

Local News Briefs

Artisans to Elect

Election of officers for another period will be held by the United Artisans at their regular meeting at the temple Thursday evening.

Will Repair Dwelling

L. H. Barnett took out a permit Monday to repair a dwelling at 1745 Court street, at a cost of $200.

Wiring Case Today

The trial of Harley Youngblood, accused of wiring a house in a way not allowed by law, is scheduled to come up in justice court today at 10 a. m.

Old Time Dance Crystal Garden

Every Wed. and Sat. night.

Plans Small Store

A. W. Lane is planning to build a small store building at 275 Hood street at a cost of $200, a building permit issued Monday discloses.

McCallister to Seattle

Mark McCallister, state corporation commissioner, left for Seattle Monday night where he will attend the annual convention of securities commissioners from the western division. Securities commissioners from all the western states will attend the convention.

Consider Aviation

In your travel plans. Pacific Airplane Service of Salem.

Guest of Chamber

E. J. Allen, who was in the city from Woodburn yesterday, was a guest at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon.

Flag Day Tomorrow

Annual flag day parade and program of the Salem Elks lodge will be held tomorrow evening. The parade will begin the downtown march at 7:30 o'clock, after which open ceremonies will be held at the Elks' temple. This public meeting will be the last meeting of the Elks until fall.

Ten New Attractive Homes

Immediate possession. $2300 to $7500, easy terms. W. H. Grabenhorst & Co. Phone 515.

Leave For Vacation

Mrs. Almira E. Hale and the Misses Laura and May Hale will leave this morning for their vacation in Idaho. They are going over the John Day highway.

To Mail Diplomas

A large number of eighth grade diplomas which were uncalled for at the annual commencement exercises here Saturday will be mailed out from the office of the county superintendent shortly. Grading of the June state examination papers for Marion county is just about completed.

Auction Sale

4-Roomed house and high grade furniture, rugs, tools, etc. Thursday, June 14, 1:30 p. m., at 203 S. 23rd street.

Work on Playgrounds

Louie Anderson and Maxie Landford are busy these days putting the finishing touches on the equipment of the three city playgrounds. On Saturday Fred Erickson will begin construction of a dam at the 14th street grounds. The creek is too shallow to permit safe diving.

Playground Authority Visits

George W. Braden, Pacific coast secretary of the National Playground association visited Salem Saturday to survey the work done here. From here he went to Portland where he will conduct further investigation. Mr. Braden is an authority on this work, and has written books on various phases of municipal government.

Home and Store Corner

House new and modern. Furnace, fireplace etc. Price $3500. Terms. Immediate possession. Becke & Hendricks, 189 North High street.

$353,004 In Smoke

Fire losses in the state of Oregon, exclusive of Portland, for the month of May, aggregated $353,004, according to a report prepared by the state fire marshal Monday. There were 126 fires reported, of which two resulted from explosions. The most disastrous fire was at Baker, where a lumber plant burned with a loss of $165,000.

Douglas on Way East

Dr. and Mrs. Vernon A. Douglas and their daughter left Sunday for Ann Arbor, Michigan, where the doctor will do advanced work in medicine during the summer session of the University of Michigan, following which he will visit a number of clinics throughout the eastern states. They expect to return to Salem about the middle of September. During the absence of Dr. Douglas, who is county and city health officer, the official duties will be in the hands of Dr. William DeKleine, head of the child health demonstration, whose appointment as acting health officer was made recently by both the city council and county court.

Corner 17th and Market

Now $1800 cash. S. E. corner with 87 feet on Market and 56 on North 17th. This is a buy. Becke & Hendricks, 189 North High street.

Rain Postpones Game

Last night's twilight baseball game was postponed because of rain. All games called off during the schedule will be played in order after the close of the regular schedule.

Brook On Vacation

Harvey Brock of the Y. M. C. A. staff is spending a two weeks vacation at the coast. This week he is visiting friends and relatives at Astoria.

Gives Camp Once-Over

C. A. Kells and family spent the week-end at Netarts, where Mr. Kells has been looking over the campsite of the Salem and Marion county boys' summer camp.

A La Carte Service

In dining room Marion Hotel.

Johnsons at Newport

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Johnson, and daughter, Miss Helen, returned Sunday from a two-day outing at Newport.

