SEVENTY-EIGHTH YEAR

SALEM, OREGON, THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 5, 1928

PRICE FIVE CENTS

MAYOR AGREES TO RUN AGAIN; PETITIONS OUT

Reluctance Overcome To Extent That He Will Permit Name On Ballot

HULL OUT FOR RECORDER

Veteran of Philippine Service Points to Interest in Young People as Mark of Qualification For Office

Despite his expressed reluctance to accept the duties of mayor for another two year term, T. A. Livesley, executive head of the Salem city government for the last 15 months, Wednesday consented to have his name placed on the ballot for reelection. Friends who thereupon circulated his petition announced that they were filled within a few hours. No opponent for Mr. Livesley has yet appeared.

A peculiar circumstance in connection with Mr. Livesley's candidacy is the fact that he is the principal champion of the charter revision measure which may go on the ballot at the May election, a measure which would do away with the mayorality as at present constituted. Under the proposed charter, the council of five members would elect one of its number mayor.

Hull Out For Recorder
City politics took a more lively aspect Wednesday when O. J. Hull, 441 North High street, formerly in the retail paint business and a resident of Salem since 1928, filed his declaration as a candidate for the office of city recorder, opposing Mark Poulsen, the incumbent, who has already filed.

Mr. Hull promises that if elected he will strive energetically to protect the youth of Salem by enforcing laws for their protection, pointing out that he has already demonstrated his interest in the welfare of young people through his work as a Boy Scout leader and as assistant director of the Salem Boys' chorus.

Philippine Veteran
In conducting the municipal employment bureau, Mr. Hull promises if elected to "give Salem jobs to Salem men, preferably war veterans with families to support." His slogan on the ballot will be:

"Courteous and fair treatment to all; enforce laws; protect Salem's youth."

Mr. Hull came to Salem in the spring of 1928. He enlisted in Company K of the Second Oregon.

County Court Orders Surveys in Several Districts

The Marion county court yesterday took action of one kind or another on 11 road petitions.

Five were resolutions of the court itself for relocation of marked roads numbered as follows: 44, Pratum-Willard; 50, North Howell-Lake Labish; 51, Gervais-Silmon church, via Parkersville; 53, Livesley-Halls Ferry; 45, Silvertown-Hadley's ranch.

Action on the petition of Alice Harris and others for a road in district 23, near Sublimity, was postponed for proof of notice.

Survey was ordered of the road in district 17, near Brooks, as petitioned for by Howard Ramp and others.

NOTED EDITOR LECTURES

William Webster Ellsworth at Waller Hall Again Tonight

Dr. William Webster Ellsworth, well-known author and editor spoke to an appreciative audience at Waller hall Thursday evening. His topic was the "Age of Queen Anne," and was illustrated with colored slides, representing authors, coffee houses, residences, extracts and pictures from well known books, such as "Gulliver's Travels" and "Robinson Crusoe." Many of these prints are quite rare, containing the writing of great literary men such as Swift, Addison, Steele, Pope, and others.

Of special interest was the first edition of the "Spectator" put out on March 1, 1711.

In comparing the modern and past literature, Dr. Ellsworth likened the new to a spider that gives out of itself, while the old was like a bee that obtains material from nature giving out sweetness and light.

Dr. Ellsworth will speak again tonight at Waller hall on "Shakespeare and Old London."

10 Feet of Film Taken At Chicago Reproduced In N. Y. By Telephoto

WIDE APPLICATION SEEN

Broadway Theater Patrons View Picture of Actress Alighting From Train That Morning in Middle West

NEW YORK, Apr.—(AP)—The realm of spot news was opened to the movies today with the first demonstration of transmitting moving pictures over regular telephone wires.

Ten feet of film, taken this morning in Chicago was put on the wires in that city, and received at the New York office of the American Telephone and Telegraph company. It was explained that the same picture could have been received simultaneously with New York by six other telephoto offices of the company, situated in Boston, Cleveland, Atlanta, St. Louis, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

The pictures were transmitted at the rate of seven minutes for each foot and half of film, the 10 foot strip with some intermission between pieces, being sent in something less than two hours.

Commercial application of the telephoto movies was expected to affect chiefly the news reel companies which in the past have had to depend on airplanes and trains for distribution of their pictures.

The cost of the new service will be approximately $50 a foot of film sent from any one of the eight telephoto offices to all the other seven.

Today's film, a close up shot of a movie actress taken as she alighted from a train in Chicago, was taken at New York, and demonstrated the practical application of the process, the negative was developed and given a private showing in a Broadway theater.

DAM QUIZ REPORT MADE

Poor Judgment Laid to Builders Who Put Up Structure

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Apr. 4.—(AP)—An error in human judgment today was set before a coroner's inquest here as the probable cause of the St. Francis dam disaster.

