Apricots and Peaches Here

Apricots and peaches have made their appearance here in the last week or so, both being products of the California orchards. Peaches on the market the past few days look and are much better than those first received. Larger shipments are coming in, billed at $1.75 per box. The apricots are quoted at $2.25 per 25-pound lug. They are good color and size for the first shipments. We know a lot of fellows who would rather be a delegate to Kansas City or Houston than to be Mussolini.
