SILENCER FOR AIRPLANE MOTORS

An invention designed to silence the exhaust noise of airplanes has been completed and tested by William Werner Von Falkenstein, chief engineer for an airplane company at San Antonio, Tex. The device so completely stifles the exhaust noise that its designer claims that ordinary conversation can be carried on in an open plane. Above, Capt. A. W. Long, after a test flight in a plane to which the device was attached, and below, a closeup of the muffler.

After Week of Recess Committee To Start Inquiries About Profits

WASHINGTON, April 2 .- (AP) After a recess of more than a week, the senate Teapot Dome committee will resume its public inquiry tomorrow into the disposition of the Liberty bond profits of the Continental Trading com-

Birch Helms of New York, who is reported to have had oil holdings in Texas, probably will be the principal witness but members of the committee declined to disclose the subject upon which he is to be questioned.

Subpoenas were issued for two others, Harry M. Blair and C. H. Huston, both of New York, but it was doubtful tonight whether either would appear. Blair's secretary informed the committee that Blair is now in the west while no word was received from Hus-

It was said that Blair and Huson would be questioned about republican party financing after 1920.
