

BERRIES REACH

It's strawberry time proper, at last, with pickers galore needed so the market and canneries may be supplied with the luscious red fruit. This week the crop has ripened fast and in large quantities, which is reflected in the lower prices.

The regulation box was available yesterday in several stores for as low as four for 21 cents, with other prices ranging higher;

but the cheapest ones all appeared to be good fresh fruit. Short-cake time, indeed!

Local wholesalers also report a wide range in the prices, with quotations anywhere between $1 and $1.75 per crate.

LOCAL LETTUCE REACHING PEAK

How many Salem housewives noticed the good quality lettuce which they have been buying the past week? An agreeable change to those heads which were beginning to show considerable rust! Here is the secret: The lettuce now on the market comes from the growers right around Salem and, of course, it's absolutely fresh when it reaches the local stores. Produce houses report the local crop to be at its peak now, with the average price per crate $1.75. A fair grade is available at 25 cents less per crate.

Is Santa Claus
in the Tire Business?

We lose a sale occasionally because of a long trade, and we always ask the buyer if his old tires were worth what he got for them.

Invariably he says, no. We ask you, what's the answer? Is Santa Claus in the tire business? Is the dealer merely practicing? Or did his big, tender, overflowing heart just get the best of him?

No foolin' now—what's the answer? Is Christmas a continuous event, or is someone keeping the doughnut and selling the hole?

We allow you for your old tires only what they're worth. We charge you for our fine new Goodyears only what they're worth. You get a square deal and so do we. And as long as we're in our right minds nobody'll get anything different.

Have You Faith
In Your Dentist

Faith in His Ability
Faith in His Honesty of Purpose
Faith in His Guarantee

Dr. Eldridge

Faith is a wonderful thing, a very necessary and comforting part of our existence. I never knew a man or woman who had "faith" who was very bad, nor one who lacked "faith" who was very good.

There's something intuitive about faith—you seem to "know" things are so and people are true, even though all the world says otherwise. You see faith in the eyes of your dog—faith in the smile of a child—faith in the trust of a woman, and faith in the hand-clasp of your friends.

Better a man lose all than lose his faith in himself and his friends.

The measure of success I have made in my profession I owe to faith. I had faith in myself, in my ability to serve the public well, and faith that my HONESTY OF PURPOSE, at LOWER PRICES would not confuse this office with the nameless irresponsible concerns who use cheap prices, merely as a "bait" or "Lure."

People who must count the cost of dental work in these days of high prices should look for RESPONSIBILITY FIRST and price afterward.

If my very low fees were the Only inducement I offered I should not expect, nor should I deserve, the patronage of the people who think for themselves.
