

SALEM STUDENTS ACTIVE ON CAMPUS

Many Local Young Folk Fill Prominent Places at State University

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, June 5.—(Special.)—More than ordinary prominence and activity in affairs of the campus has been shown by Salem students registered at the University of Oregon this year. Their activities have been varied to a considerable extent, for almost every field of student interest has been entered by students registered from Salem including athletics, student administration, student journalism, music, drama and others.

Perhaps two of the most prominent from Salem are Herbert and Harold Socolofsky, who will be graduated this month, both from the school of business administration. Both are members of Beta Theta Pi fraternity of which the latter is retiring president. He is also a member of the men's glee club, and of Phi Mu Alpha, men's music honorary. He also belongs to Friars, Alpha Kappa Psi, and Pan Xenia, honor organizations.

Herbert Socolofsky has served as vice president of the associated students during the last year, and as such has been especially active in committee work on the campus. He is also a member of Friars and Pan Xenia and has had the position of treasurer of the campus YMCA this year. He also headed the "Dads" day celebration held on the campus for the first time this year.

Two Salem women, Florence Jones, and Dorothy Delzell, were elected to membership in Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary, during the last year of this year. Both are graduating this month in English. Miss Jones has been especially active in written English during her university career. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma and Pot and Quill, writers' group of which she was president and has been affiliated with Phi Beta Phi sorority, and is a member of Pi Lambda Theta, education honorary.

The field of journalism has found Dorothy Baker, junior in journalism, active and during the past year she has served as a day editor of the Oregon Daily Emerald and a section editor of the Oregon student yearbook.

She was also reporter for the Women's League. She is affiliated with Alpha Xi Delta sorority and Mortar Board, and has been a Phi honor organization.

Phyllis Van Kimmell, freshman in journalism, has been a member of the news staff of the Emerald, student publication, and reporter for the campus YWCA. She has been elected to the secretaryship of her class for next year and to Kwama, sophomore women's organization.

Lester Oehler, second year law student, has been active in a commercial line having won the Beta Gamma Sigma scholarship. He is a member of that group and also of Beta Alpha Psi and Alpha Kappa Psi, commerce honoraries.

Nancy Thielson, freshman in music, has been especially prominent in music and dramatics. She took a leading vocal part in the junior vaudeville, "Dream Polles," and is a member of the women's glee club. She has also had leading parts in freshman dramatic productions. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, and has done much solo work on the campus.

Edward Fisher, freshman in political science, and Kenneth Allen, freshman in economics, have also been active in the musical line, both being members of the men's glee club. Both had solo parts in the junior vaudeville, and Kenneth Allen has been featured by the Kollege Knights, dance band. Fisher is a member of Sigma Nu and Allen of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Cotter Gould, junior in the school of business administration, is probably the outstanding athlete from Salem, having won his second letters in both football and baseball this year. He is affiliated with Phi Delta Theta. Reynolds MacDonald, sophomore in the same school, and a member of Sigma Nu, has made an enviable name for himself in baseball this term.

Freshman numerals were made by Harold Olinger, first year man in education and member of Beta Theta Pi, in both basketball and baseball. John Creech, freshman in biology and member of Sigma Nu fraternity, made his numeral in swimming, and Chandler Brown, freshman in economics and also a member of Sigma Nu, has been active in golf. Brown has also been doing sports writing for the Emerald during the year.

Arthur Hamilton, senior in economics, was vice president of the board of directors of the University Co-operative store this year, making his second year on the board. He is affiliated with Sigma Nu fraternity.

Although not on the campus during the year, except for a few days at the end of their tour, Benoit McCroskey and Avery Thompson, with Jack Hempstead of Portland, made a debate tour of the world this spring. Both are members of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity and pre-law majors.

There is an advertising announcement in The Statesman this morning that will be interesting to you, if you have a good name—that is, a good name for the memorial park that is being opened south of Salem.

It must be easily pronounced, have a pleasant sound, and not have been frequently used. And it must go well as a prefix to memorial park.

The contest must be snappy. It will end Saturday night. There is a committee of judges, and the name selected from those submitted will entitle the one who suggests it to $25 in cash.

No doubt there will be a spirited contest; hundreds of names will be submitted. Many of them will be appropriate. The committee of judges will have a hard task.

CONVENTION OF WRITERS' LEAGUE

Frank Gates of Seattle, secretary of the Western Writers' League which includes writers of short stories, serials, drama and poetry, prose and newspaper workers, spent Saturday and Monday with writers' organizations at Portland and Salem in the interest of the second annual convention of the league.

He met representatives of the press and writer's clubs in both cities, and announces that the second annual convention of the league of Western Writers will convene under the auspices of the Portland Chamber of Commerce August 9-10-11. Cooperation of such organizations as the Oregon Writers' League, the Northwest Poetry society and the Puget Sound organizations have already been enlisted.

Mr. Gates is a member of the Free Lance club of Seattle, and is a successful short story writer, besides being the Tacoma representative of the Washington State Chamber of Commerce.

FIVE CLEAR LAKE PUPILS GRADUATE

Women's Club Takes in $33 at Ice Cream Social: Improvements Made CLEAR LAKE, June 5.—(Special.)—Five clear Lake young people graduated from Salem high school in the class of 1928. They received their diplomas at the commencement exercises Friday evening, June 1.

