TIME OF ROSES

It was not in the Winter Our loving lot was cast; It was the time of roses— We plucked them as we pass'd!

That churlish season never frowned On early lovers yet; O no—the world was newly crown'd With flowers when first we met!

'Twas twilight, and I bade you go, But still you held me fast; It was the time of roses— We plucked them as we pass'd!

—Thomas Hood.
