Patriotic Organizations Have Birthday Dinner at the Armory

The members of the Women's Relief Corps, the Grand Army of the Republic, and other patriotic organizations of Salem held a birthday dinner at the Armory on Saturday, March 31. Covers were arranged for 54.

The program which was in charge of Mrs. Bertha Loveland, president of the W. R. C., opened the singing of "While the Grand Army Assembles."

Mr. Alvin Fisher, senior vice-commander of the G. A. R., responded to the address of welcome which was given by Mrs. Loveland.

The program also included talks given by Mr. Charles Fessenden, departmental president of the Sons of Union Veterans; Mrs. E. E. Bergman, president of the Daughters of Union Veterans; and a response by Miss Julia K. Woffler, past department president of the Daughters of Union Veterans.

Other speakers were Mrs. Sarah L. Oliver, president of the Ladies of the G. A. R.; Mrs. Lizzie W. Smith, past department president of the W. R. C.; and Mrs. Helen Southwick, past senior vice-president, who gave an account of the history of the Women's Relief Corps.

Mrs. Mary Briggs and Mrs. Helen Southwick both charter members of the Salem corps, were introduced. There are only six charter members now living. Mrs. Ida Habcock, was the first president of the W. R. C. following its organization in Salem, January 23, 1885.

Mr. Gideon Stolz, a charter member of the G. A. R., gave an address as did also Mrs. Hattie B. Cameron, past department treasurer, who is now serving her 12th year as treasurer of the Salem W. R. C.

Mrs. Mary B. Lickie, president of the Sons of Veterans Auxiliary of Salem; Mrs. Louise King, department president of the Sons of Veterans Auxiliary, also spoke briefly.

A reading, "The Color Guard" was given by Mrs. Hattie B. Cameron. The meeting closed with the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner."

Tea Will Be Given in Portland in Honor of Oregon Writers

A "Fine arts institute" and a tea honoring Oregon writers will be given by the fine arts department of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs at the Portland Woman's club, 448 Taylor street, Friday, April 6. Mrs. Frank B. Cram is chairman of the department. The tea is being arranged by Mrs. E. H. Whitney, chairman of the literature division, assisted by Mrs. Cram, and is to be for all Oregon writers. Mrs. Saldie Orr-Dunbar will have general charge of the institute.

The program is as follows: 9:30—Registrations. 10—Mrs. Frank B. Cram, presiding; Miss Ruth Agnew will sing accompanied by Lucile Cummings; Professor J. Leo Fairbanks, head of the department of fine arts of Oregon Agricultural college, will speak on fine arts in general.

11—Small groups will be formed for discussions on art, music and literature. Mrs. E. P. Mossman of La Grande is chairman of art.

The literature division, Mrs. E. H. Whitney, chairman, covers many phases of literary thought and the chairmen of the subdivisions are: Mrs. H. G. Cooper, Hood River, early American literature; Mrs. Fordyce Farge, Salem, recent American literature; Mrs. E. P. Preble, Portland, Shakespeare; Mrs. Donald M. Pague, La Grande, studies in modern poets; Mrs. F. C. Whitten, Portland, contemporary poetry; Mrs. Edwin L. Knapp, Eugene, contemporary English novels. Mrs. Whitney has charge of children's literature.

The luncheon will be held at the Heathman hotel at 12:45, with the president of the state federation, Mrs. G. J. Frankel, presiding. Henry J. Jacobsen will be the soloist, accompanied by Miss Ruth Crittenden. The address during the luncheon hour will be given by one of Portland's well-known architects, William G. Purcell. Mr. Purcell is especially interested in modern architecture and his subject will be "The Building Art as a Fine Art."

From 3 until 5 o'clock the Woman's club building will be the scene of a tea honoring Oregon writers. Mrs. Whitney will have charge of the affair, assisted by Mrs. Roy Wheeler. Hostesses will include all members of the fine arts department, the state president, Mrs. Frankel, and the 1927-28 officers of the Portland Woman's club. Musical numbers during the afternoon will be furnished by the Monday Musicals club sextet, with Edna Burton at the piano. All Oregon writers are invited to attend, say those in charge.

RUN-DOWN WOMEN REGAIN STRENGTH

Find Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound A Dependable Medicine

MRS. HELEN SEDIVI, 4939 National St., Tacoma, Wash., Pa. Philadelphia, Pa. "I really can't express in writing how much Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. After my second baby was born I was always tired. I read so much of what the Vegetable Compound has done for others that I gave it a trial. It has certainly done wonders for me. I've praised it to single and to married women and intend to continue it. It seems that taking your medicine has made me a different girl. I also secured Lydia E. Pinkham's Pills for Constipation and they have helped me wonderfully."—Mrs. HELEN SEDIVI, 4939 National Street, Tacoma, Philadelphia, Pa.

A Weak, Nervous Woman Helped
Terre Haute, Ind.—"I have a baby six months old and after he was born I felt so badly I could hardly do my work. I was weak, nervous and run-down. I have taken three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and would not be without it. I feel lots better and am able to do my housework. I also take Lydia E. Pinkham's Pills for Constipation. I would like you to print this letter in some of the papers for I have often heard remarks about your testimonials. They say, 'You never see letters from anyone in this city. It is always somewhere else.'"—Mrs. J. K. MONROE, 1801 Blaine Avenue, Terre Haute, Indiana.
