 Wendling at Eugene.
 Bend at Cottage Grove.

Barring intervention of the god of falling waters, the Salem Senators and the Albany Alcos will play ball at Oxford Park this afternoon.

Salem is presumed to have a slight edge by virtue of its position at the top of the ladder, but "dope" figures vary slightly in games between these two towns. The situation is comparable to that when the University of Oregon and Oregon State meet on the gridiron. It's more of a fight than a ball game, both teams keyed up to an unusual pitch, and is either a terrific battle or, in case one or the other can't stand the strain, a shameful slaughter.

This is a crucial game for Salem, too. The Senators are only one game ahead of Bend, and they don't stand very much chance of beating the Eagles at Bend—at least, nobody else has accomplished it. On the other hand, Bend ought to lose one more game, possibly to Eugene at Eugene, so if the Senators get by today's hurdle they have a good chance of winning the first half title. Aside from the game at Bend, they have only to beat Cottage Grove here and Wendling at Wendling.

It would be a shame for rain to stop today's game here, for both camps are good and mad, all set to sink their teeth into each other.

Yesterday Red Rupert, manager of the Alcos, sent the second of two little notes to Frisco Edwards of the Senators, telling him just how ignoble a defeat he was about to hand the Salem team. Edwards went back to the effect that Toledo would be looking for some games after the league's first half. The meaning of this subtle message is clear when it is recalled that the Willamette Valley league will drop the two low teams after the first half.

The sports department of the Salem also received a communication from Mr. Rupert, telling just how fast this Albany team is. "Take the whole Albany line and put in Salem's fastest man and he would be number 10," this budding author declared.

The lineup, by the way, will be something like this:
 Salem: Kober, cf; Olinger, 2b; Riddings, ss; Sullivan, 1b; Heenan, 3b; Gill, rf; Harnes, lf; Edwards, c.
 Albany: Logan, lf; Smith, 2b; Joak, cf; Hecker, ss; McReynolds, 1b; Reipl, 3b; Fortier, rf; Wilkenson, c.

Best, p. Coleman, p.
 Rupert likewise opined that most of the Salem players could put up a pretty fair race against a heavily burdened hot carrier. It is reported that Chief Minto has assigned two extra officers to the ball park to keep Rupert and Edwards from damaging each other.

Wendling is planning to set Eugene down today at Eugene, but the outlook is all against it. Eugene has been playing pretty baseball since signing up a majority of the University of Oregon players, and is out to win the pennant—which it still has an outside chance to accomplish.

Cottage Grove will face Bend's invasion by trotting out a new pitcher, Smith. Cottage Grove also has a catcher of the same name, so the Eagles may oppose a Smith battery.

BRITISH NET STARS WIN WIGHTMAN CUP

WIMBLEDON, England, June 16.—(AP)—For the first time since 1925, Great Britain's women tennis stars broke through the American defense today to win back the Wightman cup, symbol of supremacy as famed in the women's court world as the Davis cup is among the sturdier sex.

By a margin of four matches to three and chiefly through brilliancy in doubles play in the two days of competition, the English girls regained the trophy that has not rested on Britain's shelf since the conquest at Forest Hills in 1925. In total victories the count now tied at three all, for Americans won in 1923, 1926 and 1927, losing the second of the series in 1924.

Victory for England came with a dash today after Helen Jacobs, California companion of Helen Wills, had squared the matches at three all with a clean cut win over Betty Nuthall, 6-3, 6-1, in the final singles contest. On the shoulders of the crack doubles team of the two countries rested the burden of final victory, and with surprising ease Mrs. M. H. Bennett, Watson and Miss Helen Anderson, from Richmond, Va., and Helen Wills, the one outstanding star of the tournament 6-3, 6-1.

GERMAN AND ENGLISH GIRLS FAVORED IN GAMES

Northwest Open Champ Not Picked; Play Goes On

PORTLAND, June 16.—(AP)—Seventy two holes of medal golf here yesterday and today failed to determine the Pacific northwest open champion, so Dr. O. F. Willing, the amateur brigade and Pursey, of Seattle, will go out tomorrow for another 18 holes to decide whether an amateur or a professional will wear the open crown for the next 12 months.

Willing, upholding the honor of the amateur brigade and Pursey, color bearer of the professionals, tied for the championship with 293 strokes apiece. The tournament committee decided on the 18 hole play off to tomorrow at 9:30 a. m.

Willing shot one over par card of 73 in the morning round today and then went around in even par figures in the afternoon to hold his place at the top. Pursey, one stroke behind Willing when they started the final 36 holes, was still one down at noon as he matched Dr. Willing's morning card with a 73. In the afternoon, however, Pursey, who is defending the title he won last year at Victoria B. C., broke par, the first time that feat had been accomplished in the tournament.

The Seattle professional drew up an even terms with Willing at the fourth hole in the afternoon. Pursey got a break on the 15th which meant just the difference between trying for the championship and being a runner-up. He was playing with Bon Stein, Seattle amateur. In approaching the 15th green after Stein had played up, Pursey's ball hit Stein's and then traveled on to hit the flag pole and bounce back about a foot leaving him one putt for his birdie three. But for hitting Stein's ball and then the staff, Pursey would have been a considerable distance past the hole.

Paddock Defeated by Young Sprinter
 COLISEUM, LOS ANGELES, June 16.—(AP)—Charlie Paddock, long the king pin of the cinder path bowed twice today before youth still in his teens and the name of Frank Wykoff of Glendale was emblazoned foremost among the sprinters Uncle Sam may call upon for the Olympic games.

