Miss Magers for two months and this was his first public appearance in Salem. He has a natural voice of great promise.

Miss Grace Fawc, never sang more beautifully than she did at the recent Tuesday evening. All of her numbers were greatly enjoyed.

Miss Fawc is a contralto. Miss Dorothy Tweedale, has a lyric soprano voice of no great volume but of exquisite beauty. She sang, "Chanson Indouenne" (A Song of India) (Rimsky-Korsakov) and "Sunlight and Song" (Ware), both well-suited to her voice.

Another artist never heard in Salem until Tuesday evening was Mrs. H. E. Russell of Marion, who is the possessor of a soprano voice of a rare quality. Her charming voice was at its best in the songs, "The Spring Has Come" (White) and "If Any Little Song of Mine" (del Rio), which she sang.

Miss Myra Gleason, contralto, well-known in musical circles of Salem, added much to the interest of the program. She sang "Vavoureen" (Lang) and "Clorinda" (Morgan).

Assisting artists on the evening's program were Miss Lena Medler, pianist, and John Wallace Graham, violinist.

Miss Medler is an accomplished pianist and her solo, "Castilian Dance" (Albeniz) showed the delightful result of careful training combined with unusual musical talent.

John Wallace Graham, son of Professor William Wallace Graham of Portland, proved himself to be a true son of his father—a violinist of merit. Fritz Kreisler's "Liebesleid" was particularly enjoyable.

Miss Alva Amsler and Miss Medler, both pupils of Miss Ruth Bedford, played all accompaniments.

Old Folks Say Doctor Caldwell was Right

The basis of treating sickness has not changed since Dr. Caldwell left Medical College in 1875, nor since he placed on the market the laxative prescription he had used in his practice, known to druggists and the public since 1892, as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Then, the treatment of constipation, biliousness, headaches, mental depression, indigestion, sour stomach and other indispositions that result from constipation was entirely by means of simple vegetable laxatives, herbs and roots. These are still the basis of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is a combination of senna and other mild laxative herbs, with pepsin.

The simpler the remedy for constipation the safer for the child and for you, and the better for the general health of all. And as you can get results in a mild and safe way by using Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, why take chances with strong drugs?

A bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will last a family several months, and all can use it. It is good for the baby because it is pleasant to the taste, gentle in action, and free from narcotics. The proper dose, given in the directions, it is equally effective at all ages. Elderly people will find it especially ideal. All drug stores have the generous bottles. We would be glad to have you prove at our expense how much Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can mean to you and yours. Portland Musician Will Give Lecture Recital in Salem Tomorrow Evening

The Salem McDowell club has secured Miss Jocelyn Foxkes, eminent Portland pianist and an authority on grand opera, who will come to Salem and will give a lecture recital in the auditorium of the public library at 8:15 o'clock tomorrow evening on the four operas to be presented in Portland March 22, 23, and 24, by the Chicago Civic Opera company.

Miss Foxkes will discuss the four operas: "Aida," "The Resurrection," "Snow Maiden" and "Il Trovatore," and will illustrate the recital with piano selections from the operas.

Rosa Raisa will open the Portland engagement in the title role in "Aida" Thursday evening, March 22. Edna Mason known as the girl with the perfect lyric soprano voice, will sing the "Snow Maiden" Friday evening. Mary Garden will be heard in "Resurrection" at the Saturday matinee, with Renee Maissou, the tenor whom she discovered in Paris, singing opposite her.

Names of artists appearing in the supporting roles stand at the forefront of the grand opera world. Among these are such celebrities as Cyrena Van Gordon, Charles Marshall, Cesare Formichi, Virgil Lazzari, Chase Baromeo, Lorna Doone Jackson, Olga Kargau, Maria Claessens, Charles Hackett, Richard Bonelli, Desire Defrere, Anna Hamlin, Alice d'Hernancy, Jose Moehle, and others.

The "Snow Maiden" will be sung in English by an all-American cast. "Resurrection" will be offered in French and "Aida" and "Il Trovatore" in Italian.

The famous opera company's appearance in Portland is being sponsored by a group of public spirited citizens. The advance seat sale has been gratifying, according to reports from Sherman, Clay and company, where the reservations are being made. Portland lovers of music and those in many nearby towns and cities are showing liberality in their desire to support the engagement and make it an annual event.

