

STOCK STILL SOARS UPON WALL STREET

Frenzied Day Put In Yesterday On Exchange; Airplane Stock Up

NEW YORK, Apr. 3.—(AP)—Wall street's celebration over the resumption of the "bull" market on the New York stock exchange today, which was featured by the creation of new altitude records by the airplane stocks, was suddenly cut short after the close by the announcement of an unexpected increase of $317,595.258 in stock exchange member loans, bringing the total to a new high record of $4,640,174,172 on March 31.

Wright Aeronautical corporation's common stock was the sensational feature in today's market, soaring $32 a share to a new high record at $132, as against a low of $69 earlier in the year. Wall street had several theories to explain the rise, including the existence of a "technical corner," open market buying for control and a widespread public demand based on the reported receipt of new government contracts.

Curtiss Aeroplane was not far behind, climbing more than $25 a share to a new top at $92 but slipping back to $85 on profit taking.

Packard Motors, which is also engaged in the manufacture of airplane engines, was marked up more than $5 a share to a new high record at $72.50.

Radio and General Motors, which have divided leadership of the market since the present "boom" started more than a month ago, were shunted into the background today although both scored moderate gains. Radio closed $3 a share higher at $190 after touching $195.75 and General Motors showed a net gain of $1.75 at $185 after having sold as high as $187.

BEATINGS, STABBING IN CITY'S ELECTION

Cicero, Illinois, Steps Into Limelight As People Go To Polls

CICERO, Ill., Apr. 3.—(AP)—In an election marked by numerous beatings and stabblings of democratic poll workers by reputed Al Capone gangsters, Joseph Z. Klebba, republican president of the village was swept back into office today by a two to one vote. Out of 25,000 registered voters, 20,000 cast their ballots.

Throughout the day, reports went to police headquarters that gangsters, touring the three and one-half square miles of the town were intimidating voters and attacking democratic workers. At least a half dozen sluggings were reported outside of polling places while two other victims reported having been attacked after gaining consciousness from blows on the head. One unverified report of a slaying gained circulation.

Among the victims were Al Mazzitelli, clubbed senseless; William Pradrowski, also clubbed unconscious; Adam Slepny, stabbed and beaten; Gottlieb Waldvogel, clubbed unconscious; and George Ziezerer, beaten unconscious while seated in his automobile.

The Cicero police force of 56 men augmented by nearly 100 highway policemen and deputy sheriffs, patrolled the town during the election. They reported no signs of violence.

If Kidneys Act Bad Take Salts

Says Backache Often Means You Have Not Been Drinking Enough Water

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating foods which create acids, says a well-known authority. An excess of such acids overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and sluggish. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water swells and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the system, so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink. Drink lots of soft water.

PRACTICES HIS OWN PSYCHOLOGY

Practicing what he preaches, Dr. Henry Knight Miller, New York psychologist, is attempting to rear his two children, Virginia, 12, and Henry, Jr., according to the tenets of psychology. He declares "hundreds of thousands of parents are unwittingly committing psychic murder on their children and implanting in them the dreaded inferiority complex." He maintains strict discipline by "reason and justice." Above, the two children, and, below, Dr. Miller.

REFUGEES ARRIVE FROM QUAKE AREA

Harrowing Tales Brought To Constantinople from Smyrna Section

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 3.—(AP)—Refugees from the stricken city of Smyrna where at least 10 persons lost their lives in a devastating earthquake on Saturday, have begun to arrive in Constantinople bringing harrowing tales of panic and suffering.

The first boat to quit the shattered city arrived at Constantinople today with several hundred refugees including a number of orphaned children. Moustapha Bey, captain of the boat, was an eye-witness of the earthquake horror.

On the night of the 31st all of the people of Smyrna were calmly sleeping when suddenly a thunderous roar filled the city, followed by a terrific quake," he said. "The whole population rushed from the swaying brittle wooden houses into the graving dawn of the streets, their night gowns and bare feet making a ghostly effect."

"Many of these poor souls had lived through the horror of the 1922 fire. For two night and days they wandered on the outskirts of the city sleepless, foodless and unaided. It was pathetic to see the older Turkish women trying to veil their faces with the corners of their night gowns."

"Sunday when I left the city was regaining its calm despite continuing slight quakes and the people were returning to their homes to try to repair the chaos. Ninety per cent of all the buildings must have been damaged."

The American schools in Smyrna report that all students and staffs are safe but that their buildings were slightly damaged.

MURDER TALE "ALL ROT"

Story About Head of Ku Klux Klan Denied By Prisoner

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., Apr. 3.—(AP)—Philip Fox, serving a life sentence in the state prison farm here for the murder of W. S. Coburn in 1923, denied last night that the slaying was instigated by H. W. Evans, imperial wizard of the Ku Klux Klan.

