak Jack Sharkey for the well-known row of Japanese garages if he cares to stay in the tourney. If he doesn't, he may be heard asking the same old question:

"What does a guy have to do to win in this league?"

FEW STATES PICK H. S. GRID CHAMPS

PIERRE, S. D. (AP)—High school football championships are determined each fall in only 16 states of the country, and most of these are situated in a climate which permits play beyond the third week in November.

A nationwide survey by R. E. Rawlins, secretary of the South Dakota Athletic association, shows that against the 16 states that name title-winners in high school football, 27 states make no effort to pick champions and several states do not have enough high school football to regard the game as a major sport.

States where champions are picked officially include California, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Idaho, Louisiana, Montana, New Jersey, North and South Carolina, Texas, Utah, Virginia and West Virginia.

Eleven of these award the palm by a plan of elimination, in which district championships are first decided, after which the regional winners meet for the state title. In the others a champion is chosen by the executive committee on the basis of records, or schedules are drafted to enable one team to establish definite superiority.

A number of state high school athletic federations reported that selection of football champions was impossible because of the abundance of competing teams.

Among states which do not foster high school football is Maryland, which sponsors soccer instead and conducts a title competition among 136 schools in which the game is played.

COMMITTEE QUILTS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Balked at nearly every turn in its effort to disclose the ultimate disposition of profits of the short lived continental Trading company of Canada, the senate Teapot Dome committee adjourned its hearings here subject to the call of the chairman after fruitless examination of three witnesses.

DIAMOND DROLLERIES

They tell a good one concerning Fred Johnson, now in the southern league, who was tried out at one time as a pitching prospect by the Giants.

It seems in one game the Giants were either 18 runs ahead or 18 behind when Johnson was given a chance to finish a game.

McGraw also sent in a new catcher, Johnson conferred with the new backstop regarding his knowledge of the batters. Both agreed that they didn't know one from the other and would have to "go it blind."

Cy Williams, veteran Philly slugger, was the first man to face Johnson.

The youngster hooked one over the corner for a strike—and got away with it. His confidence rising, he decided to take a chance on a fast ball next. It went right over the heart of the plate. The infielders threw their arms in front of their faces and ducked subconsciously. Williams just leaped on his bat and stared at Johnson.

Then one of the infielders found his voice.

"Don't ever do that again. You paralyzed him that time, because he had been waiting five years for one of those and was too surprised to swing."

Johnson won two games for the Giants without drawing credit for a defeat—and then was sent to Toledo.
