

THE PAGEANT

Forever is a broad road where have met together Brave deeds in red robes and deeds of golden fire; Grave deeds in silver gowns, quaint deeds in motley, Quiet deeds in homely gray that only saints admire. —Marguerite Wilkinson.

Drama League Will Present Play For the Second Time

In response to repeated requests from the theater-goers of Salem who were unable to attend the presentation of "Araminta" earlier in the winter by the Salem Drama League, the play will be repeated Friday evening, March 30, at the Oregon theater. There will be two performances, one following each show. "Araminta" is a one-act comedy, written by Harry Hamilton, and is replete with a delightful and amusing dialogue and peculiar situations which invariably appeal to mixed audiences, both young and old.

The cast includes: "Araminta" Mildred Judson; "Berie" Jenny Bush; "Sophie" Helen Pollock; "Mrs. Weaver" Virginia Page; and "Fan" Jennie Thompson. The play is coached by Miss Marjorie Walker.

Meeting of Idlewild Card Club

The Idlewild "500" club was entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lester Jones on North Church street. The first prize in cards was won by Mrs. L. E. Swift, and the second prize by Mrs. Leon DuBois. Mrs. A. L. Tumbleton assisted the hostess in serving refreshments. Daffodils centered the table.

The members are Mrs. Allen Fletcher, Mrs. L. E. Swift, Mrs. Greig Long, Mrs. Leon DuBois, Mrs. A. L. Tumbleton, Mrs. R. A. Hixson, Mrs. Carroll Long, Mrs. H. A. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Elva Porter, Mrs. Fran Weins, Mrs. E. B. Taylor, and the hostess, Mrs. Jones. Mrs. Allen Fletcher will entertain the club April 5.

Mrs. Denton and Mrs. Meyers Attend Grand Opera in Portland

Mrs. Walter A. Denton and Mrs. Milton L. Meyers were among the Salem people who attended the presentation of the "Snow Maiden" Friday evening at the Portland auditorium by the Chicago Grand Opera company.

Mrs. Meyers and Mrs. Denton also heard the "Resurrection" presented by Mary Garden and other members of the opera company yesterday afternoon.

Musical Program Will Be Given at State School For the Blind

A musical program has been arranged by Mrs. Thomas Larkia Williams, president of the Salem Arts League, to be given by the music department of the league Tuesday evening, March 27th, at the State school for the blind, under the auspices of the Institutions department of the Salem Woman's Club.

Dr. Fannie A. Brown is chairman of the blind school division of the sponsoring department.

Engagement of Christina M. Harold Announced at Luncheon

Announcement of the engagement of Christina M. Harold and Fred G. Ellithorpe of Seattle was made at the meeting of the Thursday Luncheon club at the home of Mrs. Merritt Davis. The table was centered with pink and white sweet peas, and all pink tapers. Small baskets at each cover contained the names of the couple. Covers were placed for Christina J. Harold, Mrs. Ida Elgin, Mrs. Otto Scheman, Mrs. George Potter, Mrs. Sherman Heckman, Mrs. Leo Childs, and Miss Betty Scheman, all members of the club, and the following special guests: Mrs. Anna Harold, Miss Marie Harold, Mrs. G. L. Lovell, and Mrs. M. Pittenden.

Mrs. Otto J. Wilson Entertains Kensington Club

An interesting meeting of the Kensington club was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Otto J. Wilson on State street. The special guests were Mrs. Carle Abrams, Miss Signa Wahlstrom, and Mrs. Ass Fisher. The afternoon was spent with sewing and conversation. Refreshments were served at the tea hour. Spraea and daffodils decorated the living rooms and the tea table in the dining room.

Club members present were Mrs. F. S. Anunson, Mrs. Herbert Hauzer, Mrs. Charles Pratt, Mrs. George Griffith, Mrs. Charles Hudkins, Mrs. I. M. Doughton, Mrs. Frank Power, and the hostess, Mrs. Wilson. Mrs. F. S. Anunson will entertain the club in a fortnight.

Miss Winifred Byrd's Concert Will Take Place Thursday Evening

An outstanding event of the week will be the concert which will be given at the Capitol theater. O - T L ater Thursday evening, March 29, by Miss Winifred Byrd, one of America's foremost pianists.

Miss Byrd's concert is attracting wide interest and friends and music lovers from Portland, Corvallis, Eugene, and other nearby towns are planning to attend. Several line parties have been arranged for the concert. The Salem MacDowell Club will have a party as will also the Alpha Chi Omega sorority of which Miss Byrd is a member.

