

SUPERIOR ENGLISH GROUP GIVE PLAYS

Students Will Conduct Classes While Teacher Attends Convention

The superior English group, composed of the outstanding senior English students at the high school, presented the last two of a group of four plays before an assembly of the senior class Monday morning.

One production, "Doctor Cure-All," is well known in Salem, having been presented here on numerous occasions. Muriel White adapted the play for the class, showing those taking part being: the doctor, Francis Gamble; office girl, Dorothy Gutekunst; patients, Irene Blackerby, Muriel White, Ellen Jean Moody, Lila Cation, Thelma LaDuke, Annabel Tooze, Lena Widick and Minnie Hese-man.

F. R. Buckley's 1922 prize story "Gold Mounted Guns," was the other skit introduced, adaptation for the senior's use being made by Floyd Albin and Annabel Tooze. Jack Routh, Milo Ross, Mamie Hillmon and Isabel Childs were the characters.

Shorter numbers to complete an hour's program were given by the following: Dorothy Gutekunst, piano solo; Mamie Hillmon, reading; Floyd Albin, Francis Gamble, Harriet Adams and Eloise White, impromptu quartet.

Mrs. Ellen A. Fisher is instructor of this superior English group, as well as other English classes at the high school. During Mrs. Fisher's absence this week while attending the Inland Empire meeting in Spokane, her classes will be cared for by the superior students.

ROAST PIG INSPIRES SUBJECT FOR OPERA

Announcement Concerning Latest Work of Lady Holmes, London

LONDON, April 2.—(AP)—Roast pig is the inspiration and subject for the latest opera, the work of Lady Holmes, wife of Sir Charles Holmes, director of the National Gallery.

In the music one can hear the pig becoming roast pork. The crackling of the flames, the sizzling of the roasting meat, even the drip of the gravy, all are depicted by string instruments.

The opera is based on Charles Lamb's essay which tells how the human race first learned there was such a thing as roast pig, when Bobo accidentally set fire to his father's house, and burned the pig inside it. In trying to pick up the burned pig he scorched his fingers, and putting them into his mouth, found the taste of the pig delicious. Thereafter for a long time, whenever the people of Bobo's country wanted roast pig they burned down their houses.

It is ironic that Lamb's essay should have furnished the subject for a musical composition, since Lamb detested music, and said that no intelligent person could like it.

Only string instruments are employed by Lady Holmes to produce her effects. London critics suggest that the mouths of wind instrument players might water over the idea of roast pork and render them unable to play.

GOVERNMENT GIVEN CONTROL OF ISLAND

Ruling Made Yesterday By Federal Judge Bean At Portland

PORTLAND, Ore., April 2.—(AP)—The government has full control and ownership of San Is-land at the mouth of the Columbia river opposite Fort Stevens.

This was the decision handed down today by Federal Judge Bean giving the government the right to regulate and issue permits for the fishing rights of the island, not only of the highland, but also of the tide land.

The decision was entered in the case brought by the government against the Columbia River Packers' association and the state land board to establish the right of the government to control the island and the lack of authority on the part of the state to issue a fishing license to the Columbia River Packers' association for the use of the island.

The position of the defendants was based upon the fact that after the island had been ceded by the state to the government in 1864, congress had never expressly or by implication accepted the grant nor recognized it, therefore it was not effective.

Previous litigation had established that the island was in the state of Oregon. In 1925 after the Columbia River Packers' association had lost the fishing rights on the island through a higher bid being made and approved by the government for a period of five years, the association secured from the state a permit to occupy the tide lands for fishing operations.

The fact that fishing rights have been leased by the secretary of war since 1905 was considered by the court as sufficient implication of the government's recognition and acceptance of the grant by the state and a sufficient ground for holding that dominion was being exercised by the government. The grant, the court held, was for the entire island, including the tide land.

TRIAL FLIGHT MADE

AIRPLANE BREMEN PREPARED FOR OCEAN HOP

DUBLIN, April 2.—(AP)—The German plane Bremen made a trial flight at Baldonnel air-drome this afternoon with Colonel James Fitzmaurice, head of the Irish Free State air force, as assistant pilot.

While Colonel Fitzmaurice and Baldonnel authorities deny that he will replace Arthur Spindler as co-pilot with Captain Hermann Koehl on the Bremen's trans-Atlantic flight, the nature of today's trial, coupled with the departure of Spindler from Dublin, strengthened a belief that there has been a hitch in the plans of Baron Von Huenefeld, sponsor of the project. Baron Von Huenefeld was a passenger today in the monoplane, while Captain Koehl and Colonel Fitzmaurice handled the machine's dual controls. The expedition continues to await favorable weather.

Coast Guard Cutter Heads North Along Coast Last Night

EUREKA, Cal., April 2.—(AP)—The U. S. coast guard cutter Cahokia passed the Cape Blanco bar at 7:30 tonight bound north to assist the steamer Jane Nettleton, reported in distress near Cape Blanco, Oregon. The cutter was delayed more than six hours because of the high seas breaking over the bar.

Consolidation To Make British Grocery Trust

LONDON, England.—(AP)—Plans are under way for the formation of a great British grocery trust through the consolidation of six firms which have chain grocery stores throughout the British Isles. This consolidation is looked upon as the beginning of a new era between the trust stores and co-operative societies. It is estimated that the proposed trust will effect such a reduction of overhead charges that the stores of this organization will be able to reduce prices below those of co-operative societies, even after a allowance has been made for the operative dividend to purchasers

What a Gem! One Cent Sale Is

It is a sale where you buy an item at the regular price, then another item of the same kind for one cent. As an illustration: The standard price of Klenzo Dental Creme is 50c, you buy a tube at this price and by paying 1 cent more, or 51 cents, you get two tubes. Every article in this sale is a high class standard piece of merchandise, just the same as is sold every day at the regular price.

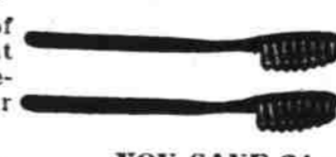

This sale was developed by the United Drug Co. as an advertising plan. Rather than spend large sums of money in other ways to convince you of the merit of these goods, they are spending it on this sale in permitting us to sell you a full size package of high grade standard merchandise for 1 cent. It costs money to get new customers, but the sacrifice in profit is justified, knowing that the goods will please you.
