

Senator Financing Problem Faced

SEASON DRAWS HIGH EXERCISE EMPTY

The uniforms are here and the players are in sight, and nothing is lacking to put in the field another Salem Senators baseball team that will make this city the center of baseball interest in Oregon—except cold hard cash.

That little item is naturally pretty important, and backers of the Senators are wondering a bit whether Salem wants a winning baseball team enough to pounce up for it.

Some of them are getting a bit discouraged, since the season ticket sale has failed to produce any staggering total as yet, but the truth is that the task of marketing these tickets hasn't been pushed very strenuously so far, and when somebody gets them prominently before the public, they are certain to go with a rush.

Salem is rather behind some of the other cities in the Willamette valley league in starting a campaign of financial backing for the ball team, however. Some of the smaller cities have already raised funds to put their teams on a sound footing, and Eugene is making a big campaign of it just at present.

One difficulty has been the weather; with skies overcast and rain falling in torrents, it has been pretty difficult to vision baseball season opening in a week or two. But the calendar says the league season opens just two weeks from next Sunday, and there will be one game prior to that, according to present plans. The uniforms, by the way, are on display at Brown's sporting goods store.

The Willamette Valley league will hold its final meeting before the opening of the season, next Monday at Eugene.

STAR FROWNED ON

LOS ANGELES, March 28.—(AP)—Information regarding the eligibility of Henry Coo, two miles runner, has been received by the University of Southern California admitted today.

Questioned as to reports that Southern California had protested the participation by Coo in the meet here Saturday between the two institutions, Wilson emphatically denied that his institution had taken any such action.

"We received certain information regarding the eligibility of Coo to compete in the meet here Saturday for their own action," Wilson said. "We have not made a protest."

Main Eventers Training Hard for Coming Battle

Two fighters, Phil Bayes and Sailor Willie Gordon, are now working out daily in their respective gymnasiums, waiting for the long that is expected to send them together in a 10 round bout before the biggest gathering of pugilistic fans ever scraped together in this city. Both fighters are at the best of condition, and working hard each day in preparation for one of the most important fights of their careers thus far, and each has his reasons to believe that he should win and will win.

Matchmaker Harry Plant for the Salem boxing commission, received a wire from Joe Waterman, Gordon's manager, stating that he was in Portland and that he and the young fighter had witnessed the Dixon vs. Burns fight Tuesday night. He also stated that they would remain in Portland until Wednesday when they would leave for Salem, Gordon will work the first three weeks, Claghorn will work the last three weeks, Claghorn is anxious to fight in this city again, and is willing to meet any one who the local matchmaker may select.

After the Claghorn mix, a bout will be arranged between the winner of the Gordon vs. Bayes fight and some other high class fighter. Thus local fight fans have several good fights to look forward to for the next two months. The fight season in this city will close about June 10, and will open again about the first of September.

this year and represent the state of Oregon. The tournament will be held in Seattle this week and will have six teams competing. The Salem team will leave for Seattle Friday afternoon and expect to arrive Saturday morning.

Men to make the trip are Lloyd Gregg, captain, N. Hillborn, Rev. Wright, C. Hill, Paul Acton, Rev. Ward, Dr. Barnick, E. Richey, B. Boise, Gleason, C. Lee, W. Nimeir, and Bob Boardman. They expect to return Sunday evening, and bring back the bacon.

The northwest tournament was won by the strong Portland team last year. The local ball tossers completely outclassed the same team this year to win the state title, which leads local volleyball fans to believe that the Cherrilians will make a strong bid for the cup this year.

HANDBALL TILTS DRAW ATTENTION

The handball tournament which is being held in the "Y" handball courts this week and next is drawing much interest. This tournament comes under class B which is composed of handball aspirants just learning the game and those who do not get a chance to play regularly. The matches will be played Friday night, and the consolation matches for the losers will start next week.

In this week's tilts, Don Young and N. Beaver defeated "Spec" Keene and C. Marsters 21 to 11 and 21 to 15 respectively and Jim Young and F. Lynch defeated Louie Anderson and C. Stanley 21 to 15 and 21 to 16.

It is expected that this tournament will develop some good new material, and promote more interest in the game among local athletes.

TUNNEY EXPECTS TO GO TO SPAIN

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 28.—(AP)—Gene Tunney, world heavyweight fight champion, probably will accept a royal invitation to Spain in 1929 and incidentally stage an exhibition bout for King Alfonso, he announced here today.

The champion said he planned to tour Europe next year and had tentatively accepted the Spanish king's invitation to appear at the Barcelona exposition in April 1929.

"I have notified Marquis de Foronda, president of the exposition that I hope to be in Europe in 1929 and attend the Barcelona exposition at the invitation of King Alfonso," he said. "If nothing interferes with my present plans I will be pleased to box an exhibition bout there."

INDOOR TRACK MEET TONIGHT

A second indoor track meet will be held in the YMCA gymnasium tonight, with the young men's division competing. The first one, held some time ago, aroused much interest, and it was decided by Bob Boardman, physical director at the "Y" to hold another meet. The meet will start promptly at 8 o'clock, with eight events in which to compete. A large turnout of members of the organization is expected. The following are the events:

1. Running broad jump.
2. Baseball throw.
3. Shot put.
4. Chest capacity.
5. Lift weight.
6. 20 yard dash.
7. 25 yard dash.
8. Spring board high jump.

CAMPBELL STOPS GEORGE TRENKLE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—(AP)—Frankie Campbell, 175, of San Francisco, stopped George Trenkle, 175 1/2, of Los Angeles, in the fifth round of their 10 round match at National hall here tonight.

