MICROPHONE ARTIST TO, BE HEARD SOON

Maria Kurenko "Russian Nightingale" To Sing On Radio March 12

Maria Kurenko, the "Russian Nightingale," one of the foremost artis's of the microphone and the con ert stage, will be heard in a program of popular classics and ballads in the General Motors family party on Monday evening. March 12. She will appear twice in the first section of the hour, singing with a symphony orchestra under the direction of Roderic Graham, and again in the third section, when the accompaniment to ler group of congs will be played by a concert band led by Edwin Franko Goldman. Between the orchestal and band peiods of the prigam there will be a short interlude of popular music by Joe Green with his novelty orchestra.

Maria Kurenko has the distinction of being the only noted singer in the world whose voice has hean heard in defense of prisoners before the bar. As a child in Moscow, she pored over her uncle's law books, and, early in her 'teens, entered the University of Moscow, hoping to become a modern Portia and defend the unfortunates who were being persecuted under the Czar's government.

Hearing her beautiful soprano voice, when she sang for them after classes, Mme, Kurenko's fel low law students persuaded her to develop her local talents at the Moscow Conservatory. She became a pupil of the famed Mozetti there, and graduated in music from the Conservatory and in law from the university the same year She was admitted to the bar in Moscow and was practicing law when Mazetti prevailed upon her to accept an engagement at the opera house in Kharkoff, and it was there that she made her debur a little over eight years ago. Kurenko, the lawyer, became

CANADA OUTLINES LOW WAVE NEEDS

Canadian Government Suggests Uniform Policy or Allotment

WASHINGTON (AP) - In the allocation of short wave channels the Federal Radio Commission will give special consideration to the needs of Canada.

The Canadian government has written the state department that It is greatly interested in the short wave question and suggests a uniform policy of allotment.

The Canadian government has made general assignments of radio service in this order of priority: Service with ships and aircraft which depend entirely on radio for communication.

Public commercial service between points not reached by any other existing communication. Emergency service for public utilities. Private services for communication with points not reached by other communication. Public commercial services with points which already have adequate means of wire communica-

WOMAN AND RADIO NEMESIS OF GAME LAW VIOLATORS

1927 stipulates that "all stations must so far as practicable be established and operated so as not to interfere with the radio communication or services of other contracting governments and of individuals or private enterprises authorized by these contracting governments to carry on public radio communication service."