Though not attempting to fix responsibility for the deaths of more than 400 persons in the flood that swept through the broken dam, a body of engineers delegated by the district attorney to investigate the catastrophe, put it as their belief that a sufficiently thorough examination of the geological formations in San Francisco canyon had not been made.

The dam, according to the engineers, was built on rock formation which softened with saturation and consequently was unsuited to carry the enormous load of the 185 foot retaining wall.

CHAUNCEY DEPEW DIES, NEW YORK

VICE PRESIDENT OF NEW YORK CENTRAL PASSES

Prominent Figure in National Politics for Many Years Called by Death

NEW YORK, Apr. 5.—(AP)—Chauncey M. Depew, chairman of the New York Central railroad, former senator and noted wit, died at 4:20 a. m. today.

NEW YORK, Apr. 4.—(AP)—Chauncey M. Depew, chairman of the board of directors of the New York Central railroad, has developed bronchial pneumonia, his physicians said tonight in a bulletin issued through the offices of the Michigan Central railroad. The bulletin which was signed by Dr. Samuel W. Lambert and H. Lyman Hooker said the condition of the aged railroad official was "not immediately alarming."

Earlier in the day physicians attending the 93 year old railroad executive who has been suffering from a cold since his return from the south, said the patient was resting comfortably after a good night.

Mr. Depew suffered a slight chill while returning from St. Petersburg, Fla., last week and a rise in his temperature last Monday caused his personal physician, Dr. Hooker, to call in medical consultants. His physicians said he was suffering from a bronchial cold and that his condition gave no cause for alarm.

Mr. Depew, still active as head of the New York Central's board of directors, had planned to attend the republican national convention in Kansas City next June. He missed the Cleveland convention in 1924, the first one he had failed to attend since 1888.

STATE DEFICIT LARGER

But Will Be Reduced When First Half Taxes Arrive Soon

The general fund deficit of the state, on March 31, 1928, aggregated $263,624.83, according to a financial statement prepared Wednesday by Thomas B. Kay, state treasurer. He said this deficit probably would be wiped out within the next 30 days when the first half taxes for this year will begin to arrive at the treasury department.

During the past few days the state treasurer has deposited with the state's fiscal agency in New York City a total of $2,208,040.81 with which to pay $812,500 in principal and $790,559.56 in interest due April 1, 1928, on state highway bonds, and to pay $604,981.26 interest on $28,500,000 of Oregon veterans state aid bonds.

The retirement of $812,500 of highway bonds reduces the highway bonded debt of the state from $34,466,750 to $33,654,250. The next installment of maturing highway bonds will be in the amounts of $100,000 on August 1, 1928, and $837,500 on October 1, 1928. Oregon veterans state aid bonds in the amount of $500,000 will mature and be paid July 1, 1928.

AFRICA WITHOUT SLAVES—ALMOST

JUST AS U. S. IS WITHOUT LIQUOR, SAYS BISHOP

Interest of Rotarians In Far Away Land Keeps Church Official Busy

No speaker in recent months has caused the Salem Rotary club members to "sit up and take notice" quite so thoroughly as did Bishop E. B. Johnson of Cape Town, South Africa, who addressed them Wednesday noon. The bishop stopped his discourse promptly at 1 o'clock, but he was kept on his feet for 20 minutes more, answering the questions about Africa that were fired at him from all directions.

"There is no slavery in Africa now," said the bishop, "just as there is no liquor in Oregon."

Modestly admitting that when he first entered Africa he walked 800 miles through country never before visited by a missionary the bishop added that he was at one time surrounded by savages armed to the teeth, and that they counselled for a long time about what to do with him; but they desisted quietly after a time, and the bishop thinks it was due to two things: he was unarmed, and he kept smiling.

Conditions are much different now, partly due to missionaries work and partly to the exploitation of the country's mineral and other resources; but the human problem is as great as then, the bishop went on to say.

Territory controlled by Great Britain is for the most part well ruled, but throughout Africa a "fear complex" seems to dominate the Europeans, to the extent that the "color line" is drawn in many ways. As an extreme example, he mentioned seeing a black man who was highly educated and a teacher, beaten over the head with an umbrella by an Englishwoman because he did not stop his bicycle quickly enough. Negroes are required in some localities to walk in the street, not on the sidewalk, and to stop and salute all white people.

The negroes are thoroughly trustworthy after their confidence has been gained, and they are pitifully eager to learn of the Christian religion, the bishop said. He personally travels from 10,000 to 20,000 miles each year through his territory in the cape vicinity.

Bishop Johnson, who is in Salem to visit his son, Rev. S. Darlow Johnson, was introduced by F. G. Deckebach.

