

AIRPLANE AND DOG TEAM BRING FOOD

Isolated City in Michigan Cut Off By Snow Drifts and Ice Packs

SAULT STE MARIE, Mich., Mar. 17.—(AP)—An army airplane and a dog team Friday broke the snow blockade which had isolated the village of Detour, Mich., for 16 days, and the dog team got there first.

Their threat of famine averted, the villagers abandoned their canned diet last night, to eat their first square meal in more than a week and scanned the first mail they had received in nearly three weeks.

It was a joyous holiday with the school house closed and work abandoned as virtually the entire population of 600 inhabitants gathered around an improvised landing field on the ice of the St. Mary's river, to greet the arrival of the army transport plane, several hours after a dog team carrying a lighter load of provisions had been welcomed.

It had taken the team of seven dogs since Wednesday afternoon when it left here, to make the 60 mile trip in the teeth of a blizzard while the big airplane carrying 300 pounds of mail and 300 pounds of food, principally bread, landed gracefully on the ice field just 37 minutes after it took off from the same place at 11:40 a. m.

Immediately upon discharging its cargo the plane returned here carrying Russell Goetz, critically ill from blood poisoning. He was removed to a local hospital.

Dr. T. R. Laughbaum, village physician who accompanied the patient, said the trip probably would save Goetz' life.

ASK REGISTRATION OF PAID LOBBYISTS

People Often Cheated By Fake Political Representations, Word

WASHINGTON, Mar. 17.—(AP)—The paid, unofficial dabbler in legislation who conceals both his purpose and the identity of his employer came under fire Friday when a house judiciary sub-committee took up the Caraway bill to require registration of lobbyists.

Two prominent democrats appeared before the committee to depict him as a fraud growing fat on money fleeced from the innocent public on the pretense that he exerts an influence over legislative matters.

Senator Caraway of Arkansas, democrat author of the measure, declared that passage of the bill would save a million dollars to industry by bringing the lobbyists into the open. He termed "big business" the greatest loser, and asserted that disclosure of the usefulness of the lobbyist would tend to remove such a danger.

The lobbyist payroll was described as larger than that of congress by Rep. Garner of Texas, ranking democrat on the house ways and means committee.

Mr. Garner, said he welcomed the opinions of the well informed legitimate lobbyist who had given a careful study to pending legislation and that the lobbyist of this character would not oppose the Caraway bill but would welcome it as a protection.

Baby Teeth As Important As Permanent Set, Claim

It is just as important to properly care for the baby teeth as it is to care for the permanent teeth. The idea that many parents have that "they will soon fall out anyway" and therefore need no care is almost sure to cause a lack of development of the jaws which in turn will produce a detrimental effect during the entire life of the child. Many mothers fail to appreciate the remarkable influence that the growth of the teeth has upon the mental development of the child. Unless the teeth take their places normally in the jaws and are normally retained the bones of the jaws and face do not develop properly.

Nature unfortunately handled the baby teeth unkindly. It placed a very large nerve pulp in these teeth that gets its owner into - trouble in double quick time. It gave these teeth a set of comparatively deep pits and grooves in which food can collect, decompose and start the work of decay.

- Up to the age of two years the teeth should be cleaned with a cloth wrapped around the fingers. After the age of two the small baby tooth brush with soft bristles is used. As the child grows older the stiffer bristles will be more effective.
- Successful dental work can be accomplished for many children at the age of three or four years. Remember that the time to fill cavities in the teeth is when they are small. Some of these cavities can only be discovered by the dentist. When they are so large that the parents' attention is directed to them by the crying of the child with the toothache it is too late to fill them with the best results, and without a great deal of pain for the child.
- When you have your teeth examined every six months by your dentist be sure and not forget that your little boy's or girl's teeth should be examined just as frequently.

COOLIDGE OPPOSES INDEPENDENCE MOVE

President Not In Favor of Complete Independence of Porto Rico

WASHINGTON, Mar. 17.—(AP)—President Coolidge has delivered a rebuke to agitators for complete independence in Porto Rico. There has been a complete misunderstanding of the concrete facts," in the president's opinion, in connection with the moves to obtain home rule without outside assistance on the island, whose government was now said by Mr. Coolidge to exercise a "greater degree of sovereignty over its own internal affairs than does the government of any state or territory of the United States." The president's position was given in a communication addressed to Horace M. Towner, governor of Porto Rico. It was in reply to a resolution adopted by the island legislature and to a cablegram signed by the president of the senate and speaker of the house of Porto Rico appealing for freedom to adopt methods to recover from a "grave economic situation" in the finances of the government of Porto Rico. President Coolidge wrote "the present difficulty, which it is hoped is but temporary, is exclusively the result of the exercise by the elected representatives of the people of Porto Rico of an authority granted by the present very liberal organic law."

The population of Italy has increased $53,000 during the past two years, which is eloquent proof that Mussolini hasn't got the stork bluffed anyway.

There was one place where buggy-riding had it on auto-joy riding. If you had to walk home there wasn't so much territory to cover.

According to the New York Times the taxi drivers in Gotham hold spelling bees when they are not busy. We always supposed they spent their idle hours tuning up their taxi-meters.

Some of those days they will be putting in the museum of rare curiosities the statue of the politician who wasn't worried about the farmer—providing they can find one.

Marines Resume Recruiting Here; Inactive for Months

After a suspension of recruiting activities extending over several months, the United States marines Friday resumed their recruiting activities to permit the acceptance of desirable young men over 18 years of age for first enlistments and for re-enlistment of former service men from the army and navy who hold excellent discharges.

Official orders received by Corporal Arthur B. Eben at the Marine corps recruiting station in the postoffice building give no indication that this resumption of marine recruiting has any connection with the sending of additional marines to China or Nicaragua or other expeditionary forces, but is rather of a routine activity to maintain the marine corps at its strength of 18,000.

NEGRO WINS

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 17.—(AP)—Young Jack Thompson, Los Angeles negro welterweight stopped Johnny O'Donnell of St. Paul in the eighth round at Golden Gate arena last night.

A New York man who walked through Central Park in the snow, clad only in his bathing suit, was arrested. If this had been a woman, the policeman would have passed her by, thinking she was only wearing the latest street costume from Paris.
