

An Eastman CAMERA for 89c NO. 2 CARTRIDGE HAWKEYE

Takes good pictures in 2 1/4 x 3 1/4 inches

Sturdy, Dependable, Sure a lot for a little. Ask to see it.

and THEY'RE ONLY 89c

While Our Stock Lasts

"Kodakery" Magazine FREE for one year with each one

CAPITAL DRUG STORE

J. H. WILLETT

Only the Best

405 State

LOCAL NEWS BRIEFS

Trefren II—Stanley Trefren, student at Kimball school, and pastor of the Scotch Methodist church, has been detained on his charge during the past week due to illness.

To Address Graduates—Dr. John D. McCormick of Kimball school of Theology, will preach the baccalaureate sermon for the Stanton high school graduating class in that city next Sunday night.

Jumbo Lesson to Open School—Watch for announcement first of week.

Speaks to Kiwanis—Dr. John D. McCormick, dean of Kimball school of Theology, spoke at a joint banquet of the Kiwanis clubs of Camas and Wasougal, Wash., at Camas, Wednesday night. He spoke on his trip abroad last summer. He was accompanied on the trip by Prof. C. F. Monk of Willamette university. They returned to the Kimball campus yesterday morning.

Wedding Gifts in All—Their glory are here for your selection. A gift in a Pomeroy & Keene box is like the mark of "sterling" in silver, it identifies the quality.

Soloist of the Day—E. M. Kennell gave several vocal selections at Kimball School of Theology chapel hour yesterday morning. He was accompanied on the piano by Kenneth McCormick, student at Willamette university. He also gave two piano numbers.

Old Time Dance Crystal Garden—Every Wed. and Sat. night.

Wanted—Four boys to learn trombone, Lesson and instruments free of charge. See J. E. Mac Marimon, Sherman Clay & Co., 130 South High street, Salem, Ore.

Furnish Music—Miss Helen Bridgeman gave several piano numbers at the Kimball School of Theology chapel services which were held Tuesday morning.

Ladies! Cooked Food Sale—Home made buns, cakes, pies, candies, etc. Friday, May 25th, at 185 N. High St., opposite Court House.

Fires Complaint—T. A. Yeaton, Church and Cottage streets, complained to local police officers yesterday that ball players in the street near his home are doing much damage in the line of tramping down lawns and breaking windows. He urged officers to investigate and stop play in accordance with the city ordinance.

Super Service Station—Opportunity, very attractive proposition, good lease, going concern, $2250 to handle. Becke & Hendricks, 189 N. High street.

Building Permits—Building permit was issued to R. C. Grover yesterday to repair a two-story dwelling located at 325 North 14th street at an estimated cost of $700. Another repair permit was issued to W. J. Liljequist to repair a one and one-half story dwelling which is located at 1740 South Winter street, at an estimated cost of $600. Another was issued to Fred Gahdsdorf to repair his one-story dwelling which is located at 985 South Church street at an estimated cost of $200.

Simplex Your Motor—Fitzgerald-Sherwin Motor Co., exclusive distributors of Simplex rigs.

A. W. Thomas Pays Fine—A. W. Thomas, who was arrested and convicted on a charge of being in possession of intoxicating liquor, was released from the city jail yesterday afternoon when he paid the $250 fine. He was arrested by city and state prohibition officers during the middle of last week when a quantity of liquor was found in his residence.

Joint Picnic—A joint picnic of members of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. was held at Woodland park last night with some 40 members present. A large dinner was served at 7 o'clock after which they devoted their time to a short program and playing of games. Some took to the water.

Gray Belle New Process—Ice cream shakes and malts.

Former Customers—Wm. Tachop formerly with Marion Auto now in shop of Fitzgerald-Sherwin Motor Co.

Warren Day Here—Warren Day of Portland and a graduate of Willamette university, was a business caller here yesterday. During his last year at the university he served as president of the student body. He returned last night.

Genuine Indian Baskets—All colors, shapes, designs on special sale Sat. Mon. at Specialty Shop, 244 N. High. Next Senator Hotel.

Childs Heads Honorary—Thomas Childs, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Childs, 374 North 18th street, who is a junior in forestry at Oregon state college, was elected president of Xi Sigma Pi, national honorary fraternity in forestry. He was pledged by the honorary only a short time ago.

