FARM HOME FOUND DOING GOOD WORK

117 Children Well Cared for and Learning Self Support, Discovered

NORTH STATAN, Mar. 20 (Special)—Mrs. McClellan, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Cobb and Mrs. Gullivan, representatives of the Ladies club, visited the Childrens Farm Home at Corvallis Saturday. The object of the visit was to learn what line of supplies was most needed. The answer was promptly given, "garments for boys," but any article useful in a home would be appreciated. A. C. Heyman, superintendent of the 250-acre farm, gave interesting information concerning the work being done there.

At the present time 117 children from 3 to 7 years of age, are being cared for in the six cottages which constitute the Home, where they are taught to do all kinds of work useful in a home or on a farm and are made to feel they are contributing to their own support and are not merely objects of charity.

After having enjoyed a picnic lunch the party was shown through the cottages by Mrs. Webb, whose interesting talk was enjoyed by all.

Two house mothers superintend each cottage and they are kept busy caring for a family of more than twenty children, but the perfect system used makes it possible to keep the homes beautifully clean and orderly.

W.U. DEBATE TEAM ON WAY TO TACOMA

Local College Women To Meet Puget Sound Speakers Thursday Night

The Willamette university Women's debate team composed of Margaret Pro and Evangeline Hall, together with Dr. J. O. Hall, head of the public speaking department and debate coach, left yesterday at 5 o'clock for Tacoma, Wash., where they will debate Willamette's old rival, College of Puget Sound, on Thursday evening. They remained in Portland last night and will continue on to Tacoma today. They hope to return the latter part of the week.

The question for debate is "Resolved that the United States should not protect by armed force capital invested in foreign nations." The Willamette debaters will uphold the negative side of the question.

Willamette university has developed five debate teams this year and up to date has never been defeated. During the last part of March Dr. J. O. Hall, Charles Redding and Robert Witty, will leave for Los Angeles, Calif., where they will attend the annual conference of the Pacific Forensic league. While there, Witty will participate in the oratorical contest, and Redding will take part in the extemporaneous contest.

The Willamette men's debate team will debate the University of California and also Southwest University of Los Angeles. This is a law school with an enrollment of about 1200 students, and is considered very strong in forensics. It has a traveling debate team which will meet the Willamette team here, April 6, with Redding and Witty defending Willamette on the affirmative side of the question.
