

DIRECTOR, CLERK WILL BE ELECTED

New Road to Pacific Highway Being Surveyed in Maplewood Section

MAPLEWOOD, June 15.—(Special.)—The school meeting for district No. 102 will be held Monday evening, June 18. At this time one director and a clerk will be elected. George Campbell is the retiring member of the board. The other members of the board are Jesse Mathis, Willard Mathis and W. A. Mumper, clerk.

Officials from the county surveyor's office in Salem have been engaged here recently surveying the new road extending from the Jesse Mathis nursery, eastward one mile. This road is designed to help farmers and truck gardeners to reach the Pacific highway more easily.

Frank Mathes, of this place, took his large threshing engine to Fairmount dairy this week to be used in the coolin' and bottling department of the dairy, while the dairy engine took a few days vacation for a thorough overhauling and repairing. Mr. Mathes was obliged to move the large engine at night to avoid spoiling the paved roads.

While no great damage has been done to hay, by the recent rains, farmers are viewing the unsettled weather conditions with some disfavor, owing to berries and the approach of cherry ripening.

Word received this week from Mrs. H. W. Mears, Idaho Falls, Idaho, speaks of the beautiful irrigated country, smiling with greenness, where a few months ago was sagebrush and coyotes.

Mrs. F. W. Brown is the house guest of her daughter, Mrs. Roy Perkins at the beautiful new Perkins' home on Pacific highway.

Mrs. Brown's home is in Portland. Sheep-shearing is about completed here after being somewhat delayed owing to unfavorable weather.

Hayesville cemetery, where many pioneers rest, is beautiful with roses and other choice shrubbery. The great need of a constant water-supply in this cemetery could be met with a driven well and plans in this direction are shortly to be made.

Along the country lanes the blackberries are ripening and the ocean spray is bursting into bloom.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mathes and daughter, Miss Velma Mathes, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. George Barnett spent a few days recently visiting at the William Mumper home here. The Mathes' live at Kent, Sherman county, and the Barnetts live at The Dalles. The party was enroute home from Eugene where Miss Velma Mathes has been attending the University of Oregon. The Barnetts are the parents of Mrs. Mathes.

Early hay-baling, which was scheduled for this week, was temporarily postponed, giving the cured clover a chance to become thoroughly dry again.

STATESMAN ITEM AIDS POOR FAMILY

The Statesman recently contained an item that a Salem woman was receiving donations to buy a cow for a local family in which there were many children and few dollars.

The woman, who prefers to remain anonymous, reports The Statesman's publicity effective.

Upper right: Home of Betsy Ross, traditional maker of the first stars and stripes, which has changed but little during the more than 150 years it has stood on Arch street, Philadelphia, only a few hundred yards from Independence Hall. The sign over the door reads: "Birthplace of Old Glory."

with sufficient sums quickly accumulating, with money given by the Elks' lodge, to purchase the cow. The animal was selected by a member of the Elks who knows cattle.

The family, the woman says, is not in immediate want. The children are working in the berry fields and the mother says they will be able to manage without further assistance, and extends thanks to all those who helped her.

MOSES, DENEEN VIEWED

Vice President Material Eyed By Republican Chiefs

KANSAS CITY, June 15.—(AP) (Friday)—Moses of New Hampshire, and Deneen of Illinois, were two of the names around which republican vice presidential speculation largely revolved early today as Hoover leaders sought in conference to agree as to who should be supported as a running mate for the commerce secretary.

Consideration also was being given to Curtis of Kansas, Vice President Dawes and Tilson of Connecticut and there were no indications that the field had been narrowed down to one man.

Those who have been directing the Hoover campaign however, said they were certain that some one, looked on as an acceptable ticket mate for the presidential nominee would single down with a view to giving him the support of Hoover delegates before the convention meets at noon to nominate.

NEW INCORPORATIONS

The West Coast Telephone company, a Washington corporation with capital stock of $7,000,000, was granted permission by the state corporation commissioner to operate in Oregon. Charles Hall of Marshfield is chairman of the board of trustees. Earl W. Gates of Marshfield is vice-president of the company. The corporation operates several independent telephone lines in the state.

The Portland General Agency of Portland, capitalized for $5000, filed articles of incorporation. The incorporators are Alfred A. Hampson, George L. Buland and Clarence J. Young.

FRIENDS HOLDING ANNUAL MEETING

Urged to Help Remove Compulsory Military Training in Colleges

NEWBERG, Ore., June 15.—(Special.)—Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends perfected its organization Thursday afternoon with the reappointment of Edward Mott of Portland as presiding clerk and Marguerite P. Elliott of Salem, as recording clerk, and the appointment of Jasper Belleau of Portland as reading clerk and Charles Beals of Boise, Idaho, as announcing clerk.

