

NORMA SHEARER APPEARS IN SALEM

"The Latest from Paris" Depicts Thrilling Scenes At Elsinore

Norma Shearer, to appear in "The Latest from Paris," has come to be known as an all-around star.

In other words Miss Shearer, has been classified by the critics as one who can successfully delineate the character of the "Colonel's lady" or "Judy O'Grady." She is able, to be trite, to slip easily from the ridiculous to the sublime. And she has done it in a manner which has delighted many, many thousands of theater fans.

Miss Shearer, who always has proved popular in Salem, may be seen March 15, 16, and 17 at the Elsinore in her most recent picture. It is called, "The Latest from Paris." The management considers itself fairly successful in booking the picture.

In it she is Ann Dolan, smart, naive, alluring. In putting her young brother through college she makes a business trip west—and it comes to pass that, as a business woman, she meets up with Joe Adams, salesman for a large rival firm who becomes—much to Miss Shearer's benefit—quite talkative regarding styles to be offered by his firm. Of course he does not know her identity, and the ensuing situations are nothing short of highly humorous.

"And that," announced V. E. McIntyre, manager of the Elsinore, "is about enough to tell concerning the plot which, by the way, is exceptionally well handled.

SPRING STYLES SEEN IN SALEM

Norma Shearer Wears Latest Vogues In Film "The Latest From Paris"

By Faith E. McIntyre
And How!
This is the style week in Salem and Norma Shearer will be at the Elsinore in "The Latest From Paris," which carries a line of more than 100 advance spring models of gowns, coats and suits. (Married Scotchmen take note.)
Norma Shearer's newest, considered by many critics the best picture of her career, with Ralph Forbes of "Beau Geste" playing opposite and George Sidney, promises something to all the tired business men. To all seeking charm and beauty of form and apparel, to all traveling men tired of "flirting" with impressionable young women who may turn out to be "gold diggers," tired of entertaining customers whom you would rather strangle—in other words—bored to death with your traveling existence, then the management of the Elsinore suggests, merely suggests, that you see "The Latest From Paris" as it carries a trainload of laughs every mile of the way. It will be in Salem for three days starting today.
Don't be one to say, "I wish I had gone."

SOUTHERN BEAUTY IS MAY QUEEN

Sweetbriar college at Sweetbriar, Va., has chosen for its May queen a typical southern beauty. She is Miss Marion Taber, daughter of Mrs. Derrill Darby Taber, of Columbia, S. C.

WHICH OF FOUR IS PRETTIEST?

Which of these four college beauties is the prettiest? That's the question facing O. Leonard Richmond, pastel artist of London, England, who has been named to choose the prettiest of the beauties on the Heidelberg college campus at Tiffin, O. They are La Opal Zaugg, of Wooster, O.; Luetta Fledderjohann, of St. Marys, O., and Louise McKinney and Ola Neiderhuser, both of Tiffin.

The governor deferred until noon today his decision in the case of Bernice Laws, who is wanted at Sheridan on a charge of passing a worthless check in the amount of $25. Mrs. Laws admitted cashing the check, but alleged that she was compelled to commit the crime because of circumstances.

An effort is being made to induce the complainant to accept the amount of money represented in the worthless check cashed by Mrs. Laws in lieu of her prosecution. In event this settlement is brought about, the governor may deny the extradition in Mrs. Laws' case.

Elsie Mackay 5th Woman To Attempt Atlantic Flight

NEW YORK, Mar. 14.—(AP)—Miss Elsie Mackay, if she is aboard the monoplane "Endeavour" with Captain Walter G. R. Hinchliffe on its flight to America is the fifth woman to attempt a trans-Atlantic crossing. The four previous attempts failed.
Two of the flights, those of Mrs. Frances Wilson Grayson and Princess Lowenstein-Werthem, ended fatally. Ruth Elder was forced down off the Azores after a flight from New York and Lilly Dillenz, Viennese actress, got little more than a sniff of salt air in her attempted flight to America with two German aviators. She flew to the Azores in the Junkers plane D-1230, but was forced to abandon her trip there when repeated mishaps held the big seaplane to the water.

Hoover Movement Gaining Momentum Steadily, Word

LaGRANDE, Ore., Mar. 14.—(AP)—State Senator Fred K. Kiddle, manager of the Herbert Hoover presidential campaign in Oregon, received word this morning from Washington that the situation in Ohio is very encouraging with indications that Hoover will win a majority of the delegates from Senator Willis.
Kiddle believes that the republican sentiment in Oregon is overwhelmingly in favor of the secretary of commerce and says that so far it appears as if there will be no opposition to Hoover in the primaries.
Kiddle will leave for his Portland headquarters this evening. He has just recently completed a visit to southern Oregon, stopping at Ashland, Grants Pass, Medford, Roseburg and Cottage Grove.

