

Six Willamette Valley League Teams Ready For "Play Ball" Sunday

RAIN ONLY FACTOR NOT CERTAIN NOW

Unless the god of falling waters, so unpopular hereabouts at present to merit mention by name, is successful in his threat to call off the Willamette Valley Baseball league's opening will take place Sunday afternoon, with all six teams in action.

On the Oxford Park diamond here, the Salem Senators and Billy Reinhart's Eugene tossers will open before a crowd which promises to set new records, judging from the interest that has been shown in the new inter-city league.

This game will start at 2:30 p. m. sharp, with President George F. Wilhelm of the league pitching the first ball and Dr. E. H. Hobson, president of the Salem ball club, attempting to receive it.

Beck and Edwards will be Salem's battery, and Reinhart will probably start Biddy Bishop and Elias. Edwards will have Billy Sullivan on first, Keber or Hughes on second, Riddings at short and Heenan on third. Fleury, Gill and Shackleman will be in the outfield. Eugene's lineup will include Husband, first base; Wirth, second; Brauner, short; Van Dyne, third; Sorsby, Manerud and Terrill or Frank Reinhart in the outfield.

The Albany team, headed by Manager "Red" Rupert, will start this evening the long trek to Bend, going via Portland on account of the protracted snow blockade of the McKenzie pass. In addition to his well trained team of home ball players, Rupert will be well fortified with pitchers, taking along Ralph Coleman and "Dutch" Schroeder, both formerly associated with organized ball.

Rupert is anticipating plenty of trouble when he lands in Bend, for the Eagles there have gathered an aggregation of former Timber league players and others of proven ability, a team that is touted as considerably stronger than the Elks outfit that represented Bend last year.

Rumors circulated here Thursday that Albany and Bend would not play, due to a disagreement about terms, were without foundation, according to word received from President Wilhelm Friday morning.

Wending and Cottage Grove will fight it out at Wending, and the prospects are for a hot battle between these two smaller cities in the league.

PORTLAND DEFEATS OAKLAND FIVE TO 0

OAKLAND, Apr. 13.—(AP)—Portland blanked Oakland 5 to 0 today when Johnny Couch held the Coast league champions to six scattered hits. Howard Craghead pitched good ball for the Oaks but received loose support. Metz playing second base in place of Reese who is ill with a cold, muffed up several plays that helped the Beavers to run.

Score:

Portland	R H E
Oakland	5 10 2

Couch and Rego; Craghead and Boal.

Goggles on Job

The pennant hopes of the Pittsburgh Pirates, National league champs, depend largely on these two pairs of spectacles resting on the noses of Carmen Hill, above, and Lee Meadows, below, pitching stars.

YANKEES RING UP SIX CIRCUIT HITS

PHILADELPHIA, Apr. 13.—(AP)—Unleashing a murderous extra base hit barrage in the second and third innings the New York Yankees defeated the Philadelphia Athletics again today 8 to 7 in a game featured by six home runs. Two of the circuit drives went to Hauser, Athletics first baseman.

Score:

New York	R H E
Philadelphia	7 12 1

Moore, Shealy, Hoyt and Collins; Rommel, Johnson, Orwoll, and Cochran.

Heflin Again Attacks Smith on His Religion

WASHINGTON, April 13.—(AP)—Senator Heflin, of Alabama, made another attack on Governor Smith of New York today in the senate, charging that he was the head of the Roman Catholic political machine in America.

"There are two standards in this country," Heflin shouted to a full chamber and crowded galleries. "They are the Roman standard and the American standard. When they clash one must go down and it will not be the American standard."

Senator Curtis sought to invoke a rule to prevent the address, but was over-ruled by Vice President Dawes. The Kansas then returned Heflin that the senate was to go into executive session at 3 p. m., and it was the desire to dispose of the naval appropriation bill first.

"The senator's speech can just as well go over to some other day," Curtis said.

"No this speech can't go over," Heflin retorted.

"Why is the senator from Kansas so nervous about this thing?" Heflin demanded.

"The senator from Kansas is not nervous," Curtis returned.

"Well, he seems to object to this speech being made," the Alabamian said.

"The senator from Kansas has no interest in anything the senator from Alabama may say," the republican leader and presidential candidate replied.

"If the senator had let me go on at the outset," Heflin retorted, "he would have saved himself a good deal of embarrassment in explaining his position here to his constituents."

