pointed tea table which was centered with red carnations and tall tapers.

Seventy-five guests called between the hours of two and five o'clock.

State Federation Institute Will Be Held in Portland

An international relations and legislative institute will be held in Portland Saturday, February 25, from 10 to 4 o'clock, at the Central Library, under the auspices of the State Federation of Women's clubs.

Several members of the local club are planning to attend.

Mrs. Pollock Hostess at Attractive one o'clock Luncheon

An attractive affair of the week was the one o'clock luncheon for which Mrs. J. R. Pollock was hostess Monday afternoon at the Elks' club.

The luncheon table arranged in the club dining room was very lovely with a silver candelabra, dark blue tapers, and a basket of acacia and pink carnations.

Covers were placed for Mrs. James Lewis, Mrs. Frank Shafer, Mrs. Arthur H. Moore, Mrs. H. S. Potal, Mrs. D. X. Beecher, Mrs. Robert Downing, Mrs. C. Ellison, Mrs. Edwin Hoffnall, Mrs. Cecil Perry, Mrs. H. W. Brown, Mrs. Arthur Gibbard, Mrs. Rex Davis, Mrs. F. Buchner, Mrs. Fannie Brown, Mrs. George Vick, Mrs. Percy Cupper, and the hostess, Mrs. Pollock.

Several hours of bridge were played following the luncheon. Mrs. Hoffnall won the first prize. Mrs. Shafer, the second, and Mrs. Ellison, the third.

Council of Church Women Will Observe Day of Prayer

The Salem Council of church women will observe a "Day of Prayer" Friday, February 24, with an all-day meeting at Jason Lee Methodist church.

At 10 o'clock, Mrs. John O. Humphrey will conduct the devotional. Short topic talks by Mrs. Walter Barkus, Mrs. N. J. Reasner, Mrs. J. J. Nunn and Mrs. C. A. Gies will follow.

A business session will be held from 10:45 o'clock until noon.

Luncheon will be served from 12 to 1:30 o'clock.

Mrs. C. A. Park will conduct the devotional at one-thirty. The topic will be "The Holy Spirit."

The program will conclude with the singing of hymns.

Miss Lillian Schroeder Honored With Pre-Nuptial Shower

Complimenting Miss Lillian Schroeder whose marriage to Wendell Van Loan will be an event of early June, Miss Bernice Schroeder entertained Sunday afternoon in their home on Marion street with an attractive pre-nuptial shower.

The honor guest received a number of lovely gifts.

Mrs. G. L. Schroeder, of Portland who has spent several days with her daughters, was a special guest for the affair.

Miss Lillian Schroeder has been a member of the Salem high school faculty for several years. Mr. Van Loan formerly was a member of the Parrish junior high school faculty. He will receive his degree from the University of Oregon in June.

Meeting of Englewood Community Circle

Members of the Englewood Community Circle will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. Collier, 1265 North 19 street for the regular meeting of the month.

Judge O. P. Coshaw is Speaker at Meeting of Eastern Star

Members of the Eastern Star Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Tuesday evening at the Masonic temple. He spoke on the subject, "Washington as a Mason." In his talk, Judge Coshaw said that George Washington took his first degree in the Masonic lodge before he was 20 years of age. A portrait of Washington and a number of other interesting mementoes are preserved at Alexandria, Virginia.

The Masons are building a memorial monument, to be 300 feet in height, across from Washington, D. C. on the banks of the Potomac.

The musical program included a duet "In the Garden of My Heart" sung by Mrs. Harry Harms and Mrs. Martin F. Perrey. Mrs. Roberta Zinn played the accompaniment.

A contralto solo, "Going Home" (Dvorak) was sung by Mrs. Martin F. Perrey.

Lyman McDonald sang "Shipwrecked" and "I Passed by."

ADVISES "SHOPPING" FOR MATES

BUY HIM A BOX OF CIGARS AND MATCHES AND TELL HIM YOU WISH TO MAKE HIM YOUR OWN

USE THE SAME SHOPPING PRINCIPLES IN HUNTING A HUSBY THAT YOU DO IN HUNTING BARGAINS

Husbands should be hunted in much the same manner as a woman hunts a bargain, Mrs. Bertram Russell, wife of the English philosopher, declares. She is visiting the United States talking and writing about "The Right to Be Happy."

Your Window." Mrs. McDonald played his accompaniments.

"Could I," a solo by Mrs. Harry Harms, soprano, and a vocal duet, "O, Divine Redeemer" (Godard) by Mrs. Harms and Mrs. Ferrey concluded the program.

The table in the dining room was attractively decorated in keeping with the patriotic season. A miniature cherry tree and small silk flags formed the centerpiece.

The committee in charge of the affair included Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Protzman, Elsie Bayne, Mary Belinger, Eva Ann Greenlee, and Mrs. O. W. Emmons. Laura Yantis, Beulah Woodry, Rose Woodry, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Welch, Florence Viesho, Vida Taylor, Anna Sobolofsky, Doris Smith, Pauline Robinson, Cora Reid, Mabel Ramquist.

of the war, was buried here Monday in the quietude of the village churchyard among the graves of simple folk who died during the last nine centuries.