An informal reception will follow the concert. The many friends of this brilliant young artist who have hitherto not had the privilege of meeting her may then have an opportunity to do so.

The concert in Salem Thursday evening, will be Miss Byrd's only appearance on the Pacific Coast this season.

Recent Guests in Salem

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Clifford of Portland spent Thursday and Friday of the past week with friends in Salem. Salem People Go to Portland For Grand Opera Season Governor and Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson were the guests of Mayor and Mrs. George Baker at "Aida" Thursday evening in the Portland Auditorium. Other Salem people who attended grand opera in Portland last week were Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Miss Mirrah Blair, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. C. C. Clark, Mrs. Edgar Hartley, Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mrs. Katherine Hartley, Miss Mildred Jaeger, and Miss Ruth Moore.

Mrs. George F. Rodgers Hostess at Delightful Afternoon Affair

Mrs. George F. Rodgers entertained the members of her club and several additional guests with a delightful bridge tea Thursday afternoon in her home on Court street. Special guests were Mrs. Josephine Stewart of Eugene, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. W. H. Lytle and Mrs. Frank Sneecor.

Club members present were Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. David W. Eyre, Mrs. Dan J. Fry Jr., Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. John H. McNary, and the hostess, Mrs. Rodgers.

Week-End Guest in Portland

Miss Thelma Young left Friday evening for Portland where she will be the week-end guest of her aunt, Miss Gene Belle.

Officers of Willamette Shrine Elected For the Year

The following officers were elected for the year at the stated communication of Willamette Shrine, No. 2, Order of White Shrine of Jerusalem, which was held in the Masonic Temple Monday evening. Miss Grace M. Babcock, worthy high priestess; Justice O. P. Coshaw, watchman of the shepherds; Amos Vass, worthy scribe; Katherine Bernardi, worthy treasurer; Maude Scott, noble prophetess; Zella Nelmeier, worthy chaplain; Hazel Gillett, worthy shepherdess; and Miss Gladys Adams of Woodburn, worthy guide. Sojourner Nellie Taylor, eldest member of the Shrine, was honored in the evening. The new ritualistic work was also exemplified. Refreshments were served later in the evening in the Masonic dining room. The long tables were centered with spraea and green tapers in crystal holders. St. Patrick's novelties marked covers for 55. A birthday cake was cut for the eighth anniversary of the organization of Willamette Shrine. The refreshment committee included: Sojourner, Cleo Casabatt, chairman; Zella Nelmeier; Grace Crater, Charles L. Hogmeier, Katherine Bernardi, Vera Barrick, Hazel Hughes, Ethel F. Headrick, Samuel Gillette, Joy Turner Moses, and Gladys Adams.

The new and retiring officers will be the guests of honor at the banquet which will be held Monday evening, April 18, at the Masonic temple, preceding the installation services. Members of the leading side in the recent attendance campaign will be in charge of the affair, with Mrs. Grace Crater as chairman. Reservations should be made with Mrs. Winifred Herrick, worthy high priestess, before April 15.

Regular Business and Social Meeting of W. C. T. U.

The Salem division of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union met on Tuesday afternoon in the Union hall on Commercial street for a business and social

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Today Services at First Congregational church. Speaker, Rev. Fred Clark of Eugene. Film, "Blood Will Tell," 7:30 o'clock. Special service for Girl Scouts of Salem. First Presbyterian church, 11 o'clock.

Monday Rebecca Lodge, No. 1. Official visit of Mrs. Etta Sanderson, state president. Salem MacDowell club presents in concert students of Sacred Heart Academy. Auditorium, Nelson building, 8:15 o'clock.

Tuesday Social afternoon meeting, Chadwick chapter, Eastern Star, Masonic temple, 2:00 o'clock. R. N. A. Sewing society. Mrs. Sarah Peterson, 235 West Wilson street hostess, 2:00 o'clock.

Wednesday Sweet Briar club. Mrs. A. H. Bunn, 2235 Hazel avenue hostess, 2 o'clock. Thursday Town and Gown club. Lausanne hall, 2:30 o'clock.

meeting, with Mrs. J. J. Nunn, president of the division, presiding. Following the opening songs, Mrs. R. V. Hollenberg lead the devotions. Mrs. Hollenberg, Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Mary Charlton offered prayers.

Mrs. J. J. Nunn announced the death of Mr. L. M. Prensall, husband of Mrs. Jennie Prensall, who is president of the Salem Unit of the W. C. T. U. A message of sympathy was sent to Mrs. Prensall.