DELIVERY CARS CRASH

Both Drivers Narrowly Escape Serious Injury In Collision

An accident which could have resulted in serious injury to R. H. Wolter, driver for the Eagles damp wash laundry, occurred last night when his truck crashed into another delivery car operated by Arthur Duval at Fifth and Highland streets. Duval catapulted out of his machine and found himself resting peacefully on the curb of Fifth street. Both vehicles were badly damaged and had to be towed to a garage.

Injury, only a few minor cuts and bruises.

It was reported by witnesses that Duval was driving south on Fifth street was on the wrong side of the street and evidently did not see the other machine until it was too late.

HOOVER DRIVE GAINS IMPETUS LEADER PICKED

James W. Good Now Unofficial Manager of Nomination Campaign

"SIMPLY A VOLUNTEER"

Iowa Man Insists His Authority Merely of Informal Nature, But Many Powers Given Despite Claims

WASHINGTON, Apr. 4.—(AP)—As a step toward coordinating the Hoover-For-President movement, former Representative James W. Good of Iowa has joined the group of republicans who are directing the campaign of the commerce secretary. He plans to spend most of his time in Washington until the Kansas City convention.

In a statement today, Good, who at one time was chairman of the house appropriations committee and in 1924 assisted in the management of the Coolidge pre-convention campaign, said he was in no sense to be a manager for Mr. Hoover. It is understood, however, that he will have many of the powers of a manager, although the direction of the cabinet officer's campaign probably will be left largely in the hands of a group of Hoover's supporters.

Just a Volunteer

"I am simply a volunteer with others in an effort to aid the republicans of the nation to nominate a man for president whom a great majority favor," Good explained in his statement. "There are, and I believe there will be no headquarters. We who are his friends realize that Mr. Hoover cannot and should not be drawn actively into the campaign. He is fully occupied with his duties as secretary of commerce."

Calling attention that Mr. Hoover was born and spent his boyhood in the Iowa district which he once represented in congress, Mr. Good said that "if we had set out 25 years ago to prepare a man for the presidency, we would have taken the course that has so well prepared Herbert Hoover."

Coolidge Policies Lauded

"I believe in a continuation of the Coolidge policies and no man knows these policies better or has had a larger share in making them effective than has the secretary of commerce," Good declared. "His nomination will insure the continuation of those policies. He is like Coolidge, short on words and long on work and big in accomplishment."

He said there were thousands of republican volunteers all over the country who are working for Mr. Hoover's nomination, and added:

"They have effectively organized themselves in most of the states under able young leadership. The spontaneity of this movement necessitates no formal organization. It is desirable, however, that this vast and widespread expression of confidence could have more coordination. I have been requested by Mr. Hoover and a number of state leaders, together with his friends in and outside of congress, to join with them to do what I can to further these efforts."

SALEM RESIDENT DROWNS AT SEA

LINN WESTABY AND COMPANION MEET DEATH IN GALE

Two Succumb Within 100 Feet of Shore Near Tillamook After Leaving Boat

TILLAMOOK, Ore., Apr. 4.—(AP)—Not more than 100 feet from shore and safety, two men released their hold on their capsize boat, attempted to swim ashore and were drowned in the storm tossed waters of Tillamook bay, off Garibaldi yesterday.

The two men, Wayne Wantler, 21, and Linn Westaby, 24, were millworkers employed at Garibaldi. Wantler lived in that town, and Westaby's home was believed to be in Salem.

The boat upset off Rocky point. The two men hung on, in sight of those on shore, until the skiff drifted to within 100 feet of land. They let go and tried to swim to shore.

The coast guard at Tillamook bay tonight had been unsuccessful in attempts to recover the bodies.

OREGON'S BANKS SHOW STRENGTH

LOANS AND DISCOUNTS REDUCED, MORE BONDS

Deposits Temporarily Reduced, Seasonal Condition, Schramm Explains

Banking conditions in the state of Oregon have shown marked improvement in the past year, according to a statement issued here Wednesday by A. A. Schramm, state superintendent of banks.

The statement showed that the Oregon banks, both state and national, had total deposits of $292,175,336.99 at the close of business February 28, which was the date of the last call made by the state banking department. The figures showed a decrease of approximately $14,000,000 when compared with the figures for December 31, 1927.

"In comparing the figures of this latest report with the report of March 23, 1927," read the statement, "we find that a marked improvement has been effected in the general conditions of the banks during the year."

"The reduction in loans and discounts which was started eight years ago and which has been continued with a reasonable degree of regularity during the succeeding years amounts to $13,405,713.91. A year ago the total was $164,639,912.37, while it now stands at $151,234,198.46."

"In the item of loans and discounts are included loans on personal notes, loans secured by collateral, chattel mortgages or real estate mortgages."

"Other investments, represented by holdings of bonds, stocks, and other securities, have been increased more than $22,000,000, the total at this time being $114,127,699.37, nearly half of which is made up of bonds and other obligations of the United States government, and the balance largely of bonds and warrants issued by counties, cities, towns and school districts."

