War May Be Eliminated By Means of It, Speaker Says

MINNEAPOLIS, July 2 .- (AP) -Education should produce intelligent patriotism and pave the way for avoididing war, Daniel 👪 Marsh, president of Boston unfversity, told the National Educational association, at its convention tonight. A speaker at the second general assembly, Dr. Marsh said the ris ing generation should be taught causes of war, best ways of avoiding it when disputes arise and cultivation of understandidne and good will as means of estab lishing permanent peace. Education assumes an import ant function in shaping wor destinies, because efforts to make war "humane" by internation and other wartime weapons as futile, said Dr. March. Iowa Tornadoes
