was a perfect ensemble, in which everything had the ring of conviction," said the London Times. "The expressive phrases were brought out with a rare combination of tenderness and strength." The London Morning Post declared of the quartet, "It can challenge comparison with any possible rival, English or Continental. Nothing could have been more beautiful than the quality and balance of tone."

The Spanish newspapers declared unequivocally that the London string quartet is the "finest quartet in the world" and the Paris Comedie reported, "They played with an ease and virtuosity unsurpassed by any foreign combination that has ever visited Paris. In Barcelona, Spain, they played to an audience of 4,500 and were declared a "marvelous ensemble" and in Santiago, Chile, they gave 13 concerts in 17 days in a theater holding 3,000 and packed to the doors every performance. Whilst "La Prensa" said, "the finest artists that have visited Buenos Aires."

The London string quartet has given the entire cycle of Beethoven quartets in one week (six concerts) in London four times, Leeds twice, in Edinburgh twice and they have given this popular series in Newcastle, Stockholm, Christiania, New York and Boston, and Buffalo.

The following program will be given:

H. Waldo Warner

1. Moonbeams (Andantino) There are moonbeams and shadows in the Pixy field; and as midnight chimes, the Pixy wakes from slumber.

2. "Toadstools" (Moderato grottesco) There are queer little Gnomes amongst the toadstools and grasshoppers and field mice keep them company.

3. "Tinkling Blue Belle." (Andante ma non troppo) There are blue-bells that tinkle in the breeze and fairy chimes too; the glow-worm lights her tiny lamp and the night moth jolts the throng.

4. "Pixy-Laden" (Andante con moto) There is a human here singing this favorite ditty. The little folk too are in a merry mood. The human is alarmed, his song erratic; he is pixy-laden.

50 Years a School Teacher

The ideal of service has never been more nobly exemplified than by Jennie Lynch. For a full half century, she taught in one school in New York City. To her perseverance, patience, kindness and honor, and to her keen sense of duty, thousands of her pupils who have grown into matured life, owe to her a debt of gratitude which they will never be able to pay.

Serving others, whether it may be in the school room, in the great professions or behind the store counter, and doing it just a little better day by day, is always worthy the best that is in us.

Service is one of life's loftiest aims.

That Tired Feeling

Is it caused by overwork—either mental or physical—or is it due to a condition of the system known as "over-acidity"?

Scientists claim the latter cause to be largely responsible for lack of endurance, and emphasize the vital importance of maintaining the "Chemical Balance"—that margin by which alkali exceeds acid in the blood.

This natural tonic is Alkaline in action—neutralizes the acid and supplies mineral elements which are absolutely essential to health.