PICTURES IN PLACE AT PARRISH SCHOOL

Thirty, Including Copies from Old Master, Purchased After Exhibit

Thirty framed pictures, including copies from the old masters, line the east wall of the main floor hall at Parrish junior high school, where they have been admired and studied by pupils for the past week. A special invitation has been extended parents to come and view the exhibit throughout the present week, announces H. F. Durham, principal of Parrish.

The school is justly proud of the group, having raised practically all the funds for the pictures through the recent art exhibit of pictures sent out by the Colonial Art company of Oklahoma City, Okla., and from which company the unframed pictures were bought at a cost of $450.

Mr. Durham, who has been doing with an expert eye to harmony and greater appreciation of the picture, will set the student body back just $158.

There is a picture in the group for nearly every room in the school, and already each room has made its selection, being careful to choose as nearly as possible a picture characteristic of the studies carried on in the room in which it will hang permanently, as for example, "The Signing of the Declaration of Independence" was chosen by the civics pupils. It is likely they will be transferred to the classrooms, hall or office where they will hang at the end of this week, Mr. Durham says.

While this is the largest single collection of pictures at the four-year old Parrish building, several excellent pictures have preceded the new ones and were the gift of friends of the school or won by the students in contests. The English rooms last year won two very attractive pictures as first and second prizes in an inter-school contest; the Latin room has on its west wall a large picture it won as third award; at the north end of room 14, where history is taught by Miss Ina Relfnyder hangs Amick's well known "The Plebeians," recently won by 25 7 B students in a ticket selling contest.

Italian, Spanish, American, Dutch, modern Japanese, English and French artists have contributed to the collection.

Unless one is already familiar with the pictures, mere titles do not do them justice, but the variety of the collection is hinted in the following:

Carlton Smith, Mrs. J. T. Whittig, Mrs. A. T. Wain, Mrs. George E. Waters, Mrs. Lenta Westcott, and Miss Mabel Creighton.

"Madonna of the Street," Ferruzza; "Whistling Boy," Duveneck; "Evening in June," Innes; "Steady," Osthaus; "Hope," Burne-Jones; "Beethoven's Sonata," Bailestreeb; "Harbor Lights," Vincent; "Lifting Fog," Vincent; "Nature's Melody," Teiander; "Sunrise," Vincent; "Rialto Bridge," K. Letpold; "Home of the Heron," Innes; "Birth of Night," Delius.

The hand of the old Dutch masters is seen in one picture each from Rembrandt and Frans Hals, while from modern Japan is a work of Jushida. Amick, Trumbull, Bosart, Shannon and Telling, all Americans; the Italian Titian; Velasquez and Murillo Spaniards; Terborch, Hollander, and Alma-Tadema, English painters, are other artists whose works will become increasingly familiar to Parrish students.

A meeting of representatives of the churches in the city was called yesterday by C. A. Kells, in the Y.M.C.A. building, in the interests of the World Sunday school convention which will be held in Los Angeles, July 11 to 18 inclusive. Robert M. Hopkins, of St. Louis, vice chairman of the committee on program and arrangements was the principal speaker.

Other outside men to attend the meeting were J. Edgar Purdy of Tacoma, who is director of religious education for the Methodist Episcopal church in Washington and W. G. Masley of Spokane, director of religious education for the Christian churches in the northwest.

Seven thousand delegates from all parts of the world are expected to attend. Oregon has been allotted 500 delegates. Provisions were made at the meeting yesterday for the announcement that every Sunday school in Marion county may name one delegate each, provided that the name of the delegate be turned into the office of C. A. Kells at the Y.M.C.A. before May 1.

Schools desiring to send more delegates are asked to send names of the additional delegates, should make a list of the names and mail these also to Mr. Kells.

Delegates will be selected after May 1 to take the place of those not selected by some of the schools. There are 98 Sunday schools in Marion county.

Some from here who have already expressed their intentions of attending the convention are Rev. Norman K. Tully, Rev. C. I. Ander, Rev. H. C. Stower and Mr. Thornton.

A delegation of over 400 Japanese will come over on one steamer to attend the convention. After the convention they will divide into three groups, one of which will come north and make a tour of the Willamette valley. On July 25 they will be entertained in Portland by the chamber of commerce and Portland churches.

Some of the outstanding church laymen of foreign countries will attend this convention, and Mr. Hopkins urged that every Sunday school be represented.

Mr. Hopkins declared this to be one of the most significant gatherings ever to be held on the Pacific coast of an inter-denominational nature. He has held meetings this week in Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane and Portland and great interest was manifested in each of these cities.