Speeding Charged

Irwin Bartels was arrested Sunday night by city traffic officers charged with speeding. His home is at Macleay.

Motometer Stolen

W. H. McCartney, 1610 Trade street, reported to the police Monday that the motometer was stolen from his automobile while it was parked near the paper mill.

Lost Female Boston Bull Pup

Brindle and white. Answers to name of Sall. Reward, Phone 671-R.

Health Talk Wednesday

The health talk which will be given on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Salem health center, 434 North High street, will be on "Dental Welfare." An interesting series of dental pictures will be shown. Everyone is invited to attend.

Road Claim Turned Down

Holding that Nellie E. Gunnell had appeared too late with a claim against the county for $485 alleged damages in road construction, the Marion county court yesterday turned the claim down. She stated that her property had been injured in the amount named when the road connecting the Salem-Rosedale road with the Salem-Independence road was constructed. It was held by the court that she should have presented her claim by the time the road viewer's report was read the second time, which was June 7.

Furniture Upholsterer

And repairing. Gless-Powers Furniture Co.

Held on Booze Charge

Ernest Linde had been imbibing so much liquor that the highway was too narrow for his car and he ran it into the ditch, Marion county officers charged when they arrested Linde following a smashup near the Keizer school house north of Salem at 11:30 yesterday morning. He was brought to Salem and lodged in the county jail. Leo Killian, who was riding with him at the time of the accident, sustained severe scratches about the face and was removed to a local hospital where a surgeon took three stitches in the skin near his eye.

Atchisons Return

Rev. Thomas Atchison of the Jason Lee Memorial church and Mrs. Atchison returned to Salem 10 o'clock Monday morning after spending nearly six weeks in the east, where they attended the general conference of Methodists in session in Kansas City recently. Rev. Atchison and Dr. Carl Gregg Doney of Willamette university were among the official delegates from this district. Dr. Doney returning some time ago. On the return trip Rev. and Mrs. Atchison visited in Idaho and Seattle and while in the east spent some time in Chicago.

Small Apartment House

And business corner—all at $5800, quick sale. Becke & Hendricks, 189 North High street.

Livesleys Return

It may be a presidential year, but the stable economic structure which is seen throughout the country doesn't give evidence of it; that is the opinion of Mayor T. A. Livesley, who, with Mrs. Livesley, is in Salem again from a five week's trip through the country including stops in Montreal, New York, Washington, Cincinnati, Kansas City, Chicago, St. Louis, Colorado, Los Angeles and San Francisco. A seasonal depression due to backward climatic conditions was frequently evident. Mayor and Mrs. Livesley were accompanied on the return trip by their son, Tom, who attended school this year at Culver, Ind.

FLORAL DESIGNS
CUT FLOWERS, PLANTS
GOLD FISH, BIRDS
C. F. BREITHAUPT
Telephone 180 512 Sta's Bt.

We board Dogs at our farm
FLAKE'S PETLAND
273 State and Pacific Highway

GOOD WILL OAKLAND

SAYS—

We have an early 1923 Maxwell touring, well equipped has 85% new rubber, top, curtains, finish and motor in A1 condition. Price $175.00.

VICK BROS
"The House That Service Built"

Drunkness Charged

J. W. Murphy was arrested Monday evening by a city policeman, charged with being drunk.

On Vacation

Miss Elsie Miller, laboratory technician with the Salem clinic, has gone to Missoula, Mont., where she will spend a month visiting friends and relatives.

Jack Cloyd the Barber

Is now with DuBois' barber shop basement Masonic building.

No Cherrian Dinner

No Cherrian dinner will be held this month, but all members who plan to attend the Rose Festival Thursday must appear in uniform at the MacDonald auto company, reports King Bing P. D. Quisenberry. Final instructions will be given at that time and a meeting place will be determined.

Freed on Check Charge

The case against C. H. Tull, accused of issuing a forged check, was yesterday dismissed by Justice of the Peace Brazier Small on the grounds of insufficient evidence.

Company B Going

Company B, 162nd Infantry, will have 68 men and three officers in the roll call at the annual summer encampment of the Oregon National guard at Camp Clatsop, between Astoria and Seaside. The men will train for the summer camp at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning.

