CHURCH TO RAZE HISTORIC MANSE

Landmark Where Wilson Wed Ellen Axson Will Pass From Picture

SAVANNAH, Ga., June 27.—(AP)—In a few months will pass a landmark of Savannah, the house in which Woodrow Wilson and Ellen Louise Axson were married.

The house is the 71-year old manse of the Independent Presbyterian church, on the site of which is to be erected a modern Sunday school building to house this department of the church's activities.

While the manse itself is to be torn down, the fact that the Wilsons were married here will not be forgotten. A memorial to them is to be created in the new structure. One room, at the southwest corner, will be the Woodrow Wilson and Ellen Axson Memorial room. This is the location of the parlor in which Mr. Wilson and Miss Axson were united in marriage.

The wedding took place in the evening of June 24, 1885, and many people now living in Savannah recall the occasion, although it did not attract a great deal of attention. The ceremony was performed by Dr. I. S. K. Axson, grandfather of the bride and pastor of the Independent Presbyterian church, and by Dr. Joseph Ruggles Wilson, father of Woodrow Wilson and a Presbyterian minister.

Relatives of the bride and groom attended the ceremony. Following the marriage Wilson and his bride went on their honeymoon to Arden, in the hills of Augusta.

TOOK ADVICE OF HER MOTHER

Praises Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Wetmore, Colo.—"When I was married 14 years ago I was in bad health for a couple of years and when I tried to do anything I would get tired and worn-out. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound off and on all these years and have recommended it to hundreds of women. I have given birth to six children and have taken the Vegetable Compound as a tonic before child birth. It has done me worlds of good. My mother had taken it several times and she recommended it to me."—Mrs. JOHN BRASSER, Wetmore, Colorado.

OBSERVE BIRTHDAY HAZEL GREEN MAN

HAZEL GREEN, June 27.—(Special).—Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Lanham entertained in honor of Mrs. Lanham's father, Newton Woodward, on the occasion of his seventy-ninth birthday. Pink roses and ocean spray were arranged about the living rooms. A large birthday cake with 79 pink candles centered the table.

Covers were placed for the honor guests, Mr. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Woodward and children Lorene and Kenneth and Miss Ruth Bradenberg of Orenco; Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Harrington and son Paul, Mrs. Mary Thompson, Alvin Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Don Miller and small daughter Goretta, all of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Robbins of Independence and Mrs. Louise Johnson of Hazel Green, and the hosts.

Mr. Woodward is an old pioneer, crossing the plains with his father and mother in 1859.

CUBANS WILL ERECT AMERICANS' SHRINE

HAVANA, Cuba, June 27.—(AP)—An American historical shrine, dedicated to Americans who came to Cuba before the Spanish-American war and who aided Cuba in its fight for independence, will be erected in the new Maine park of Havana by the Cuban government.

The shrine, which will be built of white marble, is to contain busts of McKinley, Roosevelt, Leonard Wood and others. Medallions bearing the likenesses of Americans who figured prominently in the cause of Cuban independence and a large bronze tablet bearing the names of American patriots will also grace the shrine.

The Cuban government has appointed Ralph H. Craze, commander of the Spanish-American war veterans in Cuba, to obtain names with photographs and documentary proofs of service.

The shrine will be located on the waterfront near the Maine memorial, one of the most beautiful in the world.

The names of McKinley, Roosevelt and Wood are included not because of actual war service, but because of important service rendered the island immediately after the war and during reconstruction.