Mr. Warren and his daughter, Mrs. Toppenden sang a duet, with Mrs. Warren playing the piano accompaniment. Mrs. O. A. Condit announced that the names of six new members had recently been added to the roll call. Mrs. Nunn conducted the Union Signal Quiz and the singing of Union songs concluded the meeting.

Plans are being made for another public meeting of the Union to be held in the latter part of April.

Town and Gown Club Will Meet Thursday Afternoon

The Town and Gown Club will meet at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at Lausanne hall.

Wedding of Interest Solemnized in Portland

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Dorothy Tweedle and John Beyerl which took place Tuesday afternoon, February 21, in Portland, comes as a complete surprise to the many Salem friends of the young couple.

Mrs. Beyerl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Tweedle of Salem. She is a prominent member of the younger set and is particularly well known in musical circles. Mrs. Beyerl has studied violin for a number of years with Minnetta M. Magers and is a member of the Salem MacDowell club chorus.

Mr. Beyerl is the nephew of Mr. C. F. Beyerl, manager of the Western Paper Converting company of Salem. He attended Leipzig university in Berlin for several years.

Only a few immediate relatives were present for the quiet wedding service.

Mr. and Mrs. Beyerl will be at home to their friends at 330 Bellevue street.

President of Rebecca Association Will Visit Salem Lodge

Mrs. Etta Sanderson, president of the Rebecca Association of Oregon, will pay her official visit to Salem Rebecca lodge No. 1 at the meeting of that organization Monday evening.

Guest in Salem For the Week

Mrs. Josephine Stewart was a guest in Salem last week at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Slater. Mrs. Stewart is house mother at the Gamma Phi Beta sorority house on the University of Oregon campus.

Little Salem Lad Assists With Spring Fashion Review in Portland

Little David Smith, Jr., of Salem was among the little lads and lassies who assisted with the "Spring Fashion Review for Kiddies" which was held in the auditorium of Meir and Frank's in Portland last Saturday afternoon. David, who is three years of age, was accompanied to Portland by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Smith, who formerly made their home in that city.

Guest From the South at Colonel Hofer Home

Colonel and Mrs. E. Hofer have had as their guest for the past week, Mrs. R. B. Houston, of Santa Rosa, California. A number of delightful affairs have been given in honor of Mrs. Houston while she has been visiting in Salem.

Salem Group Returns From Month's Visit in Hawaiian Islands

After spending a most enjoyable month in the Hawaiian Islands, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Kay, their daughter, Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding, and Dr. Mary C. Rowland, returned to their homes in Salem Friday evening.

Miss Margaret Stolz Honored With Attractive Pre-Nuptial Affair

In compliment to Miss Margaret Stolz whose marriage to Willard Marshall of Seattle, will be an event of the late spring, Miss Rose Eyre entertained Wednesday afternoon with an attractive tea at the David W. Eyre home on North Summer street.

Lovely baskets of long-stemmed pink tulips and pink rosebuds were arranged about the living rooms. The same flowers in combination with tall pink tapers in silver holders centered the tea table.

Mrs. Josephine McGilchrist presided at the door. In the receiving line with the honor guest were Miss Eyre, Mrs. W. T. Stolz, and Mrs. David W. Eyre.

Assisting about the living rooms were Mrs. W. Connel Dyer, Mrs. T. A. Roberts, Mrs. Prince W. Byrd, Mrs. Linn Smith, and Mrs. Frank Spears.

Mrs. Frederick S. Lampert and Mrs. William Walton presided at the serving urns and cut leas for the first hour of the afternoon. They were succeeded at the second hour by Mrs. Harry Hawkins, and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr.

Miss Katherine Hartley, Miss Nancy Nielsen, Miss Florence Power, Miss Charlotte Zieher, and Miss Josephine Albert assisted in serving.

One hundred and twenty-five guests called between the hours of three and five o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Churchill Present Piano Students in Recital

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Churchill presented a group of their piano students in recital Tuesday evening, March 20, in the concert hall of the Nelson building.

Assisting on the program were Miss Echo Hall, vocalist; Miss Lucille Hackett, reader; Miss Kathryn Ellis and Miss Margaret Bell, dancing pupils of Mrs. Julia R. White.

