

PROFIT SHARING EVENT

STARTING MONDAY, MAY 7th

Expanding our service to the people of this community as our business expands we will, starting this spring, extend a "Profit Sharing Event" twice a year. At this time, just before graduation, just before the June weddings and prior to the "going away" season is the logical time to give our patrons the benefit of this profit sharing event.

We do not have many sales but the few that we do have are noted for their "action" and "reality" and not merely a concoction of words in an advertisement. A good thing to remember is the fact that—your purchases are only as good as the store from which they are secured—meaning that the establishment must have stood the test of time, must have "carried on" by merits of their dealings with the public and quality of the merchandise sold. The only answer to these requirements necessary is the statement that Hartman Brothers have been doing an ever increasing business in Salem since 1915, just 13 years.

And now we invite you to participate in this profit sharing event

COLLEGE NET STARS DEFEAT WILLAMETTE

In a day full of upsets, the Oregon State college tennis team defeated Willamette university's net experts on the courts here Saturday, five matches to two.

The top ranking men on the Willamette team had an off day, and the Beavers' two victories were in singles matches well down the line. Captain Litchfield, No. 3, defeated Wood of O. S. C. 6-4, 6-2, and Hageman, No. 5, won a grueling match from McGrew, 4-6, 6-4, 7-5.

White, Willamette's No. 1 player, put up a fighting attack against Ayers of Oregon State, but lost 6-4, 6-3. Minto, playing No. 2, lost to Sparo 6-3, 6-1. Klahn of Oregon State beat Haworth of Willamette 6-1, 7-5.

Klahn and King of O. S. C. beat Litchfield and Haworth of Willamette 6-4, 4-6, 6-1, and White and Minto of Willamette lost 6-3, 8-6 to Ayers and Sparo. After being behind 2-5, in the second set, the Willamette doubles stars rallied and took four games, but were unable to prolong the winning streak. Inaccuracy in serving was their principal difficulty both in singles and doubles, as they outplayed their opponents in other departments of the game.

BEND AWARDED THE NEXT CONCLAVE OF DEMOLAYS

First holding their banquet at six and the others at 6:30 o'clock. Several announcements were made at the banquet concerning the dance and the picnic which will be held today.

The final event on the program was the informal dance at the armory, which was well attended. Music was furnished by the Strompers, a DeMolay orchestra. Delegates were given free admittance to the Capitol theater all day yesterday, an offer which many of the tired delegates took advantage.

The entire convale was carried on in great fashion, everything running smoothly. This was largely creditable to the members of the Salem Chemeketa chapter, who had spent much time and study prior to the convale to have everything as efficient as possible. Much credit is due Master Councillor Charles Bier and Homer Richards of this chapter.

HOOVER'S LEAD AT K. C. ASSURED OF STRENGTH

Hoover Now Claims 419

Only 229 of the 1,089 delegates to the republican convention remain to be selected. Of the 860 chosen up to today, 419 are claimed for Hoover by his managers, with 545 votes needed at Kansas City to nominate. The Hoover claims to 164 are challenged by his opponents, however, leaving him an undisputed total of 256, or four more than the 252 claimed for Lowden. Of the Lowden total, his claim to 64 is disputed by rivals, leaving him 188 unchallenged delegates.

In the democratic delegate lineup, Smith's supporters claim 511 1/2 of the 634 votes thus far allotted for the Houston convention. Of the 511 total 73 1/2 are in dispute. To win the democratic nomination, Smith or anyone else will have to muster 733 1/2 votes. The best the New York governor did at the Madison Square Garden in 1924 was 368, but even his avowed opponents concede that he has bagged more than that number already, with 416 delegates still to be chosen.

Third Party Talked

Third party talk has cropped up with suggestions for such a movement coming from both democrats and republicans. Thus far however, nothing definite has been done in this direction and there is little expectation of action until after the national conventions, if then.

Democrats who have brought up the subject for the most part are foes of Governor Smith and are suggesting a bolt in the event of his nomination: Reed of Missouri was suggested by a California admirer, along with Borah of Idaho, as a logical head of such a ticket. Reed put his foot down hard on the suggestion, as did Josephus Daniels, former secretary of the navy who has been suggested as an independent vice presidential candidate. Borah took no cognizance of the proposal.

Among republicans, the talk of forming another party has been rather vague, and is directed chiefly at the possibility that the republican presidential nominee might be looked on with some disfavor in the farm belt.

WOMAN HELD AS FORGER

Mrs. Ella Abrams Lodged in City Jail at Portland

PORTLAND, May 4.—(AP)—Mrs. Ella Abrams of Portland was in the city jail today under ball of $5,000 and charged with passing a forged check. She was arrested by Detective Swennes who had in his possession several checks allegedly written by Mrs. Abrams. They were all drawn to the account of George Abraham, general contractor of this city.

Abraham who is a family friend of Mrs. Abrams, first became aware that all was not well with an active account he carries in a local bank when a check he had written for $800 was returned to him May 1 marked "not sufficient funds." His records showing that he should have had considerable more than that amount in his account, he investigated immediately and found that several forged checks had been charged against his account.