For Rent and Lease

Houses—Flats—Apartments—store buildings. Becke & Hendricks, 189 North High street.

Some Despite Rains

About 75 Kiwanians and members of their families gathered at the fairgrounds Sunday for the annual picnic of this district. Five of the seven clubs had representatives. Salem, Clatsop, Oregon City, Albany and McMinnville.

Adopts New Envelope

And now the air mail has its own envelope. The government has started issuing a new air mail envelope, same size as the ordinary container, with "via air mail" printed at one side, instead of clear across as in the old ones, and with a blue and red border. More and more are business and other types of mail coming to the use of the air, says the local assistant postmaster, A. E. Gibbard.

To Export Flax Machine

The state flax industry has manufactured at a cost of nearly $1,000 a flax pulling machine which will be shipped to England, it was announced at the regular chamber of commerce luncheon yesterday by State Treasurer Thomas B. Kay. The state will receive approximately $1,700 for the machine. The state board of control will shortly be asked to allow the manufacture of five machines similar to the scutching one which the plant recently received from the east. Col. W. B. Bartram said. Colonel Bartram who was the principal speaker at the meeting said the eastern machine had been used here successfully.

$495
FINE TORIC reading lenses. We insure your glasses against breakage. Examination free.
Thompson-Glutsch Optical Co.
110 N. Comm'l St.

Cooling
A perfect food for young and old. Our Ice Cream is pure, healthful and delicious. All flavors in brick and bulk.

SPECIAL TODAY
Vanilla Ice Cream
Per Quart 50c
Schaefer's
DRUG STORE
135 North Commercial St.
Phone 197
Penslar Agency

Plans Dwelling
A. B. Stainke took out a permit Monday to build a dwelling at 1940 Market street, costing $3000.

License Suspended
The operator's license of Edward Roth was suspended for 30 days in municipal court Monday, following his plea of guilty to a charge of speeding and reckless driving.

Barris Home
Captain Paul Barris of Co. B, 162nd Infantry, has returned from a four month's sojourn in the east in time to accompany his men to the annual summer encampment of the national guard at Camp Clatsop. While away Captain Barris studied for three months at Fort Benning, Georgia.

Three Couples Wed
Marriage licenses were yesterday issued by the Marion county clerk to the following couples: Ralph R. Warswick, 41, Eugene and Martha Lake, 33, Springfield; W. M. Bernard, 52, and Sylvia A. Merislike, 35, both of California; Ervin W. Kron, 27, Salem, and Florence J. Lake, 24, Gresham. With the exception of Mr. Kron and Miss Lake, each one of the six has been married once before.

Ivan Cooper Held
Charged with obtaining money under false pretenses when he passed a check at the Peter Pan restaurant recently, Ivan Cooper was haled before Justice of the Peace Brazier Small yesterday. The misrepresentation is said to be that he insisted he had money in the bank when he did not. He will have a hearing at 10 a. m. today. He is being held under $10,000 bail.

Minard Admits Assault

E. L. Minard yesterday entered a plea of guilty when arraigned in justice court on a charge of assault and battery against T. S. Williams. He was released on his own recognizance while his case was continued for sentence.

Visit Friends Here

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Lewellen and daughters Alice and Roberta of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Pownder, daughter Evelyn and sons Glenn and Clarence of McMinnville and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Taylor of Albany spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Payne in Salem.

Returns from Vacation

Mrs. Myra L. Shank, Salem police matron, returned Sunday from a vacation trip to California. She visited two daughters in California, Mrs. J. L. Irvin at Redlands and Mrs. C. W. Fox at Oakland, and spent one day on her way home with a sister at Klamath Falls.

NOBLE STARTS MARCH ACROSS ARCTIC WASTE

(Continued from page 1.)
had seen nothing of any of Noble's men on his flight, he did, however, meet a party of Alpinists, under Captain Sora which started overland from Kings Bay last week. He found these men at Mossel bay.
An ice breaker of greater power than either the Braganza or the Hobby is the main hope for quick started northward two of the most powerful ships in the arctic brought cheer to the anxious watchers here. It was fervently hoped that they would make good speed.
rescue of the Italia crew. The fact that the Russian government has

We Have Moved From

282 N. Commercial
To Our Present Location
265 N. Commercial
Room 8, Over Army Store
DR. A. C. EATON

PILES CURED

Without operation or loss of time.
DR. MARSHALL
329 Oregon Bldg.

