57 YEARS TEACHER IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Prof. Lee H. Baxter of Portland attended the funeral of the late Frank Morrison on Monday, then after visiting his nephew, Clair Baker, general yardmaster of the Southern Pacific, returned to Portland yesterday. Tuesday Professor Baker has just completed 57 years of continuous service as a teacher in the Oregon public schools. He served as principal of one of the Salem schools for a period of four years. The last four years he has been principal of the Shaver school at Portland, retiring from active service January 1, 1928. Professor Baker is an Oregon pioneer crossing the plains with ox teams in 1854. He probably holds the record for long service as a teacher in the public schools on the Pacific coast.
