Bing Cherries Offered Here

Cherries already! Healthy looking Bing's greeted the Thursday shopper in a number of the local stores. This was the first shipment of California cherries received this season and if these advance cherries are any indication, the crop is extra fine this year. The first small shipments met a ready market and more are expected daily.

Jobbers quoted $2.25 per box.

while the retailer was selling them at around 25 cents per pound.

PIGEON RACE CONDUCTED

Birds Fly From Pendleton to Portland, 168 Miles

PORTLAND, May 22.—(AP)—A pigeon owned by Dr. J. G. Beattie won first place in the race from Pendleton to Portland, the second promoted by the Rose City Homing Pigeon club of Portland this year. The bird flew the 186 miles in five hours, averaging 1105.06 yards a minute for the distance.

We have a hundred of the Lamps sketched to sell at this astonishing price—and they are far finer than any picture we can present. They stand about five feet in height—the Wrought Iron Standards are beautifully polychromed—the Shades are literally "works of art" made of Pleated Chiffon—with lace panels and long beaded fringes. When lighted they are nothing short of a "Blaze of Glory." The best, the biggest and the most artistic Lamp we have ever sold for

$9.95

So far as we can learn such lamps as these sell for around twenty dollars in the orthodox Lamp Stores—But the purpose of the sale is not to make money but to make friends for the Burnett Jewelry Store and the Burnett Budget Plan—To get the names of a hundred good people on our books. Therefore we shall not want to sell them for cash—Pay fifty cents and take a lamp along—Pay the balance—a dollar or so a week. Just tell the credit manager who you are and where you live—Pay the half a dollar—and take the lamp along!
