EDERAL OFFICERS

Federal officers from Jortland came to Salem Sunday to get James LaVerne and Miss Theda Helmic of Sacramento who have been held here awaiting the arrival of Sacramento officers, in which city they are wanted by police. The Portland warrant charged LaVerne with violation of the Mann act. George Warren, sergeant-detective of the Sacramento police department, arrived here Friday morning to get the wanted dJames LaVerne, but the Portland officers were a little to quick for him and consequently. he left Saturday night for the southern city without the couple. Miss Helmick is being held as wit-

The California youth who gave his age as 23, has admitted to police that he has already served a time at McNiel's Island on a similar charge. He was charged by the department of justice with transporting Miss Helmick, whose age was given as 21, from California to Oregon. The couple was taken to Portland by Officer Tom Word of that city, who had made a careful investigation of the case since the arrest of the two here last week.

The two were arrested by Offimercial street, going north, with intentions of getting in Portland that night. They had escaped officers in Grants Pass, who notified local police to be on the lookout Catifornia license.

The accused told local police officers that they were on their way to Portland where they had intended to get married to satisfy the wishes of his mother.