Furniture Upholsterer—And repairing. Gies-Powers Furniture Co.

Oregon Over Florida—Mr. and Mrs. D. S. McCabe, who arrived here from Florida a short time ago, liked this state so well that they have decided to abandon their intentions of returning and instead make their home here. At the present time they are making their home at the residence of C. McCabe, in the fruitland district. Mr. McCabe is just recovering from an operation which he underwent at the Salem General hospital a short time ago.

Dance—Friday nite, Domes' Pavilion, McCoy.

Here Yesterday—William Zoset, former clothier of this city and now of Coquille, was in Salem on business yesterday.

For Rent—5 room house 1098 North 21st street, $20. 4 room house, 932 S. Commercial street $20. 4 rooms, garage, double house, 657 Center street, $22.50. 5 rooms, sleeping porch, furnace, fireplace, garage, $50 N. 16th street, $32.50. Large 5 room strictly modern flat, sleeping porch, garage, 760 Marion street $37.50. Becke & Hendricks, 189 North High street.

Gray Belle New Process—Ice cream shakes and malts.

Returns—Joyce Boothby, who has been in San Francisco during the past few months, returned here yesterday afternoon. After a short stay here he will go to Seattle where he has been offered a position in the physical education department of the student body. He returned of a Puget Sound school, with only boys attending. Boothby is a graduate of Willamette university where he was a track star.

For Sale: Desirable, Inexpensive—Neskowin beach houses, telephone 417W.

$2000 Private Money to Loan—Melvin Johnson, Phone 637.

Judge Parker Assigned—Judge D. R. Parker of Gilliam county has been assigned by Chief Justice Rand of the state supreme court to preside at the spring term of court at Medford which convenes May 28. He will act in place of Judge C. M. Thomas of Jackson county, who is ill health. Judge George R. Bagley of Washington county has been assigned to try a number of cases in Polk county, in which the presiding judge, A. C. Walker of McLinnville is disqualified.

Spa Home Made Ice Cream—Better in quality and same in price.

Nurse to Go East—Miss Grace E. Taylor, secretary of the Oregon state board for examination and registration of nurses, will leave here May 30 for Louisville, Ky., where she will attend the annual convention of the American Nurses' association, Association of Public Health Nurses, and national league of nurses' organizations. Miss Taylor will represent the Oregon nurses associations at the national conventions.

Gray Belle New Process—Ice cream shakes and malts.

Three Link Meeting—The Three Link Needle club will meet at the L. O. O. F. hall this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Program is being arranged by Mrs. Elvira Riedefeld, Mrs. L. J. Fineral and Mrs. C. B. McElhaney. Committee in charge of refreshments is: Mrs. J. N. Robertson, Grace Robertson, Mrs. Avis Martin, Mrs. John J. Tallman and Mrs. Mae Radcliff. All Rebekahs are requested to be present.

Adams Bound Over—M. B. Adams, who was brought back to Salem from Roseburg late Wednesday to answer to a charge of larceny of an automobile, was yesterday bound over to the Marion county grand jury after he had waived hearing before Justice of the Peace Erastus Small. J. S. Cawley, who was riding with him and was arrested with him, was turned loose when he represented to authorities that he was merely taking a free ride with Adams at the time of his arrest. Adams' bail was fixed at $1500. Failing to furnish it he was placed in the Marion county jail.

From Now Till Frost Billows—Of flowers can be found any time at Bateham's Floral Gardens, Wallace Road.

Check Case Continued—The case of Jack Kalani, Hawaiian accused of having written a check without having sufficient funds in the bank to cover it, was continued yesterday after a hearing before Justice of the Peace Erastus Small.

We Wish to Advise the Public—That Mr. F. E. Siemens, who has been employed by us as salesman for the past year, is no longer connected with our office. Anderson & Rupert, 169 South High street.

Sellwood-Bents Case Delayed—Taking a voluntary non-suit when the case came on to trial in circuit court yesterday, Robin Day, attorney for the plaintiff in the case of Sellwood vs. Bents, filed a new complaint in the case later in the day. The complaint alleges wrongful conversion of tools, and demands $400 damages.

Ice Cream That Has—Stood the test for 35 years. There is a reason. The Spa.

