Salem High Qualifies for State Tourney; Beats Oregon City 58 - 17

Salem high school's banketball team hopelessly submerged the Oregon City five last night at the Willamette university gymnasium with a battery of spectacular basket shots which seemingly couldn't miss, to the far divided count of 58 to 17, which gives Salem the undisputed championship of this district, and the right to compete in the state tourna-

Only the first quarter and a half were close, when the visitors managed to tie the score at 7 up. With only a few minutes left to play before the end of the first half of the red and black five forged into the lead which was never overcome, and the half ended 21 to 7, favoring the Salemites.

Salem was first to scohe when Lyons, forward, looped a field goal during the first few seconds of play, and was followed by Beechler, handsome cented. It was several minutes before the visitors were able to score a single point. The first quarter ended 7 2, for Salem.

P.A. and a pipe-that's all lask

I DON'T mean that I am easily satisfied. As a matter of fact, I'm as critical as they come about smoking-tobacco. There are certain things I demand in a smoke, and I declare here and now that P.A. has 'em. Has 'em and to spare, if you ask me.

Fragrant as spring blossoms. Cool as "The boss wants to see you." Sweet as "I'm going to raise your pay." Mild and mellow and long-burning, with full satisfaction in every wonderful puff. It seems that there are not enough hours in a day to suit your Prince Albert program. You'll start in early and stay with it far into the night.

But all this conversation won't do you any good, unless you try out the tobacco itself. When it comes to speaking for itself, P.A. is the best little talker you ever listened to. Go get yourself a tidy red tin and get some of this pipe-joy I've been picturing.

-no other tobacco is like it!