The following numbers were given: "Bell in the Valley".....Wenzel Mary Jane Shook "The Rainbow Fairy".....Krogmann Maxine Lane "Song of the Sea Shell".....Krogmann Donald Peary "Waltz of the Wild Flowers".....Edith Morehouse "Vocal Solo".....Selected Echo Hall "Up in a Swing".....Montaigne Nola Clark "Fleeting Clouds".....Anthony Ruth Reesor "Cupid's Wish".....Williams Donald McGee "Rose Petals".....Lawson Margaret Rannels "On Contest Night".....Lillian Strack Lucile Hackett "Humoresque".....Dvorak Wyn Jenks "Quips and Quirks".....Bibby Evelyn Terhune "Apple Blossoms".....Englemann Gatha Bressler "The Moth and the Flame".....(Interpretative) Kathryn Ellis, Margaret Bell "Sounds from the Valley".....Wenzel Edith Morehouse "Sounds from the Oyjbnethal".....Wenzel Irma Oehler "A Merry Mood".....Shackley Gatha Bressler, Ruth Reesor

Mr. and Mrs. Meyers Hosts at Meeting of Capitol Five-Hundred Club

Mr. and Mrs. Milton L. Meyers were hosts at the meeting of the Capitol Five-Hundred club Wednesday evening.

Dinner was served at six-thirty o'clock at the home of Mrs. James Godfrey on North Winter street. Several hours of card were enjoyed in the Meyers home on Court street following the dinner.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dick of Garden Home, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Gillingham, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Coughell, and Mrs. Josephine Stewart of Eugene, special guests, and the following members of the club: Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Durbin, Sr. and Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Locke, Dr. and Mrs. W. Carl Smith, Mrs. George F. Rodgers, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, George G. Brown, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Meyers.

The guest prizes for high score were won by Mrs. Coughell and Mr. Gillingham. Mrs. Olinger and Dr. Griffith won the members' prizes.

Return From Three Months' Visit in the South

Mrs. C. F. Glese and her small daughter, Dorothy Ellen, have returned to Salem after spending the past three months in Long Beach and Los Angeles, California, with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Paul Hendricks Hostess at Bridge Club Meeting

Mrs. Paul Hendricks entertained Wednesday afternoon in her home on Lincoln Hill with a charmingly-appointed one o'clock luncheon for the pleasure of the members of her club and several additional guests.

Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon. Mrs. T. A. Livesley won the guest prize for high score. Mrs. John Carson received the club prize.

Special guests were Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mrs.

Curtis Cross, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, and Mrs. Lawrence Woodworth. Club members present were Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry, Mrs. Carl E. Nelson, Mrs. John H. Carson, Mrs. Clifton Irwin, Mrs. Hollis Huntington, Mrs. Don Young, Mrs. Clifton Irwin, and the hostess, Mrs. Hendricks.

American Home Institute Held Yesterday in Portland

Club women from all parts of the state were present at the American Home Institute which was held yesterday at the Central library in Portland.

The Institute was sponsored by the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs and was presided over by Mrs. Jessie D. McCombs of Corvallis, chairman.

The program included the following: 11:30—"The Golden Opportunity," Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar, chairman of Institutes, Oregon Federation of Women's clubs. 1:00—"The Will Be Done," play by the Portland Underwriters' association, presented by Miss Mary C. Campbell, insurance specialist, Oregon Federation of Women's clubs.

11:30—"The Consumer in Wonderland," Lyle Janz, assistant manager Portland Better Business bureau. Address, "The Family, Whence and Whither?" Doctor Edward O. Sisson, professor of Philosophy, Reed college.

2:00—"Concerning Home Making," Mrs. Beth Bailey McLean, specialist, Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, Hood River. 2:30—"Development of Character," Dr. James R. Jewell, dean, school of vocational education, Oregon State Agricultural college, Corvallis.

3:30—Question box, conducted by Mrs. Dunbar, assisted by chairmen: American home department, Mrs. L. C. Palmer, Newberg, home economics teaching; Mrs. A. Y. Meyers, Marshfield, home making; Mrs. Beth Bailey McLean, Hood River, nutrition; Mrs. Fred M. Grosghon, Portland, budgets and Miss Mary C. Campbell, Portland, insurance.

Mrs. Josephine Stewart Honored With Attractive Bridge Luncheon

Complimenting Mrs. Josephine Stewart of Eugene, who has spent the past week in Salem, Mrs. W. H. Dancy entertained Wednesday afternoon in her home on North Liberty street with an attractive bridge luncheon.

The luncheon tables were very lovely with jonquils, spraea, and hyacinths. Covers were arranged for the honor guest, Mrs. Stewart; Mrs. Henry W. Meyers, Mrs. Reuben P. Boise, Mrs. Romeo Goulet, Mrs. C. A. Gray of Eugene, Mrs. George L. Rose, Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., Mrs. William Boot, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mrs. Edwin L. Baker, Mrs. Oliver C. Locke, Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. Milton L. Meyers, Mrs. L. F. Griffith, Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. W. Al Jones, Mrs. Frank Sneecor, Mrs. L. R. LeFurgy, Mrs. George F. Rodgers, Mrs. John H. McNary, and the hostess, Mrs. Dancy.