Sues For Rent Money—Action to recover rents in the sum of $1,200, plus costs and disbursements in the action, was instituted in circuit court here yesterday by P. W. Culver against L. O. Harold and Charles Mendenhall.

Hot Weather Reminders—Our fountain specials are made from our high grade, home made ice cream. You certainly will notice the difference. The Spa.

Hughes Bound Over—Frank Hughes, accused of stealing a quantity of articles from a Mill City dwelling house this week, was yesterday taken from the county jail long enough to appear before Justice of the Peace Small. He waived formal hearing and was bound over to await action by the Marion county grand jury. He failed to furnish his $1500 bail.

Final Meeting—Principals, supervisors and heads of departments in the city school met Thursday afternoon at the call of Superintendent George

GOOD WILL OAKLAND

SAYS—We have a late 1927 Oakland Coupe that has the appearance of a new car, equipped with 85% new rubber, bumpers, fog light, dash motor, cigar lighter and several other extras for $825.00.

VICK BROS

W. Hug for their final meetings on the school year. Instructions on the winding up of work in the various schools and final reports were the chief order of business.

Annual Out Next Week—The Clifton, high school annual which was to have been off the press today, will not be ready until sometime next week, reports Lee Coe, manager. Coe says he has assurance it will be ready the day of graduation, and probably several days before.

A Home and Investment—4 room strictly modern, new house, corner lot with frontage on Fairgrounds road, 955 Norway street. $3650 easy terms. Becke & Hendricks, 189 N. High street.

Gray Belle New Process—Ice cream shakes and malts.

Taylor Convicted—Another chapter was written in the criminal record of Fred Taylor, colored, when he was convicted here yesterday forenoon of larceny in connection with the raid on George Waters' tobacco warehouse several months ago. He will be sentenced by Circuit Judge Percy R. Kelly at 10 a. m. Monday.

Reduce Power Rates—The public service commission Thursday issued an order reducing materially and municipal incandescent lighting rates of the Idaho Power company which operates in four towns in Crook county. The new order became effective today.

Laurel Park Lots—West of Hollywood district, on Tamerack, Academy and Columbia streets. $500 to $700, easy terms. Special attraction to prospective builders. Becke & Hendricks, 189 North High street.

Musical Recital—"A violin and piano recital will be held by the pupils of P. F. Thomas and Zena Thomas at the First Evangelical church tonight at 8 P. M.

Electric Saw Filing Plant Installed at Fix-It Shop

The Fix-It Shop, located at 466 Ferry street has just purchased a new electric automatic circular and band saw filing machine which will soon be installed with the automatic electric lawn mower grinding machine and the automatic electric saw filing machine saw filing machine which has been in use since the shop was opened this spring.

YANKEE PARTY HELD CAPTIVE FIVE MONTHS (Continued from page 1.)

Khotan, Kashgar, Karasahar, and Urumst (all in the Altai mountains in Mongolia.) Oyrat, the Gobi desert, Yansu (westernmost province of China) and Tsaidam (also called Chaidam, a region of vast swamps in northern Tibet.)

"Peacefully the American flag encircled central Asia. Everywhere warmly greeted except Khotan and Lhasa governments. Further movement of expedition from Khotan assisted by British consul at Kashgar.

Robbers Beaten Off—"On Tibetan territory have been attacked by armed robbers. Superiority of our fire prevented bloodshed.

In spite of Tibet passports, expedition forcibly stopped by Tibetan authorities on October 6, (1927) two days north of Nog-chu (apparently on the border of Sse-Chwan province of China.)

"With inhuman cruelty expedition has been detained for five months on altitude of 15,000 feet, living in summer tents amidst severe cold about minus 40 degrees centigrade (the Fahrenheit scale is almost exactly the same at that point below zero.)

Five of Party Die—"Expedition spared from want of fuel and fodder during stay in Tibet, five men, Mongols, Burials and Tibetans, died, and 96 caravan animals perished. By order of authorities all letters and wires addressed to Lhasa government, the American consul at Calcutta and British authorities have been seized.

"Forbidden to speak to passing caravans. Forbidden to buy food-stuffs from population. Money and medicines came to an end. The presence of three women in the caravan and medical certificate about heart weakness not taken into consideration.

