The Statesman Two Matinees At Elsinore

The patrons of those merchants who advertise in the market Green Section will be privileged to witness two matinees this week under the customary rules.

The first matinee will be at the Elsinore on Saturday afternoon and the correct coupon, a sales slip for one dollar from some advertiser in this section and 10 cents will admit anyone. "The Legion of the Condemned" is the picture to be shown Saturday. This is a thrilling picture from the very beginning and shows those men who wanted to die. They sought death and "flying by day" flying by night they were the terror of the front during the war. The second matinee will be on Monday afternoon. Anyone may gain admittance by presenting a sales slip for one dollar from some advertiser in this Green section, the correct coupon and 10 cents. The show for Monday afternoon will consist of a picture and a Fanchon and Marco vaudeville. The "Jazzical Trial" is a synopsized burlesque on a court scene where the various entertainers are being tried because of the presentation of inferior entertainment. The picture will be "The Smart Set," featuring William Haines, Jack Holt, Alice Day and Hobart

Select Becoming Glasses

Glasses may now be considered an accessory of dress. Most people wear them at least part of the time and it is highly important that the frames be well chosen. No matter what your preference may be, you'll find our selection replete with styles that you like.

Bosworth. The picture is filled with laughter on horseback and home, and a man who came back romance on the polo field. This is an entertaining comedy of love, for the girl. Two exceptional matinees have been planned for the patrons of those who advertise in this section. Don't miss them.