ELECTRIC MOTORS

Reground and Repaired, New or Used Motors

VIBBERT & TODD
Things Electrical
191 South High Tel. 2112

LADD & BUSH, Bankers

Established 1868

General Banking Business

Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

TRANSFERS
and Storage
Long and Short Distance Hauling
Public and Private Storage
Fireproof Building
GRAIN, FEED and SEED
Free Delivery to any part of the city,
QUOTATIONS ON APPLICATION
Farmers Warehouse
PAUL TRAGLIO, Prop.
Day Telephone 28 Night Telephone 1267-W

MRS. J. L. WHEELER, FALLS CITY, DIES

But Short Time; Funeral Services at That Place Sunday Afternoon

FALLS CITY, June 11.—(Special).—Mrs. J. L. Wheeler passed away at the family home in Falls City June 7, after a brief illness. She is survived by her widower, J. L. Wheeler, two daughters, Mrs. L. Hylton of Newport, Oregon, and Mrs. Jerry Morris of Valsetz, Oregon; two sons, S. P. Wheeler of Abilene, Kansas, and Lindsay Wheeler of Valsetz, Oregon; and 20 grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.
Mrs. Wheeler was a member of the Missionary Baptist church, and lived a consistent Christian life, doing good in a kindly, quiet way.
Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Christian church, conducted by Elder A. H. Dodd, with interment in the Oddfellows cemetery.
Mary Ann McNece was born in Monroe county, Kentucky, July 23, 1848, and when 12 years of age moved to the state of Missouri with her parents where she grew up and spent her life until coming to Oregon.
On November 12, 1868, she was united in marriage to J. L. Wheeler, and to this union 10 children were born, four of whom are living.
Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler and family came to Falls City about 25 years ago, and with the exception of a few years this has been their home during all that time.

TEACHERS UP NEXT

BUT ONE MORE DAY TO CRAM FOR COUNTY EXAM

Marion county teachers will gather at the chamber of commerce hall tomorrow morning for the first sessions of the state teacher's examinations, being held concurrently in each county seat of Oregon. The final examinations will be held Saturday, with geometry and botany scheduled for the morning and general history and bookkeeping in the afternoon.
Schedule for the first three days includes:
Wednesday: forenoon, United States history, writing, music and drawing; afternoon, manual training, reading, physiology, composition, domestic science, methods in reading course of study and in arithmetic examinations.
Thursday: forenoon, arithmetic, history of education, psychology, methods in geography, mechanical drawing, domestic art, course of study for domestic art; afternoon, geography, stenography, grammar, American literature, physics, typewriting methods in language and

Funeral of Baby Young Held at North Santiam

NORTH SANTIAM, June 11.—(Special).—The three months old baby of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Young, who had been placed in the Doernbecher hospital at Portland for special treatment, died there Thursday and funeral services were held for it Saturday, in the beautiful cemetery at Stayton.

MT. CREST ABBEY MAUSOLEUM VAULT ENTOMBMENT

LLOYD T. RIGDON, Mgr.

thesis for primary certificate.
Friday: forenoon, theory and practice, physical geography, orthography, English literature, chemistry; afternoon school law, algebra, geology, civil government.

M'CLELLANS ATTEND FAMILY GATHERING

North Santiam Folk Help Honor Grandma Oglesbee; Barn Being Built

NORTH SANTIAM, June 11.—(Special).—Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McClellan went to Suver Sunday to join in a family reunion in honor of Grandma Oglesbee's 79th birthday, when for the first time in many years all her family of nine children had the opportunity of being with her.
The large gathering included children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. Grandma Oglesbee, a one time resident of this place, has many friends here who will join in the wish, that there may be many other happy birthdays in store for her.
Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Van Nuys of Corvallis spent Sunday in the home of Mr. Van Nuys' sister, Mrs. George Howard.
Mr. and Mrs. Stanley McLaughlin went to Portland Sunday to visit relatives there. They found the little granddaughter, Ora Beryl Maples, who has been seriously ill, improving.