Hardships Endured—"With great difficulties, on march where expedition started southwards. All nine European members expedition safe. Courageously bore hardships of exceptionally severe winter. Many scientific results after four years travels. May 16, Signed Nicholas Roerich."

Nicholas Roerich is a native of Russia who has long combined painting with exploration. Lhasa, the capital of Tibet, whose government was accused by Professor Roerich of seriously endangering the lives of the whole expedition, is the seat of grand Lama. It is the center of the Buddhist religious pilgrims but Occidentals annually by thousands of Asiatic religious pilgrims by Occidentals have never been welcomed.

Jefferson Myers is Mrs. Myers. She is a real helpmeet in his home as well as in his official life, which is a very busy one in Washington, having to do with the large and growing shipping interests of the United States. Mrs. Myers is very proud of a couple of letters from Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, written in her own hand, showing the helpful and womanly and neighborly nature of the mistress of the White House; qualities that have endeared her to official Washington and to great numbers of people throughout the country and the world. Mrs. Myers was a guest of Mrs. C. P. Bishop in Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Myers were dinner guests of General and Mrs. White here in the evening, and they motored to Portland later, in order to take the night train for Seattle, where there are important matters connected with the business of the United States shipping board.

Robbers Beaten Off—"On Tibetan territory have been attacked by armed robbers. Superiority of our fire prevented bloodshed.

In spite of Tibet passports, expedition forcibly stopped by Tibetan authorities on October 6, (1927) two days north of Nog-chu (apparently on the border of Sse-Chwan province of China.)

"With inhuman cruelty expedition has been detained for five months on altitude of 15,000 feet, living in summer tents amidst severe cold about minus 40 degrees centigrade (the Fahrenheit scale is almost exactly the same at that point below zero.)

Five of Party Die—"Expedition spared from want of fuel and fodder during stay in Tibet, five men, Mongols, Burials and Tibetans, died, and 96 caravan animals perished. By order of authorities all letters and wires addressed to Lhasa government, the American consul at Calcutta and British authorities have been seized.

"Forbidden to speak to passing caravans. Forbidden to buy food-stuffs from population. Money and medicines came to an end. The presence of three women in the caravan and medical certificate about heart weakness not taken into consideration.

Hardships Endured—"With great difficulties, on march where expedition started southwards. All nine European members expedition safe. Courageously bore hardships of exceptionally severe winter. Many scientific results after four years travels. May 16, Signed Nicholas Roerich."

Nicholas Roerich is a native of Russia who has long combined painting with exploration. Lhasa, the capital of Tibet, whose government was accused by Professor Roerich of seriously endangering the lives of the whole expedition, is the seat of grand Lama. It is the center of the Buddhist religious pilgrims but Occidentals annually by thousands of Asiatic religious pilgrims by Occidentals have never been welcomed.

Robbers Beaten Off—"On Tibetan territory have been attacked by armed robbers. Superiority of our fire prevented bloodshed.

In spite of Tibet passports, expedition forcibly stopped by Tibetan authorities on October 6, (1927) two days north of Nog-chu (apparently on the border of Sse-Chwan province of China.)

"With inhuman cruelty expedition has been detained for five months on altitude of 15,000 feet, living in summer tents amidst severe cold about minus 40 degrees centigrade (the Fahrenheit scale is almost exactly the same at that point below zero.)

Five of Party Die—"Expedition spared from want of fuel and fodder during stay in Tibet, five men, Mongols, Burials and Tibetans, died, and 96 caravan animals perished. By order of authorities all letters and wires addressed to Lhasa government, the American consul at Calcutta and British authorities have been seized.

"Forbidden to speak to passing caravans. Forbidden to buy food-stuffs from population. Money and medicines came to an end. The presence of three women in the caravan and medical certificate about heart weakness not taken into consideration.

Hardships Endured—"With great difficulties, on march where expedition started southwards. All nine European members expedition safe. Courageously bore hardships of exceptionally severe winter. Many scientific results after four years travels. May 16, Signed Nicholas Roerich."

Nicholas Roerich is a native of Russia who has long combined painting with exploration. Lhasa, the capital of Tibet, whose government was accused by Professor Roerich of seriously endangering the lives of the whole expedition, is the seat of grand Lama. It is the center of the Buddhist religious pilgrims but Occidentals annually by thousands of Asiatic religious pilgrims by Occidentals have never been welcomed.