The opening address which stressed the opportunities for Friends in the great Pacific northwest in their presentation of the definite conception of the christian life was given by Edward Mott, the presiding clerk.

Tilman Hodson and his wife, evangelists from Pasadena, Calif., Myrl Huff, an evangelist from Indiana, and Inez Bachelor and Nettie Springer, evangelists from Iowa yearly meeting, were the visitors from other yearly meetings.

From the London yearly meeting, which has just closed its session in England, came a cablegram of greetings. A general epistle and a particular epistle from Philadelphia yearly meeting were received and ordered printed in the minutes. An impressive call to the life of love and an urgent request for the Friends to put Jesus' way of life into practice at whatever costs, was contained in the general epistle.

The particular epistle to Oregon yearly meeting dealt chiefly with the growth of military training in the United States in recent years, with the increase from 52 to 273 educational institutions giving such training, and the increase in the number of men taking it from 29,000 to 119,000. Friends were urged to use their efforts to secure the removal of the compulsory provisions for military training in land grant colleges and to secure the reduction of such training in other institutions.

The epistle from the German yearly meeting was read with interest. The attitude of Friends in their teachings concerning Christ and his opposition to war, was the main issue of this epistle. This yearly meeting is the outgrowth of the work of the American Friends service committee in the way of relief in Europe during and after the World war.

The department of christian stewardship made its annual report through its chairman, Anna W. Benson of Portland, which showed material progress in the nature of tithing and other forms of systematic giving. An earnest address on the subject of christian stewardship was given by Edgar Sims, pastor of Salem monthly meeting.

Ida J. Lee of Portland presented her annual report as superintendent of literature. This was followed by an address on the importance of the right reading by Gervas A. Carey, pastor of the Newberg meeting.

Foreign missions is the main item of business for tomorrow forenoon, with the evangelistic and church extension board making its report in the afternoon.

MANY YOUNGSTERS VISIT PLAYGROUNDS

Two of the city playgrounds opened yesterday afternoon with a crowd of happy children at each. The swings, chutes and sandpiles were in use all the time, and other games helped make the afternoon interesting.

In addition to the use of the swings and other apparatus provided, in the future children will use rattles for basketmaking, and will do papercutting, and other forms of constructive play. At any time during the afternoon yesterday one could see 30 or 40 children at either of the grounds. As children were constantly coming and going it is probable that about a hundred were cared for at each of the two playgrounds.

C. A. Kells reported that work on the swimming-pool at the 14th street grounds was progressing satisfactorily, and that when the dam is complete, a fine swimming and diving pool will be available to the children of that vicinity. Teams and scrapers have been scooping out the bottom of the pool. At the lower side a 70-inch plank dam will be built that will make the water a fine depth for the youngsters.

The grounds will be open to the children from 1 o'clock until 6 o'clock every afternoon of the week for the next ten weeks.

ORDINANCE ALTERS GARBAGE HANDLING

Radically different handling of garbage, necessitated by the use of the new incinerator, will be provided for in an ordinance which will be presented for the approval of the city council next Monday evening, it was stated yesterday by City Attorney Fred Williams, who is drafting the bill.

Two separate receptacles for garbage will be required. In one of these, with a tight cover, buried garbage will be placed after being wrapped in newspapers. This garbage must be hauled away at least once a week, although of course there is no objection to its being moved oftener.

In the other receptacle will be placed the indestructible garbage, which must be hauled away at least every four weeks. Ashes will also be kept separate.

The ordinance will require hauling of garbage in covered vehicles.

PRATUM FARMERS DESIRE SUNSHINE

Much Hay Down in That Vicinity; Roth Brothers Building New Barns

PRATUM, June 15.—(Special.)—Mrs. George Clymer who has been very ill for several weeks is slowly recovering. During her sickness her son Alvin Clymer and his wife from Arizona were here and also her daughter, Mrs. Saldor from Portland. Her other children living in this county were also here.

Miss Miriam M. Beesley who taught school here the past term left for her home in Illinois last Monday. Last Friday evening the young folks of this community gave a farewell party in honor of Miss Beesley at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred de Vries.

Sunshine is very much desired by the farmers as most of them have a lot of hay out in the weather. Fred de Vries was fortunate in having about 40 tons baled before the rain.

Jack Roth and Ernest Roth have their new barns almost completed and will be ready for storing their crops of hay.

Fred de Vries is going to Los Angeles to attend the world's Sunday school convention. He will make the trip by way of Vancouver, B. C., Chicago and Kansas City.