"It's all rot," he said when told of the deposition of D. C. Stephenson, former grand dragon of Indiana. "There is not a word of truth in the accusation and I can't understand why Stephenson would make such a statement. In the course of business while I was employed at the imperial palace I met Stephenson but so far as I can remember we never passed more than a dozen words. This much is certain, there is absolutely no foundation for the charge that Evans had anything to do with the shooting of Coburn."

RIVER WATERS RECEDING

South Saskatchewan District Rapidly Improving

SASKATOON, Sask., April 3.—(AP)—The situation in the Pike Lake valley which was flooded by the South Saskatchewan river last week, is steadily improving and as the waters recede the settlers are moving back to their homes. The extent of damage has not been estimated. A number of farmers were moving back today although some will not be able to return for some days.

The river rose two feet south of Pike Lake again last night, but although the big ice jam at Gledhow, 40 miles above Saskatoon, remained unbroken no further damage was anticipated. The water was able to get by under the ice which stretched along the river for 12 miles. The other jam 19 miles from Saskatoon, where the ice was caught on the point of an island, also caused no trouble. Meanwhile the ice from both jams was being carried away in small portions by the stream.

IDENTIFICATION LACKING

Nobody Knows Name of Man Who Presented Self to Police

PORTLAND, Ore., Apr. 3.—(AP)—Unable to gain any clue to the identity of a man about 35, who is on their hands as a victim of amnesia, police today invoked the aid of an optician, who examined the man's glasses, and furnished a detailed description.

Check by opticians and optometrists of their records might furnish an indication, said Dr. Arthur W. Sundrop, who gave the victim this description: "Right eye 14.35x9.0; left eye 15.0x3.50x9.0."

The glasses, fitted about two years ago, are flat compounds 38 by 42 feet lenses, rim of shell, dark cable frame-brige rims.

The victim sits quietly at the police station, smoking while scores of persons visit him in an attempt to aid in identifying him.

He has been at the station since Sunday when he appeared and told officers that he had lost his memory and did not know his own name.

Morgan was badly battered about the head, his left eye being cut and badly swollen. His lower lip also was cut.

doubt that congress will go through with the flood measure which was speeded through the senate in less than two hours last week.

Unconvinced by the gloomy tale of Secretary Mellon, however, Senator Simmons of North Carolina, leader of the democratic minority in revenue warfare, sharply questioned Under-Secretary Ogden Mills who presented the treasury outlook to the committee with Mr. Mellon.

A surplus of $400,000,000 is in sight for this fiscal year, ending June 30, Secretary Mellon reported, but for next year which must be used as the basis for a tax cut, he declared only a margin of $212,000,000 was in prospect.

PROJEST MADE IN OIL SCANDAL 6 YEARS AGO

Wyoming naval oil reserve months before the lease was granted, but had been given to understand by Fall as well as by Edwin Denby, then secretary of the navy, and Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., then assistant secretary of the navy, that there was no intention of making a lease. The protest to Harding and some of his official family were telegraphed from Texas after Helms had read in the newspapers that a lease had been made.

He said he then sent word to President Harding asking for an interview on April 25 or 26, but that an engagement could not be made for either day because on the first there was a cabinet meeting and on the second the chief executive was to leave for Ohio.

Hoover Made Protest Weeks replied that no doubt the president would see Helms adding for himself: "For good reasons I

Difficulties Encountered

SEATTLE, April 3.—(AP)—That the cutter Haida was having difficulty in towing the disabled schooner Helen B. Sterling into the strait of Juan de Fuca, was indicated in a message received by coast guard headquarters here today.

The Haida reported that it was practically hove to in a heavy northwesterly wind off Destruction Island, 40 miles south of Cape Flattery. The Sterling was unable to steer, the message said because of its disabled condition and the rough weather.

The Haida has been battling one of the greatest storms, her officers and men ever have experienced, Captain John G. Berry, commander of the northern division of the United States coast guard, said. Last night while the Haida and the Sterling were off Grays Harbor the cutter's heavy

Search Begun

SEATTLE, Apr. 3.—(AP)—Two United States coast guard vessels, the Cahokia, stationed at Eureka, Cal., and the Snohomish, whose base is at Port Angeles, Wash., were today ordered to be on the lookout for the fishing boat Gowan which left San Pedro for Seattle last Friday, with seven or eight men aboard.

Buchana and Heinan Packing company of Seattle, owners of the vessel, said the Gowan had not reported since it left San Pedro although two other boats which left at the same time had reached San Francisco.

The Gowan was expected to reach Seattle about Thursday of this week and should be off the northern coast of California or off the Oregon shores unless it had met with a mishap.