Trenkle's manager threw the towel into the ring after his protégé had been knocked down twice in that round.

Lloyd Hahn, the lightning bolt from Boston, has already ordered his Olympic outfit for next summer, which will consist of perspiration surrounded by a cloud of dust.

LEE ECKER CHOSEN SHS HOOP CAPTAIN

The nine Salem high school basketball players who were awarded letters this season, were feted at the annual basketball banquet, held last night in the high school cafeteria. In addition to the players and their coach, Louie Anderson, the following were included: Ed Nash, president of the student body, who acted as toastmaster for the occasion; Phillip Bell, yell leader; Superintendent George W. Hug; Principal J. C. Nelson; Merritt Davis, treasurer of the A. S. B.; Ellis W. Huntington, former coach; Eugene Gill, assistant coach, and Adams, former Salem high athlete.

Lee Ecker was elected captain of next year's high school hoop team. The banquet was prepared and served by the girls of the cooking department, under the direction of Mrs. Gladys Jensen, home economics teachers. The members of the basketball squad present were Tom Duffy, captain of this year's team, Charles Kelley, Lee Ecker, Homer Lyons, George Beecher, Robert Kelley, Donald Stegman and Ivan Kafoury. Frank Shaffer was not present due to illness.

BRAVES BLANKED BY BROOKLYN 9

MIAMI, Fla., March 28.—(AP)—Darryl Vance and Jess Petty were in mid season form today and Brooklyn blanked the Boston Braves 9 to 0, the Redskins getting only two singles. Vance pitched four innings and gave up one hit. Petty finished and allowed the same number.

SHREVEPORT, La., March 28.—(AP)—Shreveport executed a triple play against the Chicago White Sox in the eighth inning of today's exhibition game but the Sox won, 11 to 6.

NEW ORLEANS, March 28.—(AP)—Cleveland's Indians made it five out of seven from New Orleans and seven out of eleven for the exhibition season to date by beating the Pelicans 4 to 3 today.

2 COAST HIKERS TIE IN MARATHON

SEVEN SPRINGS, N. M., March 28.—(AP)—Eddie Gardner of Seattle and Harry Ray of Long Beach, Cal., trotted the 39 miles of the 25th lap of the Los Angeles to New York marathon today in a dead heat. Both made the distance from Los Lunas in five hours 21 minutes and 30 seconds. Their elapsed time for the 592 miles from Los Angeles is: Gardner 171:35:01 and Rea 183:33:05.

Stanford Tennis Player Wins from Philadelphia

AUGUSTA, Ga., March 28.—(AP)—Johnny Doeg, Stanford university star, although he won in straight sets, was forced into extra games in both sets here today by Ray Coffin before he subdued the Philadelphia 10-8, 8-6, to advance to the quarter final round of the South Atlantic Tennis tournament.

SERVICES ATTRACT

PRE-EASTER EVANGELISTIC SERVICES AT JASON LEE

The special pre-Easter evangelistic services now in progress at the Jason Lee Memorial M. E. church, North Winter and Jefferson streets, are increasing in interest and attendance from night to night. In spite of the storms of rain the attendance is splendid, and a spirit of fine enthusiasm prevails.

Each meeting opens at 7:30 with a rousing song rally led by Mr. Traxel, the choir director. A fine feature of the services is the number of city ministers who are cooperating. On Monday night Rev. S. Darlow Johnson of Leslie church was present, and brought a fine message.

Last night Dr. Fred C. Taylor of the First M. E. church, proved his ability not only as the pastor of a great church, but as an evangelist of outstanding ability. All present were stirred deeply by his challenge to the church to rise to her great responsibility and opportunity today.

Another great service is expected tonight when Dr. Leech, district superintendent will be present, and will preach. He always feels at home in evangelistic services and will have a great message. The services are open to the public, and many are coming. A fine spirit of friendliness and fellowship prevails.

TWO YOUTHS WILL APPEAR FOR CLASS

Members of the senior class at the Salem high school believe a one-vote margin is not sufficient to decide such an important matter as which of two boys will be the class' choice to participate in the commencement program.

Accordingly, Jack Routh, who was elected by one vote last Monday, and Mito Ross, who fell one vote short of receiving the honor, will both appear for the class.

Tuesday after school J. C. Nelson, principal, was accosted by several students who declared the vote too close to represent the feeling of the class. The principal had thought so ever since the ballots were counted, so it was agreed if a petition were signed by 50 seniors to have both boys on the program, it would be brought about.

Yesterday evening a petition with 75 names affixed thereto was handed to the principal.

It is probable Routh will give the farewell speech for the class and Ross will talk upon some appropriate topic, although final plans are in the hands of Ralph Bailey, who will coach them in their speeches. Bailey, debate coach, is already well familiar with any "polishing" the boys will need, having handled them both as members of the two debating teams.

MANDAMUS ARGUED
The state supreme court Wednesday heard arguments on attorney in mandamus proceedings filed by Mrs. Clara M. Roy of Portland, to compel Joseph H. Beveridge, Multnomah county clerk, to reopen the registration books which were closed there on March 9.

The registration books were closed by the county clerk under a state law which provides that registration of voters shall be suspended 30 days prior to an election. A special election will be held in Portland April 9 to pass on the proposed merger of the properties of the Portland Electric company and the Northwestern Electric company.

Attorneys indicated that the suit was brought primarily to keep the registration books open until 30 days prior to the primary election, and that the merger merely was incidental to the proceeding.

It was contended that in case the registration books remain closed until after the special election a large number of voters would be deprived of the privilege of registering for the primary election.

Although not a direct party to the mandamus proceeding, the Portland Electric company and the Northwestern Electric company were represented by attorneys.
