CONFERENCE LOOMS

FIFTH ANNUAL COUNTY MEETING SATURDAY

The fifth annual Marion county older boys conference will be held in this city next Saturday and Sunday, and more than 125 boys are expected to attend. The delegates will be entertained at the home of Salem people.

The principal speaker for the conference will be Frank Moran, who is the head of a school for boys at Rolling Bay, Washington. Other speakers on the program are U. G. Dubach, dean of men at Oregon State college, Roy Hewitt, dean of the law school at Willamette university, and Gen. J. Kimbrell of Dallas, former secretary of Marion county Y. M. C. A.

The conference will be opened by a pep rally at 5:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, which will be followed by the lecture by Dean Dubach on "How to Choose a Vocation."

The boys will hold meetings all day Saturday and Sunday morning and will assist in conducting services in the various churches in the city.

MEN DEBATE WOMEN

W. U. CO-ED TEAM TO VIE WITH WEBER SPEAKERS

A debate of interest to local debate fans will be staged here Monday night when the Weber college men from Utah meet the co-ed team of Willamette university. This all came about accidentally. The Willamette men's team were scheduled to meet the Weber college speakers, but later it was found that the Utah debaters were using the same question the Willamette women adopted this year, so it was decided that they meet the co-ed pair.

The Willamette team will consist of Evangeline Hall and Margaret Pro. It will be a no-decision contest.

CONFERENCE LOOMS

FIFTH ANNUAL COUNTY MEETING SATURDAY

The Eastern and Western lumber company, which owns a large tract of standing timber in the southern part of Clackamas county and east of Scotts Mills, has resumed operations in the various camps after having been idle since November. The first train of over 20 carloads of logs left the camps over the company's own track for Portland yesterday.

Warren Haskins of this city attended the funeral services of his half brother, Andrew F. Brown, who died in a Portland hospital last Thursday. He was nearly 70 years of age. Interment was at Rock Creek cemetery, in the family burial ground.

Rev. and Mrs. Silva of the Free Methodist church departed Monday for Seattle, where they will attend church meetings now in session.

The Clover Growers of Clackamas county are to have a meeting at the Camby union high school Friday, March 9, at 2 p. m. County Agent Inskip and G. R. Hyslop of OAC will be the speakers.

S. E. PROHIB MEET

PROBE OF UNDER COVER AGENTS TO BE REQUESTED

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Mar. 7. (AP)—The southeastern states prohibition convention of the Anti-Saloon League went on record here today in favor of a congressional appropriation to obtain evidence in prohibition law violations by under cover agents.

Acting on a motion of David Kepburn, superintendent of the Virginia state organization of the league, the convention in open forum expressed its sentiment in favor of the proposition by an unanimous aye vote of the approximately 100 persons, including delegates, in attendance.

A proposal advanced during discussions on the floor to request higher compensation for federal enforcement officers and government pensions for the families of those killed or injured in line of duty was referred to the convention resolutions committee which was meeting in executive session all the time to draft the official pronouncements of the meeting on political and other problems of the drys.
