

of Edward and Edna Harris, charged with the sale of opium.

On January 13, federal agents watched while an informant, an addict employed by the department, entered the Harris home. Three sales were made that night, according to the evidence and at this time, according to Judge Bean, a warrant should have been ordered and the arrests made. The agents waited until the following day, Saturday, and at 11:45 p. m. broke down the door to suppress evidence obtained by such methods in the prosecution arrests.

Man Drowns After Being Swept Off Feet by Flood

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Mar. 26. (AP)—The body of Zachariah Parker, 78, was taken from the swollen American river shortly before noon today. The aged man was drowned as he was leaving his flooded dwelling for high ground last night. Neighbors believed Parker became exhausted while wading through the water surrounding his home, and was swept away. He had six children.

OREGON YOUTH GETS TEN YEAR SENTENCE

Vincent Williamson Goes To Kansas Reformatory Following Crime

ERIE, Kas., March 26. (AP).—Vincent Williamson, 18, who escaped from the home for the feeble minded in Oregon recently, was sentenced to from 10 years to life imprisonment in the state reformatory at Hutchinson at the Neosho county district court here today after he confessed to wrecking a Missouri, Kansas, Texas passenger train near here on the night of February 24. Williamson, already serving a similar sentence at the reformatory for an attempted train wreck near Lenape, Kansas, was brought here yesterday after he confessed to railroad police. His motive, a written confession says, was to rob and kill. The locomotive and several cars of the train left the rails when an angle bar and a number of spikes were removed and Ora Embury, fireman of Sedalia, Mo., was fatally injured.

Williamson made his escape from the state institution for the feeble minded here on June 1 of last year, after having been there a year and making at least one other attempt to escape. It was stated Monday night by Dr. J. N. Smith, superintendent of the institution. "He started once before but broke his leg and couldn't get away," Dr. Smith stated. "He was very quarrelsome while here and gave us a lot of trouble." He made his successful escape with Herman Lemp, who subsequently returned, but who later was connected up with the murder of a night watchman at Topeka, Kansas. Officers from that city arrived here last week and took him east to face the murder charge. Lemp had run away from the institution here the previous year and had returned after a few months without anyone knowing where he had been. Lemp asserted that both he and Williamson were connected with the Topeka murder but Williamson took the leading part in it.

GIRLS MAKE ESCAPE

OVERCOME MATRON AND EFFECT COMPLETE GETAWAY

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 26. (AP)—Three girl prisoners overcame the matron of juvenile hall shortly after midnight today and escaped. Police said the girls, Irene Keljomen, 16; Jesse Loyd, 15, and Gloria Lannes, 16, apparently had lain in wait in a dark corner and leaped upon Matron Ada Stevenson while she was making her rounds. They used bludgeons fashioned from materials they had secreted. After beating the matron unconscious the girl prisoners took her keys and left the institution by way of the front door. The matron was removed to a hospital as soon as she was discovered and physicians said her condition was serious.

FIND WORLD TOO BIG

ASTORIA TWINS DECIDE THEY CAN'T SEE IT ALL

PORTLAND, Mar. 26. (AP)—Paul and Leo Alenius, 14, twins, left their home at Astoria last Wednesday, determined to see the world. Hiking on wet pavements, sleeping on damp ground under dripping trees and homesickness, combined to cool their ardor for adventure. This morning they asked a farmer at Doech station for a bite to eat. He gave them a big meal, and then bundled them into his automobile and took them to the police station. "Gee," murmured Paul, "I didn't realize the world was such a big place. We just wanted to see the world, but we got pretty homesick. Anyway we want to go back home." The boys were held in the juvenile ward while word was being sent to their mother at Astoria.

UNDER NEW OWNERSHIP! F. G. BROCK, FORMER SALEM MAN, BUYS THE Salem Variety Store

—STORE CLOSED ALL DAY TODAY—

I have purchased the balance of this stock to get the location where, it is my intention, to establish a modern and up-to-date Variety Store. Before I can start, however, all the remaining merchandise here must be sold. I do not care so much for what it brings, my whole concern is getting it out of here. I want the location and I want it just as soon as I can get it so the prices that this stock will sell at are of little consequence to me. Out it goes. —F. G. BROCK.