Robbers Beaten Off—"On Tibetan territory have been attacked by armed robbers. Superiority of our fire prevented bloodshed.

In spite of Tibet passports, expedition forcibly stopped by Tibetan authorities on October 6, (1927) two days north of Nog-chu (apparently on the border of Sse-Chwan province of China.)

"With inhuman cruelty expedition has been detained for five months on altitude of 15,000 feet, living in summer tents amidst severe cold about minus 40 degrees centigrade (the Fahrenheit scale is almost exactly the same at that point below zero.)

Five of Party Die—"Expedition spared from want of fuel and fodder during stay in Tibet, five men, Mongols, Burials and Tibetans, died, and 96 caravan animals perished. By order of authorities all letters and wires addressed to Lhasa government, the American consul at Calcutta and British authorities have been seized.

"Forbidden to speak to passing caravans. Forbidden to buy food-stuffs from population. Money and medicines came to an end. The presence of three women in the caravan and medical certificate about heart weakness not taken into consideration.

Hardships Endured—"With great difficulties, on march where expedition started southwards. All nine European members expedition safe. Courageously bore hardships of exceptionally severe winter. Many scientific results after four years travels. May 16, Signed Nicholas Roerich."

Nicholas Roerich is a native of Russia who has long combined painting with exploration. Lhasa, the capital of Tibet, whose government was accused by Professor Roerich of seriously endangering the lives of the whole expedition, is the seat of grand Lama. It is the center of the Buddhist religious pilgrims but Occidentals annually by thousands of Asiatic religious pilgrims by Occidentals have never been welcomed.

Robbers Beaten Off—"On Tibetan territory have been attacked by armed robbers. Superiority of our fire prevented bloodshed.

Jefferson Myers is Mrs. Myers. She is a real helpmeet in his home as well as in his official life, which is a very busy one in Washington, having to do with the large and growing shipping interests of the United States. Mrs. Myers is very proud of a couple of letters from Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, written in her own hand, showing the helpful and womanly and neighborly nature of the mistress of the White House; qualities that have endeared her to official Washington and to great numbers of people throughout the country and the world. Mrs. Myers was a guest of Mrs. C. P. Bishop in Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Myers were dinner guests of General and Mrs. White here in the evening, and they motored to Portland later, in order to take the night train for Seattle, where there are important matters connected with the business of the United States shipping board.

Robbers Beaten Off—"On Tibetan territory have been attacked by armed robbers. Superiority of our fire prevented bloodshed.

In spite of Tibet passports, expedition forcibly stopped by Tibetan authorities on October 6, (1927) two days north of Nog-chu (apparently on the border of Sse-Chwan province of China.)

"With inhuman cruelty expedition has been detained for five months on altitude of 15,000 feet, living in summer tents amidst severe cold about minus 40 degrees centigrade (the Fahrenheit scale is almost exactly the same at that point below zero.)

Five of Party Die—"Expedition spared from want of fuel and fodder during stay in Tibet, five men, Mongols, Burials and Tibetans, died, and 96 caravan animals perished. By order of authorities all letters and wires addressed to Lhasa government, the American consul at Calcutta and British authorities have been seized.

"Forbidden to speak to passing caravans. Forbidden to buy food-stuffs from population. Money and medicines came to an end. The presence of three women in the caravan and medical certificate about heart weakness not taken into consideration.

Hardships Endured—"With great difficulties, on march where expedition started southwards. All nine European members expedition safe. Courageously bore hardships of exceptionally severe winter. Many scientific results after four years travels. May 16, Signed Nicholas Roerich."

Nicholas Roerich is a native of Russia who has long combined painting with exploration. Lhasa, the capital of Tibet, whose government was accused by Professor Roerich of seriously endangering the lives of the whole expedition, is the seat of grand Lama. It is the center of the Buddhist religious pilgrims but Occidentals annually by thousands of Asiatic religious pilgrims by Occidentals have never been welcomed.

Robbers Beaten Off—"On Tibetan territory have been attacked by armed robbers. Superiority of our fire prevented bloodshed.

In spite of Tibet passports, expedition forcibly stopped by Tibetan authorities on October 6, (1927) two days north of Nog-chu (apparently on the border of Sse-Chwan province of China.)