The Olympic games tryouts for the southwest was the setting for the sandy-haired Wykoff's brilliant victories over the bounding blonde veteran of two Olympic games. His margin of victory in each the 100 meter and 200 meter races was by yards rather than by inches. He won the 100 meter event in 10 3-5 seconds, equalling the Olympic games mark, and equalled the world's record of 20-3-5 seconds in the 200. Paddock holds the 200 meter record.

But Wykoff was not alone in sensational accomplishments. Leighton Dye, wearing the colors of the Los Angeles Athletic club qualified in no uncertain terms for the final tryouts in the east of the 110 meters hurdles by ploughing over the timbers to set a new world's record for the event. His time, 14 3-5 seconds, bettered by two tenths of a second the mark held by E. J. Thompson of Canada.

Other interesting work that will be given, to determine individual proficiency on playground sports, and two other such tests will be given later in the season.

Working with the girls at the 14th street grounds will be Miss Doris Neptune who studied playground work at U. of O. and has had considerable playground experience.

Two World Marks Fall At Olympic Tryout Event
 By ALAN J. GOULD
 Associated Press Sports Editor
 NEW YORK, June 16.—(AP)—Two record-smashing performances—a new American mark by Lloyd Hahn, the Boston express, in the 200-meter run and a world's record by Johnny Gibson, Bloomfield, N. J., star, in the 400-meter low hurdles, furnished the principal thrills today in the eastern Olympic track and field tryouts.

Hahn, running his first outdoor race in big league competition in two years, demonstrated he has lost none of the edge of his remarkable indoor form of last winter by galloping home in front of a crack 800-meter field in one minute 52 1-5 seconds.

The transplanted Nebraskan flier, setting his own pace after working his way quickly out in front, knocked one and three-tenths seconds off the American record of 1:53 5-10 set four years ago by Larry Brown and beat his nearest rival, Sam Martin of the Boston A. A. by six yards. Hahn's time was only three fifths of a second short of equalling the world's outdoor record held by the German doctor, Otto Uetzler.

Gibson, running his first outdoor race in big league competition in two years, demonstrated he has lost none of the edge of his remarkable indoor form of last winter by galloping home in front of a crack 800-meter field in one minute 52 1-5 seconds.

The transplanted Nebraskan flier, setting his own pace after working his way quickly out in front, knocked one and three-tenths seconds off the American record of 1:53 5-10 set four years ago by Larry Brown and beat his nearest rival, Sam Martin of the Boston A. A. by six yards. Hahn's time was only three fifths of a second short of equalling the world's outdoor record held by the German doctor, Otto Uetzler.

Hahn had barely finished his brilliant performance to the cheers of a crowd of 15,000 in the big ball park when Gibson romped to a world's record of 53 3-5 seconds for the 400-meter low hurdles—outclassing most of his rivals and beating Russel (Whitey) Lloyd, navy football star, by six yards. Gibson clipped one fifth of a second off the official world's mark on the books to the credit of the tall Swedish star, Sten Pettersen, who made it in 1925 at Paris.

One of the big events of the afternoon was the triumph of little "Mac" Smith, former Yale cross-country runner, in the 5,000 meter run. Smith's time of 14 minutes 57 2-5 seconds was thirty seconds slower than Paavo Nurmi's world record, but one of the best American performances at the distance recorded since C. F. Hunter set the American record of 14:45 at Pasadena, Cal., in 1929.

FLYING CLOUD GAINS IN COAST MARATHON

LAYTONVILLE, Cal., June 16.—(AP)—Firmly entrenched in first place, Flying Cloud, Karook Indian, left this town behind shortly after two o'clock this afternoon as he headed up the coast in the San Francisco to Grants Pass, Redwood highway Indian marathon.

He was more than 20 miles ahead of the next runner, Melika, the 58-year-old Zuni representing Willits, Cal. Flying Cloud, sponsored by the Oregon Cavermen of Grants Pass and winner of second place last year, was in good condition and his trainer said he would run well into the night. He arrived in Laytonville, 167 miles from Sausalito, actual starting point at 1:44 p. m. and left at 2:08 p. m.

Positions of others in the first ranks changed often owing to stops for rest and medical treatment. Mad Bull, last year's winner and one of the present favorites, was reported to be resting along the 24-mile stretch between Ukiah and Willits. He has been handicapped by chafing and illness.

Mad Bull is from the same tribe as Flying Cloud and sponsored by the same organization.

PLAYGROUNDS TO BE ALL IN USE MONDAY

Louie Anderson announced yesterday that all three of the city playgrounds would be going full force on Monday afternoon. At the 14th street grounds there will be two new slides and new teeter boards. The swimming pool will also be ready. It will be better than any year in the past.

It is planned that each week selected teams from each of the playgrounds will play teams from other grounds. The teams will be divided on the basis of height of the members. It is expected that about five teams will be formed at the 14th street grounds, and two each from the Lincoln and Yew Park grounds. Other games that will be played include basketball and volleyball.

Early in the season a badge test will be given, to determine individual proficiency on playground sports, and two other such tests will be given later in the season.

Other interesting work that will be done will be experimenting with airplane models and boat models, and contests will be arranged to test the superiority of various models made by the boys. A kite contest will also be staged.

Probably the most important and most helpful work of the playground will be the instruction given in swimming, diving and lifesaving. Any children who do not know how to swim should attend the playgrounds and learn under the expert instruction that will be given. Max Langford, lifeguard will be in constant attendance, and will also give instruction in lifesaving.

Working with the girls at the 14th street grounds will be Miss Doris Neptune who studied playground work at U. of O. and has had considerable playground experience.
