For Congress

W. C. HAWLEY

Republican Candidate for Renomination.

TO THE VOTERS IN THE RE-PUBLICAN PRIMARIES:

Congressman W. C. Hawley has remained at his post of duty during the pending campaign, discharging the trust committed to him by our suffrage in the previous election. Through the medium of the press and correspondence his friends have endeavored to fairly present the merits of his candidacy for renomination at your hands. We have been handicapped by not having the magnetic and wholesome personal presence of Mr. Hawley in Oregon at this time, but Mr. Hawley and his friends have full confidence that you approve of the manner of the campaign made in his behalf, which has rested upon the merits of Mr. Hawley and not on the demerits of his opponent.

There has been, however, deep resentment on the part of many because of the unfair statements and misrepresentations of the opposition, where every artifice known to the political trickster has been used, and it is only fair to point out some of this that the public may fully understand. The inference that the placards of the opposition, posted in violation of public ordinances, were removed by friends of Mr. Hawley is refuted by the police taking the credit and issuing notice of arrests in event of future violation. The attempt to discredit the appointment of Mr. Hawley is refuted by the fact of his appointment during his incumbency on the greatest committee of Congress, including Agriculture, Labor, Rural Credits, The Budget, Appropriations and Ways and Means, where his prestige has enabled him to secure more than $41,000,000 in appropriations and authorizations of Federal money for public improvements in the District—more than has been secured in the entire history of the District prior to his incumbency—and in addition thereto much other legislation beneficial to the District and its people.

No person but one densely ignorant or acting through unworthy motives would attempt to challenge the value of the position Mr. Hawley has attained by being unanimously chosen by all parties in the National House of Representatives to the Chairmanship of the Committee on Ways and Means. No Republican paper attempts to question its importance and value to the people of Oregon and its industries, and one of the greatest independent and impartial newspapers in the nation, the New York Times, stated on April 22, 1928:

"Mr. Hawley is the first man from the Pacific Coast ever to reach the chairmanship, which ranks above all other positions in the power of the House to give its members except those of Speaker and majority floor leader. In the group over which he will preside are men chosen for their abilities," etc.

Integrity, high intellectual qualities, sincerity, and faithful adherence to the interests of the people, are the main points along the worthy career of Mr. Hawley, and these are the guides to the voter on May 18, and his uniform courteous consideration of the rights of others, his tireless energy, his fair but hard fighting, his efficient and successful service and his loyalty to the best traditions of his public office will carry him into victory by a sweeping majority.

gress Committee, W. J. Culver,