The large barn being built on the John Miller farm, under the direction of O. W. Cobb is nearing completion.

OFFICER RESTRAINED

FISH INTERESTS PROTECTED AT RIVER MOUTH

PORTLAND, June 11.—(AP).—A temporary restraining order directing that Captain G. R. Owens, individually and as commandant of Fort Canby, refrain from any move to enforce a recently promulgated order directing the removal of all fish interests from Peacock Spit at the mouth of the Columbia river, was signed in federal court here today.
This order was made effective until June 18, when a hearing will be held on the suit filed by the state of Washington and the Bakers Bay Fish company of Ilwaco, Wash., against Captain Owens as representative of the war department.
Owens, said in the suit to be resident of Oregon, is commanding officer of Fort Canby on Cape Disappointment, in Pacific county Washington. The bill of complaint sets forth the claim of the state of Washington to certain tide-land at the mouth of the Columbia, including Peacock Spit, and the authority of the state in entering into contract for the lease of these as fishing sites.

OBITUARY

Frederick

At a local hospital, June 11, Selly Frederick at the age of 20 years. He is survived by his parents, four brothers and one sister of Philomath. Remains are in charge of the Salem Mortuary. Announcement of funeral will be made later.

Ramsey

In this city, June 10, Nettie V. Ramsey at the age of 53 years. She is survived by her husband, James F. Ramsey, and one sister of Condon, Oregon. The remains are in the care of the Salem Mortuary. Announcement of the funeral will be made at a later date.

TERWILLIGERS

Perfect Funeral Service For Less
Licensed Lady Mortician
770 Cheneketa Street
Telephone 724

Clough-Huston Company

FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Lady Assistant
Formerly
Webb's Funeral Parlors
PHONE 120

Auction Sale

Good 4 Roomed HOUSE
High Grade FURNITURE
THURSDAY
June 14, 1:30 p. m.
205 S. 23rd St.
F. N. Woodry Auctioneer
Phone 511
House and Furniture open for inspection daily from 1 to 8 p. m.

High Grade FURNITURE

THURSDAY

June 14, 1:30 p. m.

205 S. 23rd St.

F. N. Woodry

Auctioneer

Phone 511

House and Furniture open for inspection daily from 1 to 8 p. m.

AUCTION EXTRAORDINARY

High Grade Furnishings
Oriental Rugs - Pianos
at F. N. WOODRY'S
AUCTION MARKET
1610 North Summer Street
WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON and EVENING
Time—1 P. M. and 7 P. M.
"THIS IS A SALE OF QUALITY, NOT QUANTITY"

This unusual offering consists of the ensemble of a very prominent home, together with other consignments and offers an opportunity for you to purchase the finest at your own price.

ORIENTAL RUGS
Consisting of the very finest Persian and Chinese, in popular sizes 9x12 in Sarauks, Kernum, Lillihans, Irons and Chinese; also smaller Rugs in 8x10, 6x9 and throw rugs

FURNISHINGS
1 HIGH GRADE WELLINGTON PIANO
1 CONSOLE PHONOGRAPH
1 PORTABLE PHONOGRAPH
1 OVERSTUFFED VELOUR DAVENPORT AND CHAIR
1 SIMMONS DAY BED WITH MATTRESS
1 WALNUT LIBRARY DINNER
6 WALNUT DINING CHAIRS WITH TAPESTRY SEATS
1 WALNUT RADIO TABLE
1 WALNUT BEDROOM SUITE
1 IVORY BEDROOM SUITE
WOOL, SILK FLOSS AND COTTON MATTRESSES
SIMMONS BEDS AND SPRINGS
HAND DECORATED BOOKCASE
DROPPHEAD SINGER SEWING MACHINE
3 WALNUT AND VELOUR ROCKERS
1 MAY TAG ELECTRIC WASHER, LIKE NEW
1 BRIDGE LAMP
INDIAN ROBES AND BLANKETS
1 LARGE OAK FLAT TOP DESK AND CHAIR
Felt Base Rugs, all sizes; Linoleum by the yard, all grades; good wood and coal range, and many other miscellaneous articles.

Entertainment by Mrs. F. N. Woodry and her Boy Orchestra given before each Sale.