About the ivy-lined grave of the great liberalist statesman, his neighbors of rural England stood and dropped their flowers among the wreaths sent by kings and queens. In accordance with the wish of the honored leader who declined burial in Westminster Abbey, there was no pomp, no elaborate ceremony in his last rites.

In the midst of the family group, with an assembly of friends in the background, the bishop of Oxford read a brief service and the body of Asquith was placed in the ground near a village youth who had answered the premier's call to arms and died in the world war.

Cupid's Weapons Defy Land and Water Span

BERLIN (AP)—Cupid used a box containing a comb and a harmless slip of paper to bring Lisbeth Asplier of Naumburg and Robert Press of New York together for life.

Fraulein Asplier, 21, blond and of a joyful disposition, is packer in a comb factory at Naumburg. One day as she was doing up an order destined for America, she decided, just for fun, to put into the package a slip of paper with the words, "Kind regards from the old fatherland," and her name and address.

Robert Press, 23, a New York chauffeur who had emigrated to the States from Frankfurt-on-Main seven years ago, found the slip, wrote to Lisbeth, exchanged photographs with her and finally boarded a steamer to see her.

The engagement was promptly announced.

Believe Leprosy May Be Stamped Out in Decade

LONDON, Feb. 22.—(AP)—Leprosy, one of the most dreaded diseases, may be brought under control, or even stamped out within the next decade, the annual report of the British empire leprosy relief association predicts. This report will be presented at the meeting of the association Friday.

It declares that leprosy can be stamped out by means of treatment with oil extracted from the dried fruit of the hydnocarpus tree.

President of Oregon State College Travels

CORYALLIS, Feb. 22.—(AP)—President and Mrs. W. J. Kerr of Oregon State Agricultural College, have gone to Seattle where they represented the institution at the inauguration of President W. Lyle Spencer as head of the University of Washington February 22. While in Seattle they will be dinner guests of the Seattle Oregon state alumni club.

Bakersfield Lad Found Hanging Dead In Barn

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Feb. 22.—(AP)—Residents of Wasco were horrified Monday when Constable F. A. Moore reported the finding of Ralph Parker, 14, dead and hanging from a beam in the barn behind his home. The boy's body was stripped of its clothing which was hanging from his feet. His hands were lashed together behind his back and a cap was pulled down over his eyes. The body was held by a strap around the neck.

Although investigating officers are still puzzled over the manner in which Harker met his death, a coroner's jury returned a verdict of death by suicide.

Army Flying Fields Will Be Given Better Houses

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—(AP)—The first step in the government's effort to improve housing conditions at various army posts was completed Tuesday when President Coolidge signed a bill authorizing an expenditure of approximately $6,700,000 for structures at flying fields.

While the bill generally was intended to provide utility buildings, it also authorizes the construction of some barracks and quarters for enlisted men and officers.

Ashland and Medford Students Stage Fights

MEDFORD, Feb. 22.—(AP)—The boards of Ashland and Medford high schools and county authorities have taken a hand in curbing acts of hoodlumism resulting from athletic contests between the two schools. Because of the bitter rivalry which is looked upon as a "hangover" from football and basketball games of past years, hoodlumism this year is declared the worst in history, with egg riots taking the form of principal diversion.

Saturday night in Ashland after the basketball game, rowdiness broke loose and an egg fight occurred in front of the Methodist church, with the result that the edifice was splattered.

Another group of the two tons clashed near the Southern Pacific overhead crossing on the Pacific highway and a general free-for-all fight was narrowly averted. Passing automobiles were bombarded with eggs.

QUAKES FELT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—(AP)—Earth shocks, described by Director Tondor as "very severe" were recorded here by the Georgetown university seismograph. They began at 2:59 p. m., reaching a maximum at 3:24 and continued more than three hours. The distance from Washington was estimated at 3700 miles.

TESTIMONY GIVEN AGAINST M'MILLAN

Men of Church and Science Both Put On Witness Stand By State

HALL OF JUSTICE, Los Angeles, Feb. 21.—(AP)—Science and church joined here in helping weave the web of circumstances which the state is attempting to draw about Dr. Charles M. McMillan, on trial for the murder of Mrs. Amelia Appleby.

The cause of science was represented by R. J. Abernathy, county chemist, who testified that a spot on a lapel of Dr. McMillan's coat was caused by blood. Science also was responsible for the testimony of J. Clark Sellers, handwriting expert, who declared that a purported will or power of attorney leaving all of Mrs. Appleby's fortune to the physician had been written by Dr. McMillan himself.

The church was represented by Rev. Bob Schuler, pastor of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. Schuler testified that on Christmas night, the night on which a deputy sheriff said Dr. McMillan had declared he attended the church, the pastor did not see the physician in his audience. Dr. McMillan had been quoted as saying that Rev. Schuler's sermon was delivered without notes and dealt with something about Mayor Cryer and the policeman-freeman football game. The minister, however, said that he had read a statement dealing with the William Edward Hickman murder case.

Abernathy testified that he made no test of the alleged blood spot to determine whether it was caused by human blood. Dr. McMillan has blamed the blood spot on a razor wound or nose bleed.