TAG DAY SATURDAY
Permission has been granted the local branch of the Salvation Army to hold a "tag day" in the downtown district this coming Saturday, the proceeds of which will apply to the general work of the organization. A bevy of Army lassies will canvass the main business thoroughfares during rush hours, with a supply of tags appropriate to the occasion—even to "sham-rocks" for those of Irish proclivity. A statement from Dr. B. F. Pound, chairman of the local army advisory board, is to the effect that much good work has been accomplished in many directions during recent months, justifying the local organization in seeking funds at this time.

DISTRICTS' ANNUAL SCHOOL MEET SOON

Notices Calling Attention To Date, June 18, Sent By Superintendent

Letters calling attention to the annual meetings of school districts and blanks for reports are being mailed all clerks of Marion county schools Thursday from the office of County Superintendent Fulkerson. The annual meetings will fall on June 18 this year, the third Monday in June being stipulated by law.

The letter directs attention to the following requirements:
If a tax is to be levied at the meeting, the budget must be posted 21 days previous to the meeting; in third class districts (200 or less children on the census), budget notices need be posted only 10 days unless more than a 6 per cent tax increase is before the people, when 21 days public notice is needed.

Notices must be published once a week for two weeks in districts where there are newspapers; otherwise, notices must be posted on the school house door for two weeks prior to meeting.
If there is a surplus fund in the district and no special levy is required, the superintendent must be notified or the court will make the levy as required by law.
Instruction for crippled children in the district should be provided for in the budget.
Since the law says 160 days of school must be actually taught in each district now, the state department suggests the teacher's contract be made for at least eight and one-fourth months.

If a special tax is to be levied, copies of the budget and the notice of special levy should be filed before December 1 with the county superintendent, the county clerk and county assessor.
Annual report should be sent to the county superintendent immediately after the meeting.
Audit of the school clerk's record books is to begin the first week of July and include warrant stubs, cancelled warrants, statement from bank of cash on hand June 15, 1928, and the record book.

Notification of election of teachers should be made to the office immediately following election.
Districts where there are high schools should remit high school report as soon as school closes for appointment of the county high school fund.

FLOOD BLAME PUT UPON LOS ANGELES

Citizens of Santa Paula In Devastated Area Express Indignation

SANTA PAULA, Cal., March 14.—(AP)—Citizens of Santa Paula, one of the communities that suffered heavily in the St. Francis dam disaster yesterday, met to discuss rehabilitation today and through the voice of their chairman and others, laid the blame for the catastrophe at the door of the city of Los Angeles, which owned the demolished dam.
C. C. Teague, resident of Santa Paula and president of the California Fruit Growers Exchange, was chosen chairman of the rehabilitation conference, which met at the call of Mayor M. L. Strekel.
Teague headed the fight waged against the building of the St. Francis dam by the residents of Santa Clara river valley, the latter charging that Los Angeles, by means of the structure, was usurping the water rights of the Santa Clara river.
Legal suits to settle the disputed points are still in the court.
Dr. B. W. Mott, former state senator from Santa Paula, declared that "the responsibility is that of a selfish city that took the water belonging to us."
Mott declared Governor Young had promised a full investigation into Santa Clara valley water rights.
The speakers closing declaration to the meeting was: "We want Los Angeles to know it has taken millions from us."

TALENT TESTIFIES IN HIS OWN BEHALF

Trial of Federal Prohibition Officer Continues At Portland

PORTLAND, March 14.—(AP)—Terry A. Talent, 22 year old federal prohibition officer, took the witness stand in his own behalf today to testify to incidents that led up to the fatal shooting of Mansford Zimmerlee, alleged moonshiner, on the night of September 28, last. Talent is on trial in federal court on a charge of involuntary manslaughter in connection with Zimmerlee's death.

Admitting that both he and Claude L. Hickman, state prohibition officer, fired at the running man as he tried to escape, Talent declared he shot low with the intention only of wounding the man in the legs. The shooting started after Zimmerlee had been placed under arrest at his home in southern Oregon. The mountaineer had attempted to wrest Talent's pistol from him, failed and ran from the officers, who fired after him in the night.

In making his escape, Zimmerlee swam the Rogue river. He died at Medford early on the morning of September 30 after an operation had failed.

Talent testified today that to the best of his knowledge, he did not hit Zimmerlee with any of the five bullets he fired.
The defense, conducted by the government, rested its case today after calling but few witnesses. L. A. Liljeqvist, appointed by the attorney general as special prosecutor then began his summary before the jury. The case was expected to go to the jury late tomorrow.

The prosecutor attacked the contention that Talent at the time of the shooting was engaged in a felony. He contended that although made a felony by statute, the sale of liquor is not in fact a felony, and has not been so determined by the supreme court. Liljeqvist declared that under the circumstances, Talent had no right to shoot at Zimmerlee even though the alleged moonshiner was making an attempt to escape.