"With inhuman cruelty expedition has been detained for five months on altitude of 15,000 feet, living in summer tents amidst severe cold about minus 40 degrees centigrade (the Fahrenheit scale is almost exactly the same at that point below zero.)

Five of Party Die—"Expedition spared from want of fuel and fodder during stay in Tibet, five men, Mongols, Burials and Tibetans, died, and 96 caravan animals perished. By order of authorities all letters and wires addressed to Lhasa government, the American consul at Calcutta and British authorities have been seized.

"Forbidden to speak to passing caravans. Forbidden to buy food-stuffs from population. Money and medicines came to an end. The presence of three women in the caravan and medical certificate about heart weakness not taken into consideration.

Hardships Endured—"With great difficulties, on march where expedition started southwards. All nine European members expedition safe. Courageously bore hardships of exceptionally severe winter. Many scientific results after four years travels. May 16, Signed Nicholas Roerich."

Nicholas Roerich is a native of Russia who has long combined painting with exploration. Lhasa, the capital of Tibet, whose government was accused by Professor Roerich of seriously endangering the lives of the whole expedition, is the seat of grand Lama. It is the center of the Buddhist religious pilgrims but Occidentals annually by thousands of Asiatic religious pilgrims by Occidentals have never been welcomed.

Robbers Beaten Off—"On Tibetan territory have been attacked by armed robbers. Superiority of our fire prevented bloodshed.

In spite of Tibet passports, expedition forcibly stopped by Tibetan authorities on October 6, (1927) two days north of Nog-chu (apparently on the border of Sse-Chwan province of China.)

"With inhuman cruelty expedition has been detained for five months on altitude of 15,000 feet, living in summer tents amidst severe cold about minus 40 degrees centigrade (the Fahrenheit scale is almost exactly the same at that point below zero.)

Five of Party Die—"Expedition spared from want of fuel and fodder during stay in Tibet, five men, Mongols, Burials and Tibetans, died, and 96 caravan animals perished. By order of authorities all letters and wires addressed to Lhasa government, the American consul at Calcutta and British authorities have been seized.

"Forbidden to speak to passing caravans. Forbidden to buy food-stuffs from population. Money and medicines came to an end. The presence of three women in the caravan and medical certificate about heart weakness not taken into consideration.

Hardships Endured—"With great difficulties, on march where expedition started southwards. All nine European members expedition safe. Courageously bore hardships of exceptionally severe winter. Many scientific results after four years travels. May 16, Signed Nicholas Roerich."

Nicholas Roerich is a native of Russia who has long combined painting with exploration. Lhasa, the capital of Tibet, whose government was accused by Professor Roerich of seriously endangering the lives of the whole expedition, is the seat of grand Lama. It is the center of the Buddhist religious pilgrims but Occidentals annually by thousands of Asiatic religious pilgrims by Occidentals have never been welcomed.

Robbers Beaten Off—"On Tibetan territory have been attacked by armed robbers. Superiority of our fire prevented bloodshed.

Jefferson Myers is Mrs. Myers. She is a real helpmeet in his home as well as in his official life, which is a very busy one in Washington, having to do with the large and growing shipping interests of the United States. Mrs. Myers is very proud of a couple of letters from Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, written in her own hand, showing the helpful and womanly and neighborly nature of the mistress of the White House; qualities that have endeared her to official Washington and to great numbers of people throughout the country and the world. Mrs. Myers was a guest of Mrs. C. P. Bishop in Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Myers were dinner guests of General and Mrs. White here in the evening, and they motored to Portland later, in order to take the night train for Seattle, where there are important matters connected with the business of the United States shipping board.

Robbers Beaten Off—"On Tibetan territory have been attacked by armed robbers. Superiority of our fire prevented bloodshed.

In spite of Tibet passports, expedition forcibly stopped by Tibetan authorities on October 6, (1927) two days north of Nog-chu (apparently on the border of Sse-Chwan province of China.)

"With inhuman cruelty expedition has been detained for five months on altitude of 15,000 feet, living in summer tents amidst severe cold about minus 40 degrees centigrade (the Fahrenheit scale is almost exactly the same at that point below zero.)

