APRIL
April cold with dropping rain
Willows and lilacs bring again,
The whistle of returning birds
And trumpet-loving of the herds;
The scarlet maple-keys betray
What potent blood hath modest May;
What fiery force the earth renews,
The wealth of forms, the flush of hues,
What joy in rosy waves outpoured,
Flows from the heart of love, the Lord.

Past President of Rebekah Assembly of Oregon Makes Official Visit
On Monday evening, March 26, Salem Rebekah Lodge, No. 1, entertained Mrs. Etta I. Sanderson of Freewater, president; Mrs. Halle Ingie of Albany, Warden; Mrs. Leona Thiel of Astoria, marshal; and Miss Ethel Fletcher of Salem, past president, all of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, and also Mr. Fred Mendel, of Portland, deputy grand master of the Grand lodge of Oregon.
Visitors from the lodges in several surrounding towns were present at the regular meeting which was held in the I. O. O. F. temple in Salem. Mrs. Sanderson made her official inspection at that time.
The "Degree Staff" of 35 members, under the direction of Captain Irene St. Helen, exemplified the ritual in a splendid manner. Mrs. Sanderson gave an interesting talk and assembly officers responded with short talks on "Rebekah Odd Fellowship."
Mr. Mendel told of some of the work which is being done in the state by the members of the grand lodge.
Mrs. O. A. Noyes read an original poem after which she presented Mrs. Sanderson with a silver and crystal gift from the lodge.
At the close of the program, a banquet was served in the dining room. Mrs. Grace Webber was chairman of the committee in charge.
Wednesday, Mrs. Sanderson and Mrs. Thiel met with Orpha Rebekah lodge of Portland, on Thursday afternoon, they were present at a joint meeting of the Gervais and Woodburn lodges and on Thursday evening, they inspected the Silverton and Scotts Mills assemblies. Mrs. Sanderson will return home for a short visit before beginning her last visits of the year which will include inspection of the assemblies in the southern part of the state.
While in the valley, Mrs. Sanderson and Mrs. Thiel were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henderson at Chamawa. Mr. Henderson is the Grand Representative of Oregon.
