Los Angeles Police Believe Bank Robbery Cleared Up Yesterday

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 12 .-(AP)-Six men and one woman were in jail today and $30,000 in tot recovered in what the police declare was the solution of the $60.000 robbery of a Pacific National bank messenger and guard on March 6.

The officers said five of the seven suspects held had confessed their parts in the robbery-described as the largest bank holdup here in the last 15 years,

Those under arrest on charges of robbery and conspiracy are:

William R. "Bill" Wood, former federal narcotic agent and bail bond broker, who police declare has confessed he helped engineer the robbery and ngaged two Chicago gun men to aid in staging the actual holdup and who is said to have obtained $13,000 for his work; Arthur Clensay, 38; Malcolm D. "Mickey"Jones, 30; Horace S. Miles, 41; James "Bud" Christle: Hoyle Sigler and Mrs. Ruth Enos, 27, said by the officers to be a sweetheart of Sigler.

Three men each of whom has a criminal record, still are sought by the police.
