

CLOSE OF CONTEST COUNTED IN HOURS

Final Bell Will Be Sounded at Stroke of Midnight Next Tuesday

With only a few hours remaining to secure subscriptions in The Statesman's big automobile contest, candidates are exerting every effort possible to have all their votes lined up in time to get them

B. L. HOLLAND
Mr. Holland is one of the most active and vigorous contestants in The Statesman contest. He has a host of friends who wish him success, and if he will organize his forces he can win any prize in the auto contest.

In the campaign department office before midnight, Tuesday, March 20. This is the last minute for casting votes in the contest. After Tuesday night at midnight there will be no more subscriptions and the contest will be closed. The winners will be carrying the happy smile that they have done their best and won the prizes that they were aiming at.

Success does not come easy, neither do wishes and hopes contribute anything toward reaching their goal. Of all ambitious people it is the steady, persistent worker who never gives up that keeps at the top of the list and attains success.

Remember, candidates, midnight is the last opportunity to cast your votes and win one of the valuable prizes offered in the contest. Tuesday should be the biggest day for the campaign. Be sure to get all your votes in by Tuesday, midnight, or otherwise mail them at the postoffice postmarked Tuesday and they will be accepted Wednesday or Thursday provided they have been mailed at the right time.

Don't forget there is a club bonus of 100,000 votes for every $10.00 worth of subscriptions secured right up to the end of the contest.

Remember, candidates, notwithstanding any report that you may have received to the contrary, nobody has the prizes clinched yet, and the work done between now and midnight of March 20 will determine the prize winners.

TEXAS WANTS ONLY DEAD BANDITS

$5,000 REWARD
DEAD Bank Robbers Wanted
$5,000 Cash will be paid for each bank robber killed while robbing a Texas bank.
LIBERTY STATE BANK, Dallas

"Five thousand dollars for every dead bank robber—not a cent for a hundred live ones." That's how the Texas Bankers' association plans to do away with bank robberies in the state. Left, above, a poster announcing the reward. Right, William M. Massee, president of the association, signing a check for $10,000, the first paid since the announcement, for the death of two men shot in a bank robbery attempt. Below is a photo of the check.

How Big Stores Help One Another

I have in mind two big department stores in a great middle western city, which stand almost side by side. One may be known as March's, the other as Boley's. Said the manager of March's store a while ago:

"If Boley's should ever have to move because the building owner raises the rent, I should almost be disposed to pay the difference in their rental out of my own funds, if necessary, to keep them close by."

And I have no doubt that the manager of Boley's feels the same way. So long as the two stores are in operation in the same city, it is better for each that they should be close together—the closer the better. One helps the other. Each establishment has customers who would rather buy there than elsewhere; but if there is a chance of getting better values at another place next door they will look over the goods there before buying. In that way each store helps its neighbor to draw a crowd, and out of the number who drift in from next door many will be moved to make purchases they had no idea of making when they left home. Buying is stimulated.

If you have ever had occasion to buy a piano, the chances are that you found most of the piano stores in the same part of town and fairly close together. When a man starts to buy a piano he wants to examine every line in town if he can do so conveniently. But he may not bother with the dealer who is too far from the others.

ARMS LIMITATION ASKED BY SENATE

President Urged To Call New Convention for Cutting Down Navies

WASHINGTON, Mar. 16—(AP)—Without debate the house today adopted an amendment to the $274,000,000 new warship construction program to request the president to urge the "necessity" for another international conference for the limitation of naval armaments.

The proposal, sponsored by Representative Sproul, republican, Kansas, was accepted without a vote. Shortly after its adoption an effort to reach a final vote before night adjournment was blocked by Representative Blanton, democrat, Texas, and the measure was carried over for disposition tomorrow.

The house also accepted by a vote of 115 to 102 an amendment by Representative Dallinger, republican, Massachusetts, to provide that eight of the proposed sixteen ships should be constructed in government navy yards.

Dallinger contended that it was fair that at least half of the proposed 15 cruisers and one aircraft carrier should be built in the navy yards, and several members supporting his stand said that the statement had been made that the program had been offered to congress for the relief of the shipping industry.

Blanton opposed the Dallinger amendment and after an unsuccessful effort to obtain a record vote on the proposal threw a parliamentary monkey wrench into the plans of house leaders for an immediate final vote. He demanded the reading of the engrossed measure, which would have necessitated sending the bill to the government printing office for printing as amended. House leaders thereupon postponed the final vote until tomorrow.

REGISTER CARDS SENT

Call Attention to Need of Registering By April 17

Cards which are to be posted by voter registrants throughout Marion county, were being sent out by County Clerk U. G. Boyer Thursday. These cards will be required by the new law, which regulates all voters to be registered 30 days before election, and forbids the swearing in of voters at the polls. Registration for the primary election closes April 17, the county clerk emphasized. Only about 500 persons have registered since the last election, and there are undoubtedly a great number more who ought to register but have not, Boyer says.

Persons who have moved to a new precinct or changed their party affiliation, or women who have married, are required to register over again.

The State of Utah derives its name from the Utes Indians, according to an answered question in Liberty Magazine.
