ditions came up before the city council Monday night, it being explained that a jog in the alley was the cause for delay in paving. The lots in Van Durn addition were laid out in uneven lengths, causing the jog. Mrs. W. E. Anderson represented property owners there in asking that the matter be settled and work proceed. Members of the council were of the opinion that the jog should not interfere with traffic and that no attempt need be made to straighten it, which would require condemnation proceedings for the property involved.

Divorces Asked—

Two divorce complaints were filed in circuit court here yesterday. Phoebe Stillman filed suit against Russell Stillman, alleging that he is shiftless and lazy, often drunk, and that sometimes he swears at her and injures her in other ways. Eugene Ghelph sought a divorce from Adele M. Ghelph, saying that she constantly nagged him and that one occasion at the Benson hotel in Portland she kicked him.

Mortgage Foreclosure—

The Interstate Fidelity Building and Loan association yesterday filed suit against the Williamson Development company to foreclose a mortgage on which $15,763.84 is alleged due. The original note called for $16,000. Fifteen hundred dollars attorneys fees is also asked in addition to costs.

Y. M. C. A. Board Meeting—

The June meeting of the board of directors of the Salem Y. M. C. A. will meet tomorrow at the noon hour in its regular monthly business session.

Work on Playgrounds—

A crew of men began work yesterday preparing the 14th street playgrounds for the summer season. Dressing rooms were built, and various items of equipment were repaired and installed. When these grounds are in readiness, the other two playgrounds will be similarly conditioned.

Gladys Mills Wins $50—

The jury in circuit court yesterday returned a verdict in the sum of $50 for the plaintiff in the case of Gladys M. Mills vs. John W. Martin and Hazel Martin.

Suit Called Off—

Upon motion of the plaintiff the suit brought against A. M. Elliott by W. S. Elliott was yesterday ordered dismissed, the order being handed down in circuit court.

Asks Suit Dismissed—

Lawrence Tudor yesterday filed a motion in circuit court here asking that the divorce suit instituted against him in this county by his wife Dolly Tudor be dismissed on the ground that he had started suit against her in Multnomah county prior to the time she began suit against him.