Mrs. W. Al Jones, and Miss Rosalie Jones assisted Mrs. Dancy. The first prize for high score, awarded at the close of the afternoon's play, was won by Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., won the second award, and Mrs. Josephine Stewart, the guest prize.

Lovely Afternoon Affair at William McGilchrist Home

A lovely affair of the past week was the eight table bridge tea for which Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., and Mrs. Phil A. Elker were hostesses Thursday afternoon in the McGilchrist home on North Summer street.

Dozens of baskets of spring flowers in attractive combinations were arranged about the living rooms, library, and sun room.

Eight tables of bridge were in play throughout the afternoon. The first prize for high score was won by Mrs. J. Lyman Steed, Mrs. Roy Mills received the second award.

Mrs. Homer H. Smith, Mrs. J. C. Currie, and Miss Vivian Elker assisted at the tea hour.

This charming bridge tea was one of a series of afternoon affairs which Mrs. Elker and Mrs. McGilchrist have arranged for the spring.

Special Camp Fire Girl Service at Presbyterian Church This Morning

A special service will be held at eleven o'clock this morning at the First Presbyterian Church for the Girl Scouts of Salem. A selection of the church auditorium has been reserved for the girls, all of whom will appear in uniform.

Mrs. Fry and Mrs. Dyer Hostesses at Delightful Afternoon Affair

One of the most delightful affairs of the past week was the four-table bridge tea for which Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., and Mrs. W. Connel Dyer were hostesses Tuesday afternoon in the Dyer home at 465 North Summer street, complimenting Mrs. John H. Carson.

Baskets of jonquils, spires, fuchsia, and daffodils were arranged about the spacious living rooms of the Dyer home.

The high score prizes as a result of the afternoon's play were won by Mrs. Sarah Bush and Mrs. Keith Powell.

The guest group included: Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mrs. R. A. Livesley, Mrs. C. M. Walker, Mrs. Paul H. Hendricks, Mrs. Clifton Carl Nelson, Mrs. Don Young, Mrs. James Linn, Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. T. A. Roberts, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mrs. Arthur Rahn, Mrs. Ercei Kay, Mrs. Keith Powell, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. John H. Carson, and the hostesses, Mrs. Fry and Mrs. Dyer.

Mrs. John H. Carson and Mrs. Hollis Huntington presided at the serving urns at the attractively appointed tea table.

Mrs. Fritz Slade and Mrs. Harry Hawkins assisted in serving.

Mrs. Dunn Will Entertain Sweet Briar Club

Mrs. A. H. Bunn will entertain members of the Sweet Briar club Wednesday afternoon in her home at 2235 Hazel avenue.

Salem MacDowell Concert Will Be an Event of Tomorrow Evening

The March concert of the local MacDowell Club will be presented in the auditorium of the Nelson building tomorrow evening, beginning at eight-fifteen o'clock, by the students in the music department of the Academy of the Sacred Heart, one of the leading educational institutions of Salem.

The interesting and varied program which has been arranged for the evening includes harp solos, played by Miss Mary Jean Porter, as well as piano and violin solos, and orchestra and ensemble numbers. This will be the first public program given by the academy students this year and promises to be an event of unusual interest in musical circles.

The April concert of the MacDowell Club will be played by Miss Frances Virginia Melton, head of the piano department at Willamette University. Miss Melton will

(Continued on page 12)

The French Shop launches a No-Profit Sale Starting Monday, March 26, at 10 a.m. NEVER BEFORE has the French Shop offered its fine apparel on sale at the opening of a season. ENTIRE STOCK of new spring modes on sale, including coats, dresses, ensembles and millinery. BRIDGE OR TEA DRESSES business dresses, street dresses and sport dresses in all the newest materials and colors. SMART COATS for dress and sport wear in all the newest fabrics. CHIC CREATIONS in millinery, fresh from their tissue wrappings. The La Bette Shop 494 State St., next to Oregon Theatre will participate with the French Shop in this no-profit sale. THE LA BETTE SHOP is owned by M. Buffe Morrison and is conducted as a specialty shop, featuring smart wearing apparel at popular prices. TO THOSE who have not visited the La Bette Shop, are extended a cordial invitation. You will not be disappointed and furthermore, you will be astonished at these marvelous values. No charges during this no-profit sale. Sale Starts Monday at 10 A. M.