Five of Party Die—"Expedition spared from want of fuel and fodder during stay in Tibet, five men, Mongols, Burials and Tibetans, died, and 96 caravan animals perished. By order of authorities all letters and wires addressed to Lhasa government, the American consul at Calcutta and British authorities have been seized.

"Forbidden to speak to passing caravans. Forbidden to buy food-stuffs from population. Money and medicines came to an end. The presence of three women in the caravan and medical certificate about heart weakness not taken into consideration.

Hardships Endured—"With great difficulties, on march where expedition started southwards. All nine European members expedition safe. Courageously bore hardships of exceptionally severe winter. Many scientific results after four years travels. May 16, Signed Nicholas Roerich."

Nicholas Roerich is a native of Russia who has long combined painting with exploration. Lhasa, the capital of Tibet, whose government was accused by Professor Roerich of seriously endangering the lives of the whole expedition, is the seat of grand Lama. It is the center of the Buddhist religious pilgrims but Occidentals annually by thousands of Asiatic religious pilgrims by Occidentals have never been welcomed.

Robbers Beaten Off—"On Tibetan territory have been attacked by armed robbers. Superiority of our fire prevented bloodshed.

In spite of Tibet passports, expedition forcibly stopped by Tibetan authorities on October 6, (1927) two days north of Nog-chu (apparently on the border of Sse-Chwan province of China.)

"With inhuman cruelty expedition has been detained for five months on altitude of 15,000 feet, living in summer tents amidst severe cold about minus 40 degrees centigrade (the Fahrenheit scale is almost exactly the same at that point below zero.)

Five of Party Die—"Expedition spared from want of fuel and fodder during stay in Tibet, five men, Mongols, Burials and Tibetans, died, and 96 caravan animals perished. By order of authorities all letters and wires addressed to Lhasa government, the American consul at Calcutta and British authorities have been seized.

"Forbidden to speak to passing caravans. Forbidden to buy food-stuffs from population. Money and medicines came to an end. The presence of three women in the caravan and medical certificate about heart weakness not taken into consideration.

Hardships Endured—"With great difficulties, on march where expedition started southwards. All nine European members expedition safe. Courageously bore hardships of exceptionally severe winter. Many scientific results after four years travels. May 16, Signed Nicholas Roerich."

Nicholas Roerich is a native of Russia who has long combined painting with exploration. Lhasa, the capital of Tibet, whose government was accused by Professor Roerich of seriously endangering the lives of the whole expedition, is the seat of grand Lama. It is the center of the Buddhist religious pilgrims but Occidentals annually by thousands of Asiatic religious pilgrims by Occidentals have never been welcomed.

Robbers Beaten Off—"On Tibetan territory have been attacked by armed robbers. Superiority of our fire prevented bloodshed.

In spite of Tibet passports, expedition forcibly stopped by Tibetan authorities on October 6, (1927) two days north of Nog-chu (apparently on the border of Sse-Chwan province of China.)

"With inhuman cruelty expedition has been detained for five months on altitude of 15,000 feet, living in summer tents amidst severe cold about minus 40 degrees centigrade (the Fahrenheit scale is almost exactly the same at that point below zero.)

Five of Party Die—"Expedition spared from want of fuel and fodder during stay in Tibet, five men, Mongols, Burials and Tibetans, died, and 96 caravan animals perished. By order of authorities all letters and wires addressed to Lhasa government, the American consul at Calcutta and British authorities have been seized.

"Forbidden to speak to passing caravans. Forbidden to buy food-stuffs from population. Money and medicines came to an end. The presence of three women in the caravan and medical certificate about heart weakness not taken into consideration.

Hardships Endured—"With great difficulties, on march where expedition started southwards. All nine European members expedition safe. Courageously bore hardships of exceptionally severe winter. Many scientific results after four years travels. May 16, Signed Nicholas Roerich."

Nicholas Roerich is a native of Russia who has long combined painting with exploration. Lhasa, the capital of Tibet, whose government was accused by Professor Roerich of seriously endangering the lives of the whole expedition, is the seat of grand Lama. It is the center of the Buddhist religious pilgrims but Occidentals annually by thousands of Asiatic religious pilgrims by Occidentals have never been welcomed.

Robbers Beaten Off—"On Tibetan territory have been attacked