The five graduates from Clear Lake are: Eula Grace Beckner, Esther Margaret Hahn, Ruby Jane Orey, Robert Boyd Meredith and William Karl Stolk.

The ice cream social held Saturday evening, June 2, was successful. The gross receipts for the evening were $33. Mrs. Fred Hammock drew the lucky number for the quilt. The social was sponsored by the Ladies' Improvement club.

The Mission Bottom folks are making considerable improvements. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Collard are having the interior of their house redecorated, and a sleeping porch screened. They also had the archway between the living room and dining room enlarged. Robert Cole is reshingling his barn and making some minor improvements on it.

Mrs. Clara Collard is spending a few weeks with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Alma Collard near Nehalem, Oregon.

Mrs. Eva Palmerton and son Sam of Marion spent a day last week at the Collard home. Mrs. Palmerton is a cousin of W. P. Collard.

CHICAGO ELECTION SCANDALS PROBED

Murders and Bombings to be Investigated; Grand Selected

CHICAGO, June 5.—(AP)—A special grand jury was chosen Monday to investigate Chicago election frauds and violence, including murders and bombings.

F. Edson White, president of Armour and company, was named "oreman" by Chief Justice William V. Brothers of the criminal court.

With a special prosecutor, Frank J. Loesch, head of the Chicago crime commission, the grand jury will endeavor to determine what relationship there is between crime and politics and what bearing election outrages have had on candidates.

Attorney General Oscar Carlstrom is to direct the investigation which will go back to 1926.

Outrages which the grand jury probably will consider include the slaying of Octavius Granady, negro ward committeeman candidate, and "Diamond Joe" Esposito, ward committeeman. Both were of the Senator Charles S. Deneen faction of the republicans. Granady was killed on primary election day last April. He was running against Morris Eller.

SALEM BEST, SAYS RETURNED VISITOR

Miss Lavilla Perry, staff member of the Salem Clinic, has just returned from Chicago where she took part in the program of the national convention of American association of radiological technicians.

Miss Perry is visiting for a few days with her brother and family at Newport before returning to her duties with the clinic. After the convention, Miss Perry spent some time doing special work in research laboratories in various hospitals.

Miss Perry left Salem via the southern route, stopping en route to visit friends and relatives at various cities, in Chicago and her old home at Aberdeen, S. D. The return trip was made through Canada.

Miss Perry, upon her return, declared she had not realized what beautiful places the Willamette valley and Salem were until she saw them again.

Rival Shoots Two Men Admirers of Sweetheart

CHICAGO, June 5.—(AP)—Jealousy was believed by police to have led to the fatal shooting of two sweethearts by another man, known only as "Brownie" who is the object of a city wide search today.

Mrs. Ruth Ward Lewis, 23, who has been separated from her husband and Paul Schilling, 25, an automobile mechanic were the victims.

A sister, Elizabeth Ward, was fired upon but escaped injury. She told authorities the two had been sweethearts for two years, but that last night her sister had been out with "Brownie." Later the two men met in the apartment occupied by the sisters. There was a quarrel and "Brownie" left. He returned later and killed both without warning.

EPISCOPAL BISHOP SHOT BY MINISTER

William A. Query of South Diocese Gains Consciousness

CHARLESTON, S. C., June 5.—(AP)—Following an operation for the removal of a bullet, the Right Rev. William A. Query, bishop of the South Carolina diocese of the Protestant Episcopal church, who was shot Monday by the Rev. J. H. Woodward, 66, retired clergyman of the diocese, regained consciousness late last night in a hospital here, but his condition still is regarded as somewhat critical.

After shooting the bishop during a conference in his office in the diocesan headquarters, the Rev. Woodward turned the revolver upon himself inflicting a wound from which he died a few minutes later at a hospital.

Bishop Query was unconscious for several hours after the shooting, but "reacted favorably," Dr. R. S. Cathcart, his physician, reported, to the operation. The bullet was lodged in the left chest. Before the shooting and suicide

There is nothing quite like Bayer Aspirin for all sorts of aches and pains, but be sure it is genuine Bayer; that name must be on the package, and on every tablet. Bayer is genuine, and the word genuine—in red—is on every box. You can't go wrong if you will just look at the box when you buy it.

It is believed there was a discussion of the retirement age of clergymen and some talk of finances, Woodward telling Miss Henrietta P. Query, private secretary of the bishop, that he wished to see his superior about the retirement age of ministers. A check for $50 made out to Woodward and signed by Bishop Query was found in the room.

That Bishop Query had an intimation of what might happen was shown by his remark to Miss Query when Woodward went in to the bishop's private office. "This man is crazy and no telling what will happen," he told Miss Query.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—(AP)—Gas today had caused three deaths, two of them probably dead in a suicide pact. They are Lester E. Larraway, 30, former Seattle policeman, found dead on a mattress in a kitchen, and Walter Snell, found dead in the same apartment.

Police believe it was a suicide pact or that one of the men intended to take his own life and accidentally snuffed out the life of his pal.

The third victim, Fred Malinsky, was found dead in his room.