"The increase over the figures of the report of December 31, 1927, of $800,000 in bank borrowings is to be expected at this time of the year, but the total of $22,449,913 owed by banks at this time is only slightly over half the total indebtedness of $41,114,967.04 reported a year ago."

"Deposits have increased about $8,000,000 during the year, all of which increase having been made in savings and time deposits. The increase in total resources for the year was $3,377,628.26."

MOUNTAIN QUINT LEADS
Kentucky Basketball Team Out in Front at Tournament

CHICAGO, April 4.—(AP)—Five mountaineer basketball players from the hamlet of Carr Creek, Ky., tonight placed themselves in the running for the national interscholastic basketball champion ship by defeating the giant Austin, Texas, team, 25 to 18, in the second round of the University of Chicago's tournament. All players in the Kentucky team are related.

Led by Shelby Stamper's steady floor work and dead eye for the basket, the Kentuckians showed perfect coordination in working the ball through the cowboy's highly touted defense.

The ranky Texas champions had previously been favorites to place high in the tournament.

After questioning the man it was found that he was on parole from the state penitentiary.

ADD TO CHAMPOEG PARK

20 Acres Acquired by State Board of Control, Announced

The state board of control Wednesday obtained deeds to approximately 20 acres of land which will be made a part of Champoege Park. Funds with which to purchase the additional land was advanced by Governor Patterson, State Treasurer Ray and the Ladd & Bush bank of this city.

The legislature, at its next session, will be requested to authorize an appropriation covering the amount of money advanced for the purchase of the lands.

The additional land was required because of the inadequate parking facilities at Champoege Park.

BITTER SENATE FIGHT APPEARS OVER TAXATION

Bourbons Demand Reduction Amounting To At Least $300,000,000

REPUBLICANS STAND PAT

Two Hundred Million Dollar Slash Declared Greatest Practicable; Democrats Seek Further Support

WASHINGTON, April 4.—(AP) The republican majority of the senate finance committee lined up solidly behind Secretary Mellon's $200,000,000 tax reduction program in the first skirmish on the revenue bill today but the democrats of the committee in a meeting later decided to fight for a $300,000,000 slash as a minimum.

After voting unanimously to report a tax reduction bill of some nature, the committee agreed to the proposal of Secretary Mellon to cut the 13 1/2 per cent corporation tax only to 12 per cent, rather than 11 1/2 per cent as voted by the house.

Democrats opposed this and asked for an 11 per cent rate and then an 11 per cent figure but both proposals were rejected on strict party division, 11 to 9, with republicans voting solidly against both.

Bourbons Have Big Ideas
Under the $300,000,000 program agreed to at the majority conference late today, the democrats of the committee would cut the 11 per cent automobile levy, raise the rates on intermediate surtaxes, and increase the exemptions on the admission tax.

The association strongly opposes repeal of the automobile tax which was voted to repeal the Secretary Mellon insisting this is demanded largely by the manufacturers. The democrats also demanded to ask for brief hearings by the committee in order to permit the automobile makers to repeat their case and to give the chamber of commerce of the United States an opportunity to answer Mr. Mellon.

Bitter Row Certain
The democratic position assumes a warm fight on the revenue measure. They are out-voted 11 to 9 in committees and republicans are expected to stand behind the treasury there. A floor fight is now certain, and how many votes the democrats can pick up there is problematical. A slight shifting of republicans would give Senator Simmons of North Carolina, leader of the democratic minority, a majority but republican independents

DEBATING STARS COMING FRIDAY

SOUTHWESTERN U. TEAM TO MEET WILLAMETTE

Visitors on Way East for National Contest; Bring Envyable Reputation

Tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the chapel at Waller hall, Charles Redding and Robert Witty, Willamette debate team will meet the strong southwestern debate team of Los Angeles, in what is expected to be one of the best debates this season. The southern debaters are rated as being one of the strongest teams in the country having already defeated some of the largest colleges on the Pacific coast. They are now on way to the west where they will enter the national competition.

The question to be debated is "Resolved that the American investors and investments should be protected only by governments of the nations in which the investments are made." The Willamette team will be forced to take the affirmative side as the Los Angeles team has never debated the negative side. This sudden change gives the Bears only two days in which to prepare for the contest, as they have just returned from a trip in California and have scarcely ever debated the negative side.

The southern institution is a law school, having an enrollment of about 1200 students. They specialize in debating, and therefore have never failed to turn out anything but a winning team.

It will be a decision debate, with three judges from the various state institutions officiating. The debate will be open to the public, who will be admitted free of charge.

On Friday night, April 13, the Willamette women's debate team will meet the Pacific university debaters in Salem, this being their last debate this season. The Willamette freshmen will debate the Oregon State college, University of Oregon Frosh and Albany here in the near future, the dates to be announced later.
