

JUNIOR CHAMBER MAKES PROGRESS

Program for Next Year Includes Placing of Historical Signs

Four Salem high school book-keeping contestants made a total of 1411 points, with the 16 remaining entrants amassing scarcely more than twice as many, or 2882, in the first county typing and book-keeping contest.

The above is one of the items in the annual and first report of the Junior Chamber of Commerce which has just been submitted to Superintendent Hug. The report has also been made to the Salem Chamber of Commerce with which the Junior high school body celebrated the past year.

The county typing contest ranks as the outstanding work of the Junior commercial group, it being the first similar contest to be held in this county and the first book-keeping contest in the state. Salem typists took all contests in both the amateur and novice typing, save the fifth place in the latter, and the first four places in the book-keeping event.

Two projects will be carried on by the group next year, the placing of sign posts at places of historical interest near Salem and a plan to encourage students to save systematically.

In the year just closed, Dr. Henry Morris presented a silver cup to the Junior Chamber, which is to be engraved each year with the name of the senior whom the faculty votes to have nearest fulfilled these specifications: loyalty to school, purpose and principle; initiative and scholarship. Melvin Millett was voted the honor this year.

The report shows the club to have had a successful year financially, also, with a balance of $52.28 on hand at the end of the year. The organization gave a substantial sum to the Near East Relief fund which the high school raised.

There are fifty members in the chamber. John Bostrack is president for 1928-29.

KAW INDIANS DELIGHTED

Words of Praise Spoken For Vice Presidential Nominee

KAW, Okla., June 18.—(AP)—In their staid Indian way, members of the Kaw tribe today were voicing their gratification that a blood member of their clan has been bestowed the second highest honor within the great national party—the nomination of Senator Curtis of Kansas, as republican candidate for vice president.

The Kaws are an undemonstrative people, but their rejoicing was as free as the more exuberant celebration of their tribesman's white friends in the Indians' old Kansas home on the banks of the Kaw. Their home now is a reservation in a sequestered bend of the Arkansas river.

"Charlie always was a good boy," said old Ben Fronkier, 86, the tribal sage, who knew the vice presidential nominee as a boy on the Kansas reservation.

That laconic statement, perhaps, paid the senator a tribute as ringing as any fluff speech of a polished orator.

MILL CITY PLANS DAILY BIBLE CLASS

Roy Newport Attending National Fox Convention in Wisconsin

MILL CITY, June 18.—(Special.)—The Daily Vacation Bible class was begun at the Community church here today with at least a two weeks' course in prospect. If the interest warrants it, an additional week of work will be given.

Children of any denomination five years old and above are invited to attend this year, as in the past. Habit talks, stories from the great library, paper tearing, memory work and lessons from birds and animals and regular recreation periods will all be included in the program. Two of the interesting subjects will be "God Revealing His Truth Out of Doors" and "Stories Jesus Told."

Extended Campaign Not Expected of Mr. Hoover

By PAUL F. HAUFERT

It is certain, however, that the republican presidential nominee, after a series of conferences in Washington with party leaders, will journey across the continent early next month, to his Palo Alto, Cal., home. There he formally will be notified of his nomination by a committee to be headed by Senator Moses of New Hampshire, and this occasion will afford him an opportunity to discuss the issues of the campaign as he sees them.

The notification of Curtis will take place at Topeka, his home town, with Senator Fess, of Ohio, at the head of the official committee.

It is Mr. Hoover's present intention to spend a month or more in the west, campaigning but little, and then to return to the east or some point in the middle west to establish his base for the remainder of the campaign. If main headquarters of the republicans are established in Chicago, as some leaders are urging, it is not improbable that he might operate from some country estate near that city, delivering only a limited number of campaign speeches at strategic points.

As for Curtis, although he rarely makes an extended speech in the senate, he is known as a vigorous campaigner on the stump in his home state of Kansas. He makes an old-fashioned political speech, frequently bluntly worded and seems to enjoy pounding home arguments to a crowd.

The school will be held daily from 9 o'clock until noon, with teachers as follows: Mrs. Bert Lovett, Rose Smith, Reverend and Mrs. Gray and Mrs. T. J. Means.

Roy Newport of Mill City is en route to Milwaukee, Wis., where he will attend the convention of American National Fox Breeders' as one of the three Oregon delegates. Mr. Newport expects to be gone about three weeks. He will also visit at the home of his parents in Springfield, Mo.

A. D. Scott was in town from Gates the middle of this week and reports that he has had three sheep killed by dogs.

A delegation from the local Rebekah lodge went to Detroit Wednesday evening to put on degree work there.

The unsettled weather conditions were responsible for postponement of the ice cream social which was to have been held here Thursday evening. The ladies of the Community church are sponsoring the affair.

LEAVES 101 DESCENDANTS
HAVERHILL, Mass.—When Mrs. Delphine Goudreau died she left 101 descendants—four daughters, five sons, 70 grandchildren, 29 great grandchildren and two great-great grandchildren.

Another thing we would like to know is what has become of all the pretty little pink and blue hair ribbons that the girls used to wear.

O. H. Jim, Mrs. Roberts called this afternoon

"She brought the children with her, and actually I was ashamed of Junior . . . they were such ruddy, well behaved little things.

"Oh, I know, it's not our fault, but the city is no place to bring children up in . . . it's an injustice to Junior. No, don't tell me we can't afford a home of our own. Tom Roberts makes less than you do, and they managed it. This afternoon I learned how.

"They watched The Statesman Want Ads, and through them got in touch with a family who had to leave the city and were willing to sell their home for a song."

"That's how they were able to afford it, and that's the way we are going to do. From now on we're watching The Statesman Want Ads."

And Junior will have a chance for his place in the sun. For every day attractive homes are advertised at reasonable terms in The Statesman Want Ad Section.