"The claim Arkansas has gone for Smith now," the Alabamian continued. "I say that it is against him 10 to one and if the delegation is delivered to him there will be more political tombstones around here than you have ever seen."

"Scandal looms in Iowa. The Smith campaign funds, the largest and most corrupt ever used is putting this scandal out."

That brought Senator Steck.

democrat, Iowa, to his feet. "I hope the senator doesn't infer that the democrats in Iowa have been influenced by any fund on behalf of any candidate for president."

"If the senator wants to know my opinion," Heflin replied, "I think money was used in Iowa, Oklahoma, and everywhere they put their foot."

"I don't want to quarrel with the senator," Steck said, "but I wish to assure him that money has not been spent, raised or expended in any way for either Smith or Meredith in Iowa. As a democrat I deny that money was used either for Smith of Meredith."

Calling on Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, to introduce a resolution for investigation of campaign funds, Heflin suggested that the investigators "call the Tammanyites before them, starting with Jimmie Walker."

"He is a smooth artist, the slickest egg in the pond," he said.

"They say that the Louisiana delegation will support Al Smith," Heflin went on. "Chap Clark's son-in-law has been here and I understand trying to get a vote in Louisiana so that the people may express themselves and say that the Louisiana delegation is for Smith."

This reference was to James M. Thomson, publisher of the New Orleans Item.

Seals Win Again
SAN FRANCISCO, Apr. 13.—(AP)—The San Francisco Seals clubbed out another victory over the Missions today, winning 8-2, in easy fashion, to make it four straight over their local rivals. Walter Mills left handed the Missions in good style.

Score:

San Francisco	R H E
Missions	2 8 2

Mills and Sprung; Davenport and Whitney.

Stars Even Series
LOS ANGELES, Apr. 13.—(AP)—The Hollywood Stars evened up the series with Los Angeles by taking today's game, 6 to 4, scoring a three run lead in the first inning. Two of these runs resulted from Tolson's error for the Angels on a play that would have retired the side.

Score:

Los Angeles	R H E
Hollywood	4 9 1

Barfoot, Peters and Agnew; Sandberg; Murphy and Agnew.

Sacs Stage Slugfest
SACRAMENTO, Apr. 13.—(AP)—Sacramento came from behind in a rare slugfest here today to nose Seattle out of victory in a ninth inning rally, 12 to 11. The Solons used four pitchers, none of whom were effective but the hard hitting of the Senators acted as a counterbalance.

Score:

Seattle	R H E
Sacramento	11 16 4

Knight, Middleton and Schmidt; Vinc, Singleton, Flynn, Rachac and Koehler.

Baseball game between the Willamette nine and the Chemawa team which was to have been played here yesterday afternoon

BEARCAT-CHEMAWA GAME CALLED OFF

The baseball game between the Willamette nine and the Chemawa team which was to have been played here yesterday afternoon was postponed on account of rain. This would have been the first game for either of the teams this season. The next opponent on the Willamette schedule is the Linfield nine to be played at McMinnville Wednesday afternoon, if the weather permits. The Indians will meet Salem high here this afternoon.

The Bearcat nine is doped to be quite strong this season, with several lettermen returning. At the beginning of the season the pitching staff looked rather weak with the return of only one letterman for that position, this being Ledbetter. With several new candidates including Retrum, Flock, Nelson, Van Nice and Versteeg showing up remarkably well, prospects look much brighter. Retrum and Van Nice are both southpaws, but have had little experience before entering the university. Kaufmann is again at the receiving end with Cardinal acting as his understudy. Coach Spec Keene believes that this youngster will develop into one of the best catchers in the conference after a little more practice.

One of the strongest infielders that has been seen with the Willamette nine for some time will be handled by Girod at short, Welch at first, Adams and Brawley fighting it out for second, and Hank at third. It looks as though Adams has a clinch on second with Brawley booked as a utility infielder.

In the outfield there are Troxel, Dietz and Roundtree, Massey and Satchel. All these men have shown up well so far and are running neck and neck for their respective positions.

That Tired Feeling

Is it caused by overwork—either mental or physical—or is it due to a condition of the system known as "over-acidity"? Scientists claim the latter cause to be largely responsible for lack of endurance, and emphasize the vital importance of maintaining the "Chemical Balance"—that margin by which alkali exceeds acid in the blood.

This natural tonic is Alkaline in action—neutralizes the acid and supplies mineral elements which are absolutely essential to